Henry Diener, who was called to Bellevue, Ohio, by the illness of his brother A. H. Diener, returned this morning. The condition of his brother was improved when he left.

In the district court of Lincoln Wednesday the Union Pacific was convicted of violating the state anti-pass law by giving a free pass to Dr. F. A. Graham and was fined $100. It was proven that Dr. Graham did not give the major part of his time to the service of the company.

The Sutherland Free Lance has a right to make this protest: People up this way can get to Omaha and back about as quickly as they can make the trip to North Platte and return, by train. People in this section of the country are entitled to better local train service than they are getting, but it seems useless to howl.

Chas McDonald went to Omaha last night.

For Sale—My photograph gallery on Dewey street. MISS CLARA RANKIN.

Mrs. A. D. Jacobs and daughter left last night for a visit in Oskaloosa, Iowa.

The North Platte Junior Normal opens at high school auditorium next Monday, and the indications point to a large attendance. The out-of-town members of the faculty will arrive Sunday, so as to be on hand at the opening session.

Miss Allen and her pupils gave a very creditable dramatic recital at the Keith last evening before a fair sized audience, and though the program of seventeen numbers was somewhat lengthy, the selections were so varied as to prove interesting at all times. The participants gave evidence of having received excellent instructions from Miss Allen, and the scenes from the heavier productions were well handled. The drills and poses were particularly good.

Miss Irma Huffman left yesterday for a two weeks' visit with friends in Omaha.

Railroad News.

Engineer C. W. Baskin, who recently returned from Excelsior Springs, will resume service with the company tonight.

The local wrecking crew was sent to Cheyenne the early part of the week to assist in pulling out of the turn-table pit the engine that was run into the pit by a laborer.

Asst. Supt. Jeffers, of the Utah division, came down from Uden Tuesday and remained until last night when he left for Excelsior Springs, where he will take treatment for two or three weeks.

A party of O. S. L. officials spent Wednesday night in town. They are traveling over the Union Pacific in the special car "Idaho" examining the method of dispatching trains by telephone.

The engine pulling train No. 2 Wednesday had a lucky accident. After the engine had been detached from the train at this terminal and was backing up on a switch the tire of a tank wheel came off, derailing the truck. That the accident did not occur on the road while running a fifty mile clip was a source of congratulation by all interested.

Supt. McKeown and Master Mechanic Niland, of Cheyenne, spent yesterday in town. Supt. McKeown was waited upon by Mayor Patterson and a committee from the council and asked that the company place a night watchman at the Locust street crossing. Mr. Keown gave the matter favorable consideration and promised that such a watchman would be employed.

Engine Westervelt, right-of-way agent for the Burlington, is up in arms against the laying out of a proposed road through the Burlington lands southeast of the city limits. Mr. Westervelt says that such a road would be a great inconvenience to his company and intimates that there are points other than North Platte that would make a division terminal on the proposed line up the Platte valley.

Additional Hershey News.
