Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Mo., is from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs and prevent pneumonia, its the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by the Stone Drug Co. Trial bottle free.

For Sale.

Four thoroughbred Angus bulls, ranging in age from 8 to 20 months; good heavy, chunky animals. Inquire of or address Frank Ebele, North Platte, Neb.

Find a Skeleton.

Considerable excitement was created north of the river a few days ago by the finding of a skeleton in a good state of preservation with the whiskers still attached to the skull. The "find" was reported to Sheriff Miltonburger yesterday and that official was about to make an examination, when it was learned that the skeleton was one that Dr. Walter Coville had brought home with him from his medical school in St. Louis; that he had placed it in an open box and put the box up a shed to bleach the bones; that one windy night the breezes wafted the skeleton from the box and over the prairie into a ravine, and that Dr. Coville did not value it highly enough to go out and gather it up. Later it was discovered by some of those on or near the Coville place and they at once concluded that some ghastly crime had been committed a few years ago.

Rag Sellers vs. Scrapers.

Under the above disguises the clothing clerks will play the barbers for diamond supremacy next Sunday afternoon on the Union Pacific grounds north of the ice houses. For some time there has been keen rivalry between the two and rather than fight with the razor gang, the outfitters decided to stir things up in a base ball game.

The lineup is as follows: Scrapers, Carson, p., Lanning, ss., Owing, lb., Reed, 3b., Eastbourne, c., Bonsteel, lf., Swiggart, cf., Landgraf, rf., Day, 2b. Rag Sellers, Austin, lf., Clabaugh, ss., Bryant, 2b., Bixler, lb., Selby, 3b., McGovern, cf., Samsel, p., Swope, c., Banks, lf., Umpire, Trout.

Completes School Census.

Secretary Streitz, of the board of education, has completed taking the census of the North Platte school district and finds twelve hundred and ninety-five children of school age. Last year the census taker found 1165, but probably some were overlooked, as the census of 1907 gave about 1200. The census taken by Mr. Streitz was very complete, and he missed very few, if any. About one hundred of the 1295 children in the district live outside the city limits.

Here's a Certainty.

Christian Church.

Sunday school at ten, preaching at eleven o'clock by Prof. W. M. Reaver of Cotner University. The Rev. Mr. Favorite of the Baptist church will preach in the evening. All are cordially invited.

The meeting of the citizens Wednesday night to talk over and discuss the plans for securing a new depot was not very well attended, one banker, one business man and in all only about twenty being present. John Evans was selected as chairman and M. E. Crosby as secretary of the meeting. John Halligan then told of the inadequate hotel accommodations in our city; that our people have been asleep for ten or more years and that the other towns around are running away from us. He said that the people of North Platte are the "Rip Van Winkles of Nebraska." Mayor Patterson then told of the proposition made by the gentleman from Gibbon; either to form a stock company and he would take one half or give him a bonus of $10,000 and he will form a stock company and build a hotel. Short talks were made by Wm. E. Shuman, J. F. Clabaugh and Wm. Ebright, each outlining the needs of a new hotel. Mayor Patterson said that if the people could solve the hotel problem a new depot would be an assured fact. Upon motion of J. F. Clabaugh, the chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of five to build a new hotel. The committee will be appointed in a few days by Mr. Evans and they will get busy in an attempt to secure a new hotel for North Platte.
