

WATCHES.

Our stock of watches speaks eloquently of good things, and there are many people whose happy experiences confirm the reliability and worth of them.

Our success as watch sellers has not been merely fortuitous, but is the result of the unwavering integrity and knowledge gained by long years of study. Every watch we sell is a guaranteed time keeper.

Thus you have more reason to consider this store as an object worthy your seeking.

Sam Richards was in town Monday. He had been to North Platte settling up his affairs, selling his residence property and disposing of his household goods, preparatory to moving to Eustis. His stock of goods here was disposed of mostly, and the remainder moved across country to Eustis, in wagons last week.—Lexington Clipper.

Men's, ladies' and children's sweaters, in all the latest designs, are shown at The Leader.

The state banker's association, which closed its meeting at Omaha yesterday elected J. W. Welpton of Ogallala president, Arthur McNamara of this city was elected a member of the executive council, which is the governing body of the association. In making these selections the bankers gave western Nebraska a well merited recognition; a much more liberal recognition than is given it by the political parties, and in this the bankers display a spirit of fairness that the politicians do not seem to possess.

Walker-Dillon Wedding.

Nearly one hundred guests witnessed a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony at 8:30 o'clock last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dillon when their eldest daughter Maud Pearl became the bride of Lester Warren Walker.

At the hour appointed Mrs. Frank Bacon, of Gothenburg, sweetly rendered the Bridal Song, followed by a wedding march by Mrs. E. A. Cary and the bridal party entered the room and took position beneath a bower of tamarist studded with miniature electric bulbs. First came the ribbon bearers Virginia Bullard and Harriet Dixon, followed by the bride on the arm of her father, then the flower girl, Dorothy Goodwill, the matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Goodwill, and the bridesmaids Misses Sylvia Watts, May Walker, Alice Birge and Nell Hartman. The gown of the bride was embroidered net over white satin, with veil, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses; the matron of honor wore white net over silk and carried white roses, while the bridesmaids were attired in rainbow colors and carried white and yellow carysanthems. The ribbon bearers and flower girl were prettily attired in white. As the party reached the bower they were met by the groom and his best man, John Butner, of St. Louis, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Geo. F. Williams, of the Presbyterian church, who used a beautiful and impressive service largely extempore.

Following the ceremony congratulations were begun and during these expressions of well wishes, vocal solos were rendered by Miss Irene Neville and Mrs. Frank Hatch. The color decorations of the rooms were green and white, the room in which the ceremony occurred being profusely and tastefully decorated with tamarist, smilax and white flowers and ribbons.

Following the congratulations refreshments were served and in these the color scheme was carried.

The remembrances from friends and guests were very handsome as well as very many, the whole forming a display seldom seen in North Platte.

The couple left on a night train for Chicago and other eastern points, and upon their return will take up a residence in the former Sam Richards' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have so long resided in North Platte and are so well known as to need no introduction at our hands, suffice to say that the bride has been one of the leading young ladies of the town and the groom one of our progressive business men.

Harriman Passes Away.

Edward H. Harriman died at 3:35 yesterday afternoon at his country home at Arden, N. Y., at the age of nearly sixty-one years. This wizard of railroads whose conceptions were as wide as the continent, this organizer of systems who controlled whatever he touched, was pre-eminently at the head of the railroad magnates of the world. Selecting the Union Pacific as the road upon which to develop his constructive power, he rehabilitated that vast stretch of rails and by a seeming lavish expenditure of money, placed it in a condition second to none of the great railways of the country. With this first venture of magnitude he secured control of connecting lines, until at the time of his death he was the "one man" director of more miles of railroads than any other individual. He not only organized railroads, but he made them pay, and thus secured for his undertakings unlimited capital.

In speaking of the death of Mr. Harriman and the effect it may have on the properties he directed, a New York dispatch says: It is believed by Mr. Harriman's associates that the railroad system which he organized and carried forward to such a degree of success will be continued with practically no change of policy and that plans to that end were perfected long before his death.

Married Wednesday Night.

Miss Arba Vroman and Will Owens were married at the home of the bride at 8:30 Wednesday evening, Rev. Chas. Chapman officiating. Only members of the two families were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Owens left on a night train on a tour to Salt Lake City and other western points. Both the bride and groom have been residents since childhood, are well and favorably known and held in high esteem by all acquaintances.

Entertains Many Ladies.

Sixty ladies enjoyed a Kensington given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. H. S. White in favor of her guest, Miss Whitehill. The afternoon proved a most delightful one, and the hostess was warmly complimented upon the success of the function. In the serving of the refreshments the hostess was assisted by the Misses Alice Birge, Ruth Streitz, Alice Wilcox and Nell Bratt.

A few days ago Mrs. Dr. Ames received a half dozen pie melons which she placed in the rear of her apartments. Last night they were spied by small boys, who presumed they were watermelons, and "swiped" them. When they were cut and found to be pie melons, the boys' disgust placed a card in plain sight bearing this inscription: "Please buy watermelons the next time."
