RAILROAD NEWS.

The local machinist's team will play a picked team at the Union Pacific grounds on Sunday.

John Burroughs returned yesterday on No 5 from a week's visit with friends and relatives at Kearney, Hastings and Grand Island.

Walter Kocken returned Wednesday from a month's visit at Seattle and other western cities. He reports having met several former North Platte people.

The Union Pacific painting gang are at work repainting the ice houses at this point. The recently adopted yellow color is being used instead of the old mineral red.

W. B. Clifford, traveling freight agent for the U. P. and Audrey Potter, traveling freight agent for the C. M. & S. P. were in the city yesterday transacting business.

Lyman McConnell of Omaha and a party of civil engineers came in on No. 11 this morning and went up the North Platte branch to make the survey for an extension.

D. W. Besack, N. D. Christianson, G. A. Cover and L. L. Bertha, brakemen on the west end, went to Grand Island the first of the week to take the conductor's examination. All were highly successful.

All passenger trains from the west yesterday morning were delayed from four to five hours on account of a small wreck at Dexter. Four cars of fruit were derailed and were picked up by the local wrecking crew.

From Laramie comes the report that beginning Sunday, August 8th, two of the fast trains on the Union Pacific will run from Julesburg to LaSalle and thence to Laramie via the Borie cut-off, thus cutting out Cheyenne. The distance over this route is considerably greater, and why that route should be chosen is a problem to local railroad men.

Sees Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. "Although past seventy she seems to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for twenty years. At last she could neither eat, drink or sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters worked such wonders for her health." They invigorate all vital organs, cure liver and kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at Stone's drug store.

Golden-Gutherless Wedding.

The home of J. Purdy on West Front street was the scene of a very quiet but pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Maud Gutherless, sister of Mrs. Purdy, was united in marriage to Mr. James J. Golden. The ceremony was performed by Judge Elder and witnessed by only relatives.

The bride was very becomingly gowned in a very pretty suit of gray and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Purdy. The groom wore the conventional black. Mr. Jerry Purdy acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and later the young couple went to the bride's home north east of town where they will visit for a few days before leaving on a wedding trip which will include Denver, Salt Lake and other western points.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. John Gutherless and has lived in or near North Platte practically all her life. Of a pleasant disposition and charming personality, she has won a wide circle of friends who join in extending their congratulations and best wishes to the young couple. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Golden of this city and a young man of sterling qualities. He is employed as fireman on the Union Pacific and holds the esteem and friendship of his fellow employes.

N. C. Andrews, of Tryon, transacted business in town yesterday.

Life 100,000 Years Ago.

Scientists have found in a cave in Switzerland bones of men who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from severe lung trouble and stubborn cough." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate coughs and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by the Stone Drug Co. Trial bottle free.
