

WATCHES.

Our stock of watches speaks eloquently of good things, and there are many people whose happy experiences confirm the reliability and worth of them.

Our success as watch sellers has not been merely fortuitous, but is the result of the unwavering integrity and knowledge gained by long years of study. Every watch we sell is a guaranteed time keeper.

Thus you have more reason to consider this store as an object worthy your seeking.

John Kinkaid, who had been visiting his daughter in Denver for several months, returned to town Wednesday and will probably remain here until fall.

Julius Pizer will leave Sunday or Monday for New York City, where he will do business with the wholesale houses. He will also visit Chicago and Detroit.

The North Platte Bottling Works is making and shipping out seventy-five cases of carbonated beverages daily in addition to shipments of crushed fruits, mineral waters and ice cream cones. These goods are shipped as far west as Ft. Morgan, Col., and Kimball, Neb. Mr. Porter has certainly built up a nice business, and his goods are of such high quality that one shipment to a dealer means a regular customer.

Manager Sittou, of the Pacific hotel, has received the sample of the Union Pacific fobs, which he ordered some time ago. The metal part of the fob is the well known shield of the Overland route and is highly and beautifully decorated in red, white and blue. He has ordered 500 of them and expects to quickly dispose of them on the road and in the shops.

The S. D. Adventists have erected a pavilion on First and Sycamore streets and will hold their first public service Sunday night at 8 o'clock. Elder L. E. Johnson, Supt. of District Five, will speak on the subject "Will Christ Come in this Generation?" He does not follow the beaten track of stereotyped sermons, but has an original way of presenting truth. Infidels and skeptics are especially invited.

M. C. Westfall, manager of the Crystal theatre transacted business in Maxwell yesterday.

The Episcopal Guild held a very pleasant and successful social at the home of Mrs. John McGraw yesterday afternoon.

Checks for the Nebraska division employes were received today and those for the Wyoming division employes will arrive Monday.

Dennis McKellip, living northwest of town, is in the city today making application to prove up on his homestead of 480 acres.

Miss Marie VonGoetz, who following the close of the state university visited friends in Iowa and her sisters in Omaha, returned home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Weingand and Mr. and Mrs. Tanger will make an automobile trip to the west part of the state, going as far as Potter.

Dick McGraw went to Cheyenne last night to consult the Union Pacific oculist in regard to his eyes, not being able to pass the examination for sight.

The formal announcement of the wedding of a prominent young lady and a well known business man is expected soon. Dame Rumor hath it that the ceremony will occur next month.

Francis McKinney, who was brought down from the government surveying camp a few weeks ago and operated on for appendicitis, has recovered and will leave for his home Washington, D. C., in a few days.

Another fine rain fell last night, Observer McDowall reporting forty-seven one hundredths of an inch. Certainly this is proving a great year for crops, the rains coming at very opportune times during the growing season.

Several McPherson county residents were in the early part of this week consulting attorneys as to the proper method to pursue in the campaign for the removal of the county seat from Tryon to a point nearer the center of the county.

Omaha papers print the rumor that the McKeen Motor Car Co. of that city will move either to Council Bluffs, Ia., or to Indianapolis, Ind. As the company is soon to build new shops, probably they want to know what Omaha will do in order to keep the company in that city.

The two games of ball next Wednesday and Thursday between the Kansas City Red Sox and the local team promise to be swift enough for the most enthusiastic fan. The Red Sox have been playing strong teams in the east part of the state and have been putting up good games.

Edward Peyton Weston, the aged pedestrian, who started to walk from New York to San Francisco a few months ago, arrived in the latter city yesterday four days behind his schedule of 100 days. Bad roads and inclement weather in Nevada prevented him from finishing his journey within scheduled time.

It is true that we need a hotel but in the opinion of this writer it will be easier to get a new depot than a hotel if we concentrate our actions and go at the proposition in the right way. Down at Columbus they had a depot that was 500 per cent better than the one at North Platte, yet the people demanded a larger and better one, and the Union Pacific has made an appropriation for a new depot that will be a credit to the town.

Married at Omaha.

Will Dolson, a former North Platte young man, was married at Trinity cathedral in Omaha Wednesday noon to Miss Leita Nally, of that city. Dean Baecher officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Teckla Johnson and the groom by his brother Fred Dolson. The bride's gown was of white embroidered French lawn, in empire effect with lace net. She wore a white hat with drooping plumes and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses; while the maid was gowned in cream chiffon with hat to match and carried white roses.

Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home which the groom had prepared for his bride on South 20th, Omaha, where they will reside upon their return from their wedding trip.

The bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dolson, Miss Johnson and Fred Dolson, arrived in this city Wednesday night and last evening were tendered a reception at the W. S. Dolson residence on west Sixth street. For the function the spacious lawn of the Dolson home had been elaborately decorated—more elaborately than ever before witnessed in North Platte. A large section of the lawn was enclosed in a lattice of tricolor paper—white, red and green and this was studded with electric lights, while above the entrance to the house was an electrically lighted arch.

In the enclosure the reception to the bride and groom was held, sixty invited guests extending their best wishes to the young couple. Punch was served on the front porch, Misses Hildegard Clinton and Virginia Bullard presiding at the bowl. Following the reception a wedding supper was served in the house, the rooms of which were profusely decorated with cut flowers and smilax. The bridal party and relatives were seated at a large table, which was daintily decorated with cut flowers, and with a basket of flowers suspended over the table. The guests were seated at small tables. The menu was very elaborate, nicely prepared and was served by Misses Gilman, Clinton, Patterson, Otten, Hatfield, Owens and Bare, with Mrs. Finn in charge.

During the evening music was furnished on the piano and violin by Miss Elizabeth Bonner and Dell Bonner.

The hours of the reception were from eight to eleven, and certainly the function was a most successful and pleasant one. The bride and groom will visit in town for a few days and then return to Omaha, their future home.

SMALL, The Big Shoe Man.

Animals as Weather Prophets. Before a rainstorm a cat nearly always washes its face. Why? Some claim that the atmosphere excites the electricity in the cat's fur, and to overcome the tingling sensation she sets to washing herself.

Or if there is no cat in the house you may possess a parrot. If the bird sits down and makes a sort of hissing noise, look out for rain in the night. One need seldom fear getting wet in the country. Horses, cows, sheep, hogs, dogs—all evince certain peculiarities before a storm. Dogs bury bones; horses fidget and neigh; cows lie down; hogs grunt.

Some day you may walk into a field and see a flock of sheep in a corner, all with their backs turned to the northwest. If you wait long enough you will feel a wind blow up from that direction.—London Answers.
