Crime Passing in West.

The melodrama picturing the "wild and wooly" is no longer true to life. This element in western life has been obliterated within a decade by the coming of civilization. The criminal census of ten years ago, according to investigations made by August Drahms showed the western states leading all others in the crimes of grand larceny, rape, homicide, and the minor offenses of drunkenness.

This census shows not only a great reduction of crime in the United States as a whole, but brings the western division down from that bad eminence which it has traditionally occupied.

Ten years ago the west was convicted of 69 per cent of grand larcenies; it is now responsible for only 15.9 per cent, while the south central division leads with 27.1 per cent. Assaults are most prevalent in the South Atlantic, and burglaries in the south central Robberies, which in the previous g climax of 13.6 pe cent in the west, are now least rife there-only 1.2 per cent as compared with 18 per cent for the south central division. And so on .- Colorado Springs Express.

Uncle Sam's Pay Roll Swells.

The personel of Uncle Sam's establishment is increasing by leaps and bounds, the grand total of all federal employes at present being approximately 370,065 as againsnt 306,141 in 1907, an increase in the two years of about 64,000 persons, or about 20 per cent. These and other interesting facts are brought out in the official register, or "blue book", for 1909, which shortly will be issued by Director of the Census Durand.

The new publication will show that there were 28,917 persons in the federal employ in Washington on July 1 last, the annual pay roll for them being $31,541,325, an average for nearly $1000 each. This total will be temporarily swollen next year by the addition of 3,000 persons to the clerical force of census bureau, adding nearly $5,000,000
