Nick Mayhew, a former North Platte barber, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. H. J. Hansen and son Henry, of the north side, left last night for a visit in Omaha.

Miss Carrie Baker left yesterday for a visit with her sister Mrs. P. E. Fent, at Grand Island.

Mrs. J. J. Halligan is entertaining the Tuesday afternoon bridge club today.

Rincker carries the only complete line of books in town; gift books standard novels and books for the children.

County Clerk Elliott went to Omaha this morning to transact business and attend the corn show.

Girl Wanted—Apply at the Steam Laundry.

Mrs. Syl Friend has gone to Sheridan, Wyo., where she was called by the illness in her daughter's family.

We buy ear or shelled corn, stock hogs or cattle. BRATT & GOODMAN.

Supt. Tout, of the city schools, returned last night from Omaha, where he attended the corn show for several days.

Bratt & Goodman have extra good bargains in nice homes and building lots. This is the time to buy.

A fifteen round boxing contest between Fred Oulmette and Frank DuCray, of Lincoln will occur at the opera house Tuesday evening of next week. The preliminary will be a go between Bert Morgan of Wellfleet and a Sidney boxer.

Xmas packages of perfume, The Best of Odds. At Schiller & Co's.

Few real estate transfers are being made at present, fewer than was expected. The early snow which covered the ground and the recent cold weather has kept prospective buyers from coming into this section, and the season has now so far advanced that it is likely they will postpone their coming until early next spring.

For good, sound, cheap insurance against fire, lightning, tornado and wind storm, always go to Bratt & Goodman.

Fireman Tom Axell was struck on the head Sunday by a mail crane at Paxton. He stuck his head out the window to see if the injector was working and was struck a glancing blow by the arm of the crane, inflicting severe wounds. Had he not dodged his head, the blow would have fractured his skull. Fireman Booth, of the Second district, met with a similar accident the latter part of last week.

HAND PAINTED CHINA.

From now until Christmas will have a complete line on sale. Miss Mary Guillette, first door west Commercial hotel.

The Methodist aid society will meet Thursday with Mrs. W. T. Brown, 624 Washington Ave.

See the fine line of toilet sets, glove and handkerchief boxes at Rincker's.

Weather forecast: Fair tonight and tomorrow. Maximum temperature yesterday 40, a year ago 50. Minimum this morning 14, a year ago 22.

Robert Mack has returned from Iowa, where he went to recuperate from a siege of sickness. He expects to reopen the Mack cigar factory.

Every day brings fresh arrivals to our holiday stock. DIXON, The Jeweler.

O. H. Thoelecke returned Sunday from Omaha where he spent a week at the corn show. This exhibit he says is wonderful, but the attendance has been light, much smaller than was expected.

Everything in the toy and doll line at Rincker's. Also all kinds of games.

M. I. McCarty, of Wood River, spent Sunday and yesterday in town as a guest at the Jerry Bowen residence. Mr. McCarty will move to North Platte next summer and take charge of the Third ward drug store.

The news from Washington last week to the effect that it will be next June before the plans for the North Platte federal building will be completed, is somewhat disappointing to our citizens who had hoped that construction work would begin next spring. It now looks as though not much work can be done on the building until the spring of 1911.

To appreciate Brandegee, Kincaid & Co. clothes you must see them. The Hub Clothing Dept. has them.

Ed. Ewell, general field agent for the Grand Island sugar factory, is in town today starting the 1910 campaign for best acreage. The company will pay a flat rate of $5.00 per ton on cars at shipping station, regardless of sugar percentage, and an effort will be made to contract at least two thousand acres in Lincoln county the coming year.

A gift for a man, a Gillette safety razor. DIXON, The Jeweler.

The time of the district court yesterday was occupied by the case of the Wellfleet Horse Breeders Assn. against John Remus, which involved a service fee of $15. The jury was out all night and had not agreed on a verdict at ten this forenoon. Today the case of James against Steel, which involves the destruction of fences, is being heard, and at its conclusion the case of Desta McConnell against the Burlington railroad, which is a damage case, will be called.

For Rent

Houses, stores, farms, hay and grazing lands. BRATT & GOODMAN.

8 per cent money to help you buy, build or improve property. See Bratt & Goodman.

Announcement is made by the Union Pacific railroad that all future orders for passenger equipment of all descriptions will be for steel cars. Recently these cars have been given a trial by the road, and it has been decided to do away entirely with old wooden cars. Extensive orders for new steel cars already have been placed. In adopting this policy the officials of the road declare that it is merely in line with the general policy to do away with equipment which is susceptible to easy destruction in the event of wrecks or fires.

Good Things For the Big Feast

APPLES—For baking, for pies or for eating. We have the best of the most popular varieties.

CELERY—Of course you want perfect celery. We have it. Nice large stalks, white and crisp.

CRACKERS—All crackers fresh and crisp, whether thin wafers for serving with salad or coffee or oyster, soda or bulk.

SWEET POTATOES—Nice fat Jerseys, nice for baking.

DATES—Big, new dates right out of the box they were packed in at the date orchard.

FIGS—Finest Figs you ever saw. Try some.

GRAPES—Of course you'll want some nice Almeria grapes, sweet and white.

NUTS—The new crop is uniform and very good, few poor ones among them. Try some. Salted Almonds.

PICKLES—Dill, sweet, sour and mixed, any quantity.

OLIVES—There is a certain tone and quality that a nice dish of olives will give your dinner which cannot be gotten by anything else.

MINCE MEAT—A fancy quality of pure, wholesome bulk mince meat, also None Such and Mogul brands in packages.

OLIVE OIL—If you serve a salad of any kind you want some of the best olive oil. Try our French and Italian brands.

SEASONING—For the turkey or chicken dressing all ready for use.

CANNED GOODS of all varieties, best brands we might mention. We have the goods to please the most fastidious Christmas appetite. Call and see us.

Bookings at The Keith.

The bookings at The Keith for the remainder of this month are as follows:
Dec. 16th—Bernard Daly in "Sweet Innisfallen."
Dec. 18th—"The Girl from the U. S. A."
Dec. 20th and 21st—The Boston Ideal Opera Co. in comic opera, change of program each evening.
Dec. 30th—"The Fighting Parson".
On January 1st "Wildfire", Lillian Russell's success of last year, will be presented.

The Knights of Columbus will have a benefit performance at the Keith on next Thursday when they will present Mr. Bernard Daly, supported by a strong company of players, in his new romantic play, "Sweet Innisfallen." Its title is derived from the locality in which the action takes place, the island of Innisfallen in the Lakes of Killarney. Mr. Daly today stands at the fore front of Irish comedians as an actor and singer. He has youth, good looks and a magnetic personality. Mr. Daly sings many songs of old Ireland romances and will stir the heart of every listener by his rendering of "The Wearing of the Green."
