A Temperance Move.
The state superintendent of the anti-saloon league came to this city Saturday. Sunday morning he spoke in the Baptist church and on Sunday night he addressed a crowded house in the Methodist church. One of the things that made that a notable gathering was the enthusiasm manifested. Near the close of the service when Dr. Corns asked all who would agree to do all they could to make North Platte a "dry town" to rise, the whole audience jumped to their feet. A city anti-saloon league was elected, consisting of fifteen citizens. A number of these persons met on Monday night and formally organized by electing the following officers: President, J. H. Van Cleave; secretary, E. W. Mann; treasurer, W. T. Banks. Committees were appointed on program, law enforcement and legislature.

This league will carry forward the work in a steady, systematic way for the best interests of North Platte.

Wrestling Match.
Manager Kubik, of the opera house, has secured another wrestling match for Thursday evening of this week, the principals in which will be Chris Pearson, the Swedish Champion, and Frank DuCray, of Lincoln. Both of these men have defeated Oscar Wassam and are evenly matched. The winner of this match will meet any of the three well known mat artist, namely Gotch, Baill or Farmer Burns. There will be good preliminaries by local talent.
Ladies will be admitted free to this contest.

The Cadets.
Everybody knows that the North Platte high school supports a cadet company, but few know what they are doing or what their aim is. The object in this work is to teach the boys accuracy, order and respect for order and not to make soldiers of them. We feel that only those who can obey orders are fitted to give them, and so the officers are chosen from those who have the fewest demerits.
That the boys are being benefited in the work can be readily seen by anyone who will take the trouble to come and see them drill a few times. The Board of Education will give the company several days for encampment and will pay part of the expenses, leaving the remainder for the boys to pay. They will endeavor to do this on next Friday evening at the Keith theatre when they will give an entertainment. CADET.
