TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, JUNE 11, 1909.

NO. 40

MID-SUMMER SALE AT THE LEADER

WILL OPEN

Monday Morning, June 14th, 1909.

For the next thirty days our entire stock of merchandise will be placed on sale at sacrifice prices in order to reduce the stock. This big stock must be reduced, no matter the cost to us. You will find everything marked in plain figures on the red ticket on the goods. The merchandise we offer is of the reliable kind—not old stock of odds and ends—and you cannot afford to lose this opportunity to purchase goods at prices much below their actual worth. Below will be found a few of the bargains to be had during the sale.
