CHRISTMAS AT THE CHURCHES.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.
At seven o'clock on Christmas morning the choir will render the cantata, "The Prince of Peace," by Mrs. E. L. Ashford. This cantata opens with a prelude by the organ and orchestra. The voices then sing of the goodness of God and His mercy toward His chosen people. Then the bass sings the prophecy of the coming of the king, who shall save his people from their sins. The tenor sings praises to the Virgin Mother and the alto to the town of Bethlehem.

In the second part, the male voices take up the subject of the birth of Christ, of the star, and the journey of the magi. The announcement to the shepherds and message of the angels is sung by the soprano, followed by the song of glory by the voices of the ladies and men alternately, ending with the final halleluia by all of the voices and instruments.

This cantata contains more than the usual number of solos, duets and quartettes, with enough numbers by the chorus to give depth and richness to the whole. It is very beautiful, and with the steady and consistent practicing done by the choir, will be made a fit beginning for this glorious day.

The regular order of morning worship will be used at this service and familiar Christmas hymns will be sung.

In the evening at 6:30, the Sunday school will give their Christmas program consisting of songs, recitations and scripture readings.

On Sunday, the regular services of the day will obtain as usual, with a special service of song in the evening.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Christmas services at the Episcopal church will be held at nine o'clock on Christmas morning; there will be but the one service and all the members are earnestly urged to make a special effort to be present. All the friends of the church are cordially invited to come and join with us in a service of song and praise for the gift of God to man in His Son Jesus Christ. Let us be glad for the boon of Christmas day with its impulses of generosity, let us record our thankfulness for Peace, show our good-will toward men, and above all let us not forget to encourage the song "Glory to God in the Highest." The service will be as follows:

Processional, "In His Rude Manger," Roney.

O come let us sing unto the Lord, Millard.

Te Deum, Shuey.

Offertory Anthem; Sing O Ye Heavens, Simper.

Sing, O sing this Blessed Morn. Lord have mercy, Wilkinson.

"Angels from the Realms of Glory," Gloria in Excelsis, Wilkinson.

Recessional Hymn, "O Come, all ye Faithful."

The Children's service on Christmas evening will begin at seven o'clock in the church. After the service in the church the Sunday school will finish their exercises in the Masonic hall recreation room. All the parents of the children are cordially invited and urged to come and make merry with us. The children will present "Santa Claus on Trial." The offerings on Christmas day will be for the benefit of the aged and infirm Clergy Fund.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold its Christmas services at the church Friday evening, and will render a special service entitled "Tidings of Joy," a service of song and responsive reading appropriate to Christmas day. There will be a tree, and gifts will be distributed to each member of the school.

Sunday morning Rev. Chamberlain will preach, and following the sermon there will be communion service. In the evening Rev. Porter will preach a sermon appropriate to Christmas. The choir will render special music at both the Sunday services.
