Local News.

Street Commissioner Salisbury has started his summer campaign of street work, at present grading Vine street from Front to First street. A number of the streets running north and south need grading badly.

Among the freight received at the warehouse yesterday was a gasoline launch consigned to Dan Fowles. It is of sufficient size to accommodate six or eight persons, and will be used on a lake on or near Mr. Fowles' ranch in Logan county.

C. N. Trueblood, of the Union Pacific signal department, and wife returned Wednesday from Terre Haute, Ind., where they attended the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Rose Polytechnic Institute, of which Mr. Trueblood is a graduate.

Summer weather, for which we had been wishing, arrived Wednesday, the temperature reaching eighty-eight during the afternoon, followed by an equally high temperature yesterday. The warm weather was badly needed in order to whoop corn along and it will now whoop.

Local lumber dealers have been asked to estimate the bill needed for the erection of the new alfalfa meal mill at Hershey. The foundation for the mill has been laid and the frame work will be started in a few days. The mill will have a capacity of twenty or thirty tons per day.

The automatic bottle washer, ordered some time ago, by the Star Bottling works, has arrived and will not only minimize the work, but insure perfect cleanliness and sanitation. Mr. Porter is building up a wonderful trade in carbonated beverages, and some day larger quarters will be necessary.

On Tuesday evening the Platte Valley lodge A. F. and A. M. installed the following new officers: John F. Seibert, W. M.; Robert A. Armstrong, S. W.; O. H. Cressler, J. W.; Samuel Goozee, Treasurer; Frank E. Bullard, Secretary; Chas. F. Chapman, S. D.; E. T. Tramp, J. D.; P. J. Gilman, Tyler.

Judge Grimes returned Wednesday from Bridgeport, where he held a brief term of court. The Judge says that since Bridgeport became a "dry" town it is not so wild, but is doing a good business. Among the buildings being erected is a three story opera house, and a twenty-five room addition is being built to the leading hotel.

No meeting of the city council was held on Tuesday, a quorum failing to appear. A meeting will be held this evening when President Hoffmaster of the Waterworks company is expected to be present and the water question will be taken up. All citizens who are interested in city affairs, and all should be, ought to attend these meetings and show the mayor and council that their work will be supported.
