Yesterday morning during the absence of John Evans from the local land office a big rat entered through the door and went behind the counter to see Mr. Woodhurst about some land.

About that time Miss Blankenburg saw the intruder and for the next few minutes she stood on the ceiling and impersonated the Goddess of Liberty.

After a few crack shots with a law book, the rat was killed and the stenographer came down from her lofty position.

In a game Sunday afternoon which was filled with sensational and brilliant and wonderful plays, the Sandall Sluggers of Uncle Sam's Mail Agency were defeated by Vinegar's Vicious Sluggers by a score of 23 to 17. Sensational fielding by Sherwood, brilliant work by Landgraf as short stop on the barbers' side and the heavy hitting by Boyd of the post office were the features of the game. Barbers: runs 23, hits 19, errors 0. Post office clerks: runs 17, hits 28, errors 0. Umpire, Pass. Time of game three hours.

Accidents—Landgraf, ear got in front of ball, Tucker, fell on his wrist, Boyd, mashed finger with bat, Carson, scraped ground with elbow, Sandall, sprained elbow, Sherwood, sat down on ball.

for sale. Will also take orders for china painting and firing. MISS MARY GULLAUME, first door east of Commercial Hotel.

Rev. Seibert Resigns. At the morning service at the Lutheran church Sunday, Rev. John F. Seibert presented his resignation to take effect September 1st. He resigns in order to accept missionary work in the Northern District of Illinois, which includes the city of Chicago, a position which had been offered him several times previously but which he declined on account of being loth to leave the North Platte church. The position was again tendered him last month, and after deliberating for several weeks concluded to accept. The new position gives Rev. Seibert a greater range of work, and a greater field to do good for his fellow men. This writer regrets to have Mr. Seibert and his family leave North Platte and this regret is shared by every acquaintance. Not only have they been popular within the church, but in the city at large, and there are none but will wish them success in their new field. The Lutheran church, under the pastorate of Rev. Seibert, has made a wonderful growth in membership, and he turns over to his successor, whoever he may be, a parish that is in good healthy condition spiritually and financially.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Westenfled entertained forty relatives and friends at their home on east Eighth street Friday evening in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. For this occasion the rooms were beautifully decorated with smilax and pink and white carnations, giving a very pretty effect.

At nine o'clock the guests were seated at two long tables and a seven course dinner was served, and which was thoroughly enjoyed by each present. Following the dinner the guests were entertained by musical numbers by Albert and Otto Westenfled and Arthur Tramp, which brought forth the commendation and worthy praise of the guests. Card games were also an entertaining feature of the evening. The gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Westenfled were varied, including beautiful pieces of silver.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meyers of Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Linnmeyer, of Curtis and Miss Newman, of Arapahoe.

Misses Emma and Tillie Huxoll, assisted in serving.
