Revival Meetings.

There has been an increasing attendance and interest in revival services conducted by Evangelist M. C. Johnson at the Christian church. Five came forward last evening, making eleven to date. The music is inspiring. Something special is provided for each service.

Mr. Johnson is impressing the people with his earnestness and his plain practical preaching. His subject for tonight will be "God's Nobleness." Saturday evening, "A Message to the Churches of North Platte," Sunday 10 a. m. Bible school, 11 a. m. communion and preaching, subject, "The Mission of the Church," 3 p. m. meeting for women only, 6:45 p. m. meeting for young people, subject "The Meaning of C. E.," 7:30 song service, 8 p. m. "What Think Ye of Christ," Monday evening, "Jesus the Troubler." There were 100 present at the bible school last Sunday, 150 present is the aim for next Sunday. Help us to realize this aim. You are cordially invited to be present at all of these services.

Jung-Huxoll.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. Caroline Felitz, south of Hershey Wednesday evening, when her daughter Anna became the bride of Rev. Martin Jung.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Kuchenbecker, of the German Lutheran church of Wellfleet, and was witnessed by only members of the family. The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns.

The bride was prettily attired in a white organdie gown and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, the bridesmaid, Miss Tiffie Huxoll, was also gowned in white and carried pink carnations. Omar Jung, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony and congratulations, a sumptuous wedding supper was served.

The bride is well known among acquaintances and has a host of friends in the vicinity in which she lives.

The groom has for the past year been minister of the German Lutheran church in Nowell precinct, but is now stationed at Palmer, Neb.

Rev. and Mrs. Jung left last night for Palmer, Neb., where they will make their future home.
