The Farmers' Picnic.

The second annual Lincoln County Farmers' Picnic, which will be held at the state experimental sub-station southwest of town next Saturday, July 3d, is attracting much attention, and indications point to a very large attendance. Not only will a large number of farmers be present, but many town people will attend, and it is probable that at least two thousand people will greet Governor Shallenberger, Director Burnett, of the state agricultural colege, and the other speakers. Governor Shallenberger will arrive on train No. 1, will be driven to the picnic grounds Myrtle precinct, valued at 1250.00. in an auto, and following the picnie will deliver an address at the opening of the Chautauqua Saturday evening.

This farmers' pienic, so auspiciously promises to exceed in pleasure and in- June 28th, 1909. terest the one of last year. This occasion affords the farmers an oportunity to have a pleasant holiday, to meet those whom they have not seen for several months or a year, to hear addresses that are of interest to them, and last, but not least, an opportunity to inspect the experimental and every day work being done on the state are none who cannot afford to take a day off and attend the picnic.
