

WATCHES.

Our stock of watches speaks eloquently of good things, and there are many people whose happy experiences confirm the reliability and worth of them

Our success as watch sellers has not been merely fortuitous, but is the result of the unwavering integrity and knowledge gained by long years of study. Every watch we sell is a guaranteed time keeper.

Thus you have more reason to consider this store as an object worthy your seeking.

DIXON, The Jeweler

Union Pacific Watch Inspector.

SCHILLER & CO.,

Prescription Druggists

First Door North of First National Bank

Mrs. M. F. Hosler last Tuesday night for a visit in Denver.

Ginn & White received a carload of furniture Wednesday.

Maggie Post has bought of Bridget Jones lot 5, block 166, for $600.

Mrs. Wood White left Wednesday for a visit with relatives in Grand Island.

Oscar Gustafson has sold to Wm. Robb the east half of west half section 8-13-33 for $4,200.

Wanted—A good girl for general housework.

MRS. A. B. HOAGLAND.

Mrs. H. S. White left Wednesday morning for a visit with friends in the east part of the state.

Mrs. George Lannin is expected home tomorrow from a month's visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. G. W. McDowell and Miss Oleson expect to hold a sale of hand-painted china on Sept. 24th and 25th.

Mrs. F. C. Letts who had been visiting friends in town for a week returned to her home in Laramie Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Hirsch, who had been visiting relatives at Arapahoe for several weeks, returned home the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williamson, of New Brighton, Pa., are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Cressler and will remain for a week or ten days.

I have eight per cent money for farm loans. Come and see me when wanting a loan.

O. E. ELDER.

Messrs. Snyder and Burr, of the experimental farm, have been selected as two of the judges at the corn show that will be held at Lewellen the early part of next month.

A civil service examination for applicants for positions in the census department at Washington, D. C., will be conducted by Mrs. Lillian Gleason, of the local postoffice on October 23d.

John LeMasters will make a trip to Sidney Sunday in the car which he will use in the Philadelphia Press relay race. He will do this to ascertain the best route and the speed of this car on a run of 125 miles.

For Rent—Barn large enough for four horses. Inquire at 216 W. Third.

Owners of real estate should remember that taxes must be paid before October 1st. If not, the property will be advertised for sale and if not paid before November 1st the same will be sold for the taxes due.

Mayor Patterson has quite a task before him and one that he does not altogether relish, that of signing the water bonds. There are one hundred bonds and forty coupons to each bond, each of which must bear his signature as mayor. This will require him to sign his name forty-one hundred times.

For Sale—5 room house, bath room, 44 foot lot, Fourth street, one block east of central school. Inquire of Will Hoover or at house.

Bert Beers and Postmaster Blackburn, of Mitchell, were in town Wednesday, the former to look after his friend (?) C. A. Nelson who purchased an automobile of him and had the car sent to Kansas City last week. Postmaster Blackburn was here to look after the progress of the alfalfa meal mill at Hershey.

Miss Bessie Robinson, of Iowa, is the guest of Miss Bessie Salisbury.

Frank Schatz is visiting his parents and friends in town, having arrived from San Francisco Tuesday night.

Isaac L. Stebbins, late of Hudson, Wyo., arrived in town Wednesday and has accepted a position in the Sixth street meat market.

The Jewish New Year, or Feast of Rosh Haspono, began Wednesday evening and will terminate today. The festival is one of rejoicing and congratulations among the Jewish people.

Mrs. Ida Burston, a cousin of Mrs. Mose McFarland, spent Tuesday in town as the guest of the latter while enroute to Santa Ana, Cal., where she will teach school. She was accompanied as far as Denver by Mrs. McFarland.

Mrs. Eves and Miss Ivadell Miller, of Hershey, were visitors in town yesterday.

Harry Dixon accompanied his son Charley to Kearney Wednesday, where the young man will attend the military academy.

Messrs. Wilcox and Halligan attended the session of district court at Gandy the early part of this week, returning home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. D. E. Morrill is entertaining her three sisters, Mesdames Webb, Dye and Merrill, of Cleveland, Ohio. They are enroute home from a trip in the west.

Mayor Patterson has been invited to attend the centennial celebration of the incorporation of the city of St. Louis, which will be held October 3d to the 9th.

A mule footed hog attracted considerable attention at the express office yesterday. These animals are said to be immune from cholera.

Money to loan on good real estate security. See O. E. Elder, Keith theatre building.

Mrs. Ginsberg, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Julius Pizer for several months, left the early part of the week for her home in Denver.

Mrs. Fred Weingand, of Omaha, arrived in town Wednesday, having been called here by the serious illness of Mrs. Weingand's sister, Mrs. King.

John N. Baker didn't "monkey with the buzz-saw", but while working with one in Huntington's carpenter shop he managed to slice off the ends of two fingers, much to his regret and inconvenience.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Patterson were the recipients of a surprise party Wednesday evening on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, the invaders being the members of the five hundred club. Totally unaware of the intention of their friends, the appearance of the latter proved a very great surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, but they quickly recovered their composure and gave the invaders of their home a most hearty welcome. The entertaining feature was five hundred, and never to those members did the game prove more interesting. As a memento of the evening and the event which it marked, the host and hostess were presented with sterling silver cream pitcher and sugar bowl. Refreshments provided by the ladies of the club were served.

New Secretary Arrives.

J. F. McAbee, the new secretary of the Y. M. C. A., arrived from Omaha yesterday and at once took charge of the association work. Mr. Abee gives evidence of being an energetic man, and will no doubt prove a worthy successor to Mr. Brotemarkle, who will leave in a few days to take up association work in Omaha.

Sheep Quarantined.

A big shipment of sheep from the western ranges are held in quarantine at the old stock yards in this city. They are affected with mouth and hoof disease, and though they passed Cheyenne and other points, they were unloaded here through the decision of an inspector who followed the train down from Cheyenne. The sheep arrived Wednesday morning.

Decidedly New and Fetching is the Fall Millinery

—DISPLAYED BY—

MISS WHITTAKER AT THE WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE.

Not only are the extreme styles shown but attractive assortments as well of charming creations adapted for conservative tastes. Quality and original designing characterize the Whittaker Hats. Our models conform in most trifling details to the latest dictates of fashion and are offered at reasonably low prices.

Our aim is always to attract, secure and retain your substantial patronage.

FALL, 1909, OPENING

AT

THE LEADER

Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday,
SEPTEMBER 18th, 20th, 21st and 22d.

A Wonderful Showing of all the Latest Novelties.

DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT.

With every Woolen Dress Pattern bought during the Opening Days there will be given free one dozen of the real black Jet Buttons worth up to $1.50 a dozen, which is the latest for trimming.

CLOAK AND LADIES' SUIT DEPARTMENT.

During the Opening Days a fine Silk Opera Scarf, in any shade you desire, with every Suit or Coat.

SHOE DEPARTMENT.

During the Opening Days a pair of Hose free with every pair of Shoes.

MENS' DEPARTMENT.

During the Opening Days a fine Dress Shirt and Collar with every Suit of Clothing free.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

With every Hat one of the new Paris Style Veils free.

We cordially invite the public to attend the Opening Days. You will find our two big floors crowded with the latest merchandise money can buy. During the four weeks in New York buying goods we certainly bought great values. As we buy in large quantities for spot cash direct from the manufacturers, we save the middle men's profit and the benefit will be given to the public.

LOOK AT OUR WINDOW DISPLAY.

Yours for values,

THE LEADER,

J. PIZER.

R. L. Douglas left Wednesday on a business trip to Manning, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ruddy have been visiting friends in Omaha for several days.

Mrs. Will Yost returned the early part of the week from a visit with relatives in Grand Island.

Your furniture needs varnishing and repairing before house cleaning. See P. M. Sorenson, shop 07 E. 5th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Muldoon returned Tuesday night from the Seattle exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Streitz and daughter Ruth leave Sunday for Omaha, where Miss Ruth will attend Brownell Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Patterson left today on a trip to Omaha and Lincoln. Mrs. Patterson will also visit her daughter Edith at Adams for a few days.

Robert Armstrong left Wednesday morning for a two weeks' visit at points in the northwest. He will meet his mother and sister Grace at Portland.

Contractor Basta is pushing along the work on the two school buildings. This week eight brick layers and five tenders have been working on the Second ward building.

Mrs. M. H. Douglas left the early part of the week for Ogden, Salt Lake, Poatello and other towns, where she will inspect divisions of the ladies auxiliary to the B. of L. E.

FOR SALE—A wide tired wagon. Inquire of J. H. Hahler, 629 East Fifth street.

Bent McMichael, who for the past thirty days had been working on the alfalfa mill at Mitchell, returned to town this week, work on the mill having been temporarily suspended.

J. R. Ritner deserves credit for the workman-like manner in which he is laying the flagstones walk on the court house approaches. The stones are solidly laid, nicely edged and present a very trim appearance.

Accompanying a deaf and dumb daughter to this city in order that she might have dental work done, a man living near Paxton became gloriously drunk Wednesday and was placed in jail over night to sober up. He returned home yesterday.

New Fall Dress Goods. Full line now in at Wilcox Department Store.

Samples of sugar beets from the Hershey section were sent to the Grand Island factory Tuesday for testing purposes, but the result of the test is not at this time known. It is expected that the beet harvest will begin about September 27th.