DR. O. H. CRESSLER,
Graduate Dentist.
Office over the McDonald State Bank.

Miss Nellie Bratt will entertain the young ladies bridge club this evening.

Serve the Christmas salad from one of those new salad sets at Buchanan & Co.

Miss Berta Hoy went to Lexington yesterday to visit her brother for a few days.

A cup and saucer is a practical gift for mother or father, at Buchanan's. They have the 1909-10 Ideas.

Mrs. W. A. Tanner came up from Lexington Sunday and will visit her parents until after the holidays.

Rev. M. C. Johnson who went to Kansas last week for the purpose of removing his family to North Platte, is expected to arrive this week.

Hand painted china.—The Pickard kind. A gift of this china to a lady is a compliment to her refined taste. A new shipment received today.
DIXON, The Jeweler.

Carl D. Thompson, socialist legislator and lecturer, will give an address at the K. P. hall this Tuesday evening at half past eight. Mr. Thompson is a member of the Wisconsin legislature and a well known Chautauqua speaker.

Boys and Childrens Suits and Overcoats in new materials and models at the Hub Clothing Dept.

Those having charge of Christmas exercises at the churches are respectfully asked to furnish this office with programs for the Tuesday issue of next week. These programs should reach the office not later than Monday noon.

Bratt & Goodman handle over one hundred rental properties in North Platte and of these four are at present vacant. Two of the four cannot be classed as desirable. That so few houses are vacant certainly speaks well for North Platte.

A case of diphtheria developed in the family of W. B. Salisbury Sunday, and as the child had been attending the Second ward school, the children were dismissed yesterday morning and the building thoroughly fumigated by City Physician Quigley.

Give the boy a watch. We have them at $1.00, $2.00, $3.00 and $5.00. Guaranteed time pieces. It will teach him to be punctual.
DIXON, The Jeweler.

At the county offices, business is rather light. Few instruments are being filed with the county clerk, Judge Elder is devoting his time to probate matters, County Supt. Eblight is doing routine business, and in the treasurer's office there is a fairly good demand for personal tax receipts. The sheriff and the clerk of the court are, or course, busy with court matters.

Mrs. W. T. Beery returned yesterday morning from a visit in Denver.

Overcoats in all the new materials and models at The Hub Clothing Dept.

Judge Hoagland returned this morning from Sidney where he transacted legal business yesterday.

Sam Derryberry and M. F. Forbes went to Omaha last night to transact business and attend the corn show.

The Baptist aid society will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. W. S. Le-on, 320 South Dewey. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Frank Bacon is the guest of Mrs. H. S. White, having arrived from Gothenburg last evening. Mrs. Bacon will spend the winter in Chicago.

The Presbyterian aid society will meet in the Masonic hall Thursday afternoon, November 16th. Fancy articles will be on sale and lunch served until 6:30. The public invited.

Carl Abrahamson, who resigned his position with W. W. Birge, will remain in town until the first of the year. He has been offered two traveling positions and will probably accept one or the other early in January.

We are showing special bargains in every department this year. Many have already taken advantage of this. You will profit by doing the same.
DIXON, The Jeweler.

Members of the A. E. bridge club and their husbands were entertained last evening by Mrs. J. A. Jones at high five. It was a very jolly gathering and a very pleasant evening resulted. The refreshments served were much enjoyed.

James Stroop, of Chicago, is visiting his father and brother, having arrived Sunday. Mr. Stroop is a Christian Science practitioner and will be present at the meeting of that sect at the K. P. hall next Sunday afternoon.

Tramp, the grocer, invites you to inspect his line of decorated china, which is worthy the attention of those looking for gifts.

Rev. M. C. Johnson being away over Sunday preaching was not expected at the Christian church, but E. Von Forrell, who had been holding meetings at Tryon under the direction of Nebraska Christian Missionary Society, came in at noon Saturday and remained over Sunday preaching both morning and evening. Mr. Forrell has organized a Christian church at Tryon, it being the first one in McPherson county, and raised half enough money for a church building. He will go back as soon as the weather is favorable to finish up. He reports a very enthusiastic meeting in spite of the incessant stormy weather.

For Sale.

First class residence property in Second ward, all modern. Extra good lot with 5 room house, shade and walks, north side good distance from round house and shops. Good cottage in South east part of town.
