Wendeborn-Cover Wedding.

At eight o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendeborn, their youngest daughter, Miss Emma, became the bride of Guy A. Cover. For this occasion the rooms had been prettily decorated in green and white, and the archway beneath which the ceremony occurred was banked with palms. To a wedding march rendered by Mrs. Fred Wendeborn, the couple—preceded by Vera Stevens as ring bearer, Miss Edith Wendeborn as maid and Ed Sluder as best man—took their station at the appointed place, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. Seibert. The bride wore a gown of Japanese silk, with a veil and carried white roses.

Following the ceremony congratulations were extended by the eighty guests present and the latter were then seated at two long tables and served with a supper that proved very enjoyable. Misses Mayme Lannin, Tillie Huxoll, Frances Nichols and Rosa Cook assisting in the serving. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. George Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Hespin, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawless, of Gothenburg, Miss Rosa Cook of Sedgwick, Misses Mary and Bertha Johnson, of Sutherland, Miss Mayme Johnson and Johnson Ditto, of Brady and John Spies, of Omaha.

The wedding presents were varied and beautiful. The couple left on a night train for Nampa, Idaho, where they will visit the parents of the groom for two weeks. Upon their return they will occupy the new Wendeborn house on west Ninth, which Mr. Cover had previously furnished for the reception of his bride.

Mrs. Cover was born in Nowell precinct, and moved to the city with her parents several years ago. She is a bright, attractive young woman and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends. Mr. Cover is a worthy young man who is employed in the service of the Union Pacific as brakeman.

Women Who Are Envid.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood, give strength, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Stone Drug Co.
