The roller mills, which had been closed for repairs and improvements, resumed operations yesterday.

Miss Anna Gray Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter, of Ogalala, were visitors in town yesterday.

Ray Murray, a former Lincoln county boy, will be married at Lincoln June 23d to Miss Jessie Doyle.

The Rush Mercantile Co. has installed a modern coffee grinder which is operated by an electric motor.

The Sanford Dodge company, which comes here June 21st and 22d will present "The Musketeers" and "Hamlet".

For Sale—Fresh milk cow. Inquire of Mrs. M. McFarland.

Miss Joy Ebricht will be married at the home of her parents five miles southwest of town tomorrow evening to Anthony R. Christensen. Rev. Selbert will officiate.

House to rent at 621 east Fourth street opposite First ward school. Apply to 303 east Second street.

Ralph Garman and Henry Hansen received their Overland automobiles Saturday and the cars were given a trial run Sunday. They are certainly smooth running machines.

Attorney Van Oradel, who has been taking a course at the state university at Lincoln, arrived in town yesterday and will spend the summer on his homestead north of Brady.

A report reaches this office that J. H. Abshire, a well known resident of the Sutherland section, had both legs fractured Saturday by a runaway team. Both fractures were between the ankle and knee.

Albert Muldoon will go to Omaha in a few days and while there expects to receive the Ford automobile ordered some time ago and delayed on account of the inability of the factory to fill orders.

An Angelous pianola was received at the Halligan residence last week, and the head of the house, along with other members of the family, finds the instrument an attractive diversion and very entertaining.

The committee appointed to arrange for a Fourth of July celebration have met with the Chautauqua committee and so arranged the program that it will not interfere with the two Chautauqua sessions on that day.

Season tickets for the Chautauqua are now being printed and will in a few days be offered for sale by a hustling committee. These tickets will sell for two dollars each, and will admit the bearer to seventeen sessions. That certainly is cheap considering the merit of many of the attractions.

WALAMO—Something New for Inside Paint.

Many women who are having their houses done over this season are using Walamo Paint instead of paper, especially for plastered rooms. There is no doubt whatever that this method is more hygienic and clean.

The walls can be washed down and do not need to be renewed each season. It is much more economical than paper. See WORKMAN & DERRYBERRY.

Could Not Be Better.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Eczema, Salt Rheum, For Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands its supreme. Infalible for Piles. Only 25c at Stone Drug Co.

House for Sale.

Want to build on lot, and will sell old house cheap. Call at 102 S. Sycamore St., or phone 208.

Mrs. Victor Von Goetz has returned from a visit with her daughters in Omaha.

It is probable that the North Platte ball team will play in Grand Island on July 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Neville are expected home the early part of next week from their visit at Charles Town, Va.

The Keith Theatre picture show has secured for this week an exceedingly good vaudeville feature—a comedy in two acts by a gentleman and lady who are very clever.

Farmers in town yesterday stated that corn is not growing very rapidly, the weather being too cool for rapid growth. The acreage of corn in the county this year is unusually large.

For Rent—6 room house 808 west Sixth Street. See Mrs. G. S. Huffman.

Secretary Brotemarkle, of the Y. M. C. A., has returned from his eastern trip, having attended association conventions at St. Louis and Omaha. He reports a very interesting and profitable visit in those cities.

The funeral of Ole Davis Saturday afternoon at the Episcopal church was largely attended by friends of the deceased. The mother and a sister arrived from Portland Saturday morning.

Supt. McKeown, who made a trip over the branch last week, says there will be train service into Northport by July 1st. The road, he announced, would not be extended into Bridgeport, not for the present at least.

For Rent—Six room house on West Second street. Lawn, shade, garden and electric lights. GEO. E. FRENCH.

Though deputy assessors are supposed to complete their work by the 25th of May, there are some in Lincoln county who have not yet returned all their schedules. Probably the deputies who are dilatory found their farm work too pressing to give the assessing the necessary time during May.

The North Platte Mill & Grain Co. is paying 70 cents per bushel for corn.

The receipts of the local postoffice for the fiscal year ending March 31st were one thousand dollars greater than for the previous fiscal year. This increase did not, however, result in a raise of the postmaster's salary, an increase of $2,000 being necessary in this class office before an adjustment of salary is made.

Trouble Maker Ousted.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his Dyspepsia and Indigestion fly, but more he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves healthy vigor, all because stomach liver and kidneys now work right. 25c at Stone Drug Co.

Junior Normal Opens.

The Junior Normal opened yesterday morning with an enrollment of seventy-one, which number is as large as was expected on the opening day, and which would have been larger had not the threatening weather yesterday deterred a number of teachers in the country from starting on the trip to North Platte. Several additions were made to the enrollment this morning and the increase will continue daily during the week.

All members of the faculty were present at the opening season and the work started off in excellent shape. It is predicted that the Normal this year will prove exceptionally successful, as the teaching corps is a most efficient one.

Aged Lady Accidentally Killed.

Mrs. Tibbles, mother of Grant Tibbles, living fifteen miles south of town, was killed Thursday of last week by the collapse of the sod house in which she and her son and daughter lived. Mrs. Tibbles, who was eighty-five years old, had been confined to bed for a year or so past, and in addition had been blind for a number of years. Thursday the son was at work in the field and the daughter had been outdoors and was about to enter the house when without warning the roof fell in and carried with it the south and north walls, covering the old lady with debris. The son was notified, and with the assistance of the daughter uncovered the mother, and found the head crushed and one side badly bruised. For a number of years Grant Tibbles had lived alone with his mother, taking care of her, and doing his farm work as best he could, and the kindness he had shown the invalid woman won for him the admiration of all neighbors.

Marriage Licenses.

Judge Elder had a busy day yesterday in the matrimonial division of his court, having issued four licenses. The happy people, or to be happy, were: Elmer E. Peyton and Bessie Lucky, both of Sutherland.

John H. Lusk and Mrs. Pearl LeRoy, both of North Platte.

C. H. Bostwick, of Sutherland and Glydis M. Robert of North Platte. Robert C. Gabbitas, of Ogden, Utah, and Lucy G. Ball, of North Platte.

Friend, Mr. Farmer.

Reception to Rev. and Mrs. Williams.

The Presbyterian congregation will give a reception to Rev. George Williams and family at the W. V. Headland residence next Thursday evening. An invitation is extended to the general public to attend and meet Rev. and Mrs. Williams. A short musical program will be rendered during the evening.

June Wedding Gifts.

You can find all kinds of useful and ornamental things in sterling silver that will last a life time. Rich American cut glass and Hand painted china. Visit our store when down town. DIXON, The Jeweler.

An Unusual Meeting.

The Baptist people are planning for a great meeting for Wednesday of next week. Three of their leading strong men will visit this city on their way to the Northern Baptist Convention which convenes at Portland, Oregon, June 25th. These three men, Rev. Jacob Sallade, of Philadelphia; Rev. Joe P. Jacobs, of Kansas City, Mo., and Rev. M. D. Enbank of Canton, China, will be the speakers of a conference consisting of three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening, June 16th. Delegates and visitors are expected from many churches in this part of the state, and feasts of good things will be had. The public is welcome to all these meetings. Program and further notice will be given in these columns later.

Women Who Are Envid.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Stone Drug Co.

Garfield Items.

The rains and warm weather of the past week have made quite a change in the looks of the small grain.

The ladies' aid will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. Ida Joy.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stone Drug Co.
