Glad Rags for the Glad Day

You've Lots to be Thankful for. Dress the Part

Thanksgiving again! President Taft has expressed his feeling on the subject in a Thanksgiving proclamation. The governors of every state and territory have followed suit. "The Spirit of Gladness and Gratitude Covers all the Land. Everyone is Bubbling Over with the Holiday Spirit, which should be Expressed in a manner befitting the Glad Day."

Liberal portions of pumpkin pies, cranberry sauce and turkey will appease man's physical desire, but his inward thoughts and feelings toward life in general, find their best expression in his attire, and no clothing so appropriately expresses this true Thanksgiving feeling as the Clothing we sell--"MILLER-MADE"--Princeton Clothes. These clothes are moderately priced, enabling you to be properly clad, with an individuality that at once stamps the wearer as a man of good taste in dress

We have the style YOU WANT, and the fabrics that are best suited to a man of your build, also your size.

At this season we both have truly much to be thankful for, especially in Clothing because we can furnish you clothing made under the best possible conditions by the most skillful tailors. Naturally it is the BEST CLOTHING.

This clothing is "Miller-Made"---don't forget the name

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

The Baptist ladies will hold their annual bazaar and supper at the Masonic hall this evening.

The elk head recently received by the B. P. O. E. has been placed on the east wall of the Odd Fellows' hall and makes an attractive adornment.

Supt. W. P. Snyder, of the experimental sub-station, is in Chappell today attending a farmers' institute. He is down on the program for two addresses.

The Christian Scientists met at the K. P. hall Sunday afternoon for their regular weekly service, and have engaged that hall as a regular meeting place.

Sale--Twenty per cent discount on The Leader's fine line of Millinery. Ladies cannot afford to pass up this sale.

R. P. Brandt, late accountant of the Pacific F. E. Co., left yesterday for Omaha. He did not know at the time of leaving to what point he would be transferred.

Taking advantage of the pleasant weather, workmen were busy on the Timmerman building Sunday. The brick work will be completed in another week if the weather continues warm.

C. H. Bostwick returned Sunday from Ft. Dodge, Iowa, where he was called by the death of his father. Death followed an operation for appendicitis. The deceased was fifty-seven years of age.

Sale--Twenty per cent discount on Men's, Women's and Children's Underwear at The Leader.

Beginning January 1st a daily mail service will be inaugurated on the North River branch, serving all post-office on that line between Hershey and Northport. At present all towns on the line are served by star routes running from towns on the Union Pacific.

Judge Grimes returned the latter part of last week from the western part of his district, where he had been holding court. So far as he now knows he will have a "breathing spell" until court convenes in this county on December 8th.

The eighth annual ball of the local lodge of boilermakers will be held at the Lloyd opera house tomorrow evening. As this is the first ball since the early part of the year the attendance will be large.

"Commencement Days" was presented to an average sized audience at the Keith Friday evening. The star of the company, Frederick Bowers, is a clever actor, but he has failed to surround himself with a strong company.

The first number of the high school lecture course was given at The Keith Saturday evening, an audience that filled the floor attending. The performers were the Houstons, readers and magicians, and they seem to have pleased the hearers.

Thanksgiving Linen Sale--Twenty per cent discount on all Table Linens, Lunch Cloths and Towels at The Leader.

With the unusually large and well selected cast and chorus Messrs. Cohan and Harris will present at the Keith Friday evening. Geo. M. Cohan's recent success, the rural musical play, "Fifty Miles from Boston." It is reported that the organization is characterized by no ordinary display of talent and general equipment.
