TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, DECEMBER 28, 1910.

NO 97

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

R. L. Douglas, the horse and mule buyer, is building an addition to his already large barn in the Third ward.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hart came down from Paxton to spend Christmas and a day or two following with North Platte friends.

Judge and Mrs. Coates, of Sutherland, were the guests of their son A. S. Coates and family the latter part of last week.

With twenty-six numbers on the firemen's dance program, the most ardent devotee of terpsichore will have his or her desires gratified.

The Bowen building on north Locust street is being renovated preparatory to being occupied by a drug store with Messrs Bowen and McCarthy as proprietors.

Roy Loudon, formerly clerk at McDonell & Graves drug store, but at present teaching school in Logan county, is spending the holiday vacation at home.

E. E. VanNatta and H. H. Rodgers, residents of the south part of the county, were in town the latter part of last week on business pertaining to roads in their respective localities.

Judge Elder was called to his office at two o'clock Christmas afternoon to unite in marriage Robt. L. Richardson and Miss Lila V. Shaner, well known young people residing at Maxwell.

Mrs. P. A. Dunbar, wife of the well known passenger conductor, had the misfortune to fall down a cellar way at her home in Council Bluffs Friday and sustained very severe bruises.

The Postal Telegraph company's gang of wire stringers, comprising twenty men, are now at work in the east part of this county. Two additional wires are being strung between Chicago and the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy came up from Wood River Friday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bowen. Mr. McCarthy returned yesterday, but his wife will remain until the latter part of the week.

C. B. Wood, whose hardware store at Sutherland was burned a few months ago, has completed a new brick building and moved thereto. We are glad to notice this evidence of push on the part of a former North Platte resident.

Indications point to considerable activity in the building line during 1910. One or two business buildings are promised and a greater number of residences than were erected during 1909.

A congregation that filled the seating capacity of the Lutheran church attended the cantata rendered by the choir at seven o'clock Christmas morning. The work of the choir in producing this musical composition was highly commended.

For Rent—On west 6th street, an eight room house, newly papered, with range in kitchen. Inquire at this office.

Lest some of our citizens might forget—the annual ball of the local lodge of locomotive firemen will be held at the Lloyd opera house next Friday evening. A good time for all. Speed the old year out and welcome the advent of 1910.

It will be several weeks before Contractor Basta will be able to turn over the Third ward school building, and work on the Second ward building is not as far advanced as the Third ward. This condition exists notwithstanding a large force of men are employed on the buildings.

A case of diphtheria developed Friday in the family of Mr. Millett, living on east Twelfth street. The family was at once placed under quarantine, and as they are in needy circumstances Poormaster Walker is looking after their needs in the provender line.

With the favorite stage beauty, Pauline Hall, and Will Archie, the original "Bud," and one of the best acting companies ever seen on the road, "Wildfire," the successful play of the race course, will be seen at the Keith Theatre Saturday, New Year's, night. A scenic production complete in every detail, portraying scenes at and about a famous New York race track, will be one of the many attractive features.

Lost Dog.

Lost in North Platte December 13th a yellow collie dog, with dark stripe on back, black nose, brown eyes, drooping ears; named Coyote, which he would recognize. Had on leather strap with iron ring. Liberal reward will be paid for return of animal to the brick ivory stable, North Platte.

Mrs. W. H. McDonald is entertaining the Tuesday afternoon bridge club today.

Mrs. C. S. Clinton entertained the Monday afternoon bridge club yesterday.

An election for county officers will be held in Garden county January 10th. The democrats as well as the republicans have a ticket in the field.

The day preceding Christmas was an exceptionally busy one for North Platte merchants, several reporting the heaviest sales in the history of their business career in this city.

Sena Fransen, of Sutherland, who is soon to wed a North Platte young man, was tendered a linen shower at the home of Mrs. H. E. Worrell in Sutherland a few days ago.

The final survey for the double track has been completed as far west as Ogalalla, and the work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Grading will begin as soon as the weather permits.

The Episcopal Sunday school gave a pretty entertainment at the Masonic hall Saturday evening, in which a large number of children in costume took part. Following the cantata gifts were distributed from a tree.

Henry Waltemath has completed his ice harvest, and Otto Weil has filled his house. Harry Lamplugh is filling his houses this week. There is not likely to be a scarcity of ice next summer.

J. D. W. Lincoln has begun the construction of a 40x80 foot ice house at his lake near the old fair grounds, which he hopes to fill this winter. The house will have a capacity of about 3,000 tons.

Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Morrill expected to visit Mrs. Morrill's sister at Wheatland, Wyo., Christmas, but word was received Thursday that the sister's house and contents had burned.

Christmas was a quiet day in North Platte, there being very little stir on the street. At several of the churches services were held in the forenoon and these were well attended. The weather was pleasant.

The long continued demoralization of passenger traffic is becoming a little jarring on the nerves of the engine and train crews, and they are naturally anxious to know when matters will right themselves. Possibly not until there is a betterment of the motive power.

Lewellen has raised $6000 at this time for the new county seat provided it is located at Lewellen permanently and to show that it is the straight article the people of that city have placed that amount on deposit in the Lewellen bank which they ask the voters of the new county to investigate should they doubt this statement.

The Christian Scientists will hereafter hold their service at the K. P. hall Sunday morning instead of afternoon. At the meeting last Sunday arrangements were made to have one of the noted speakers of the church come here and deliver a lecture on Christian Science. This lecture will be free, the local members donating $100 to meet the expenses.

Fred D. Wright, an attorney of Scotts Bluff, spent yesterday in town while enroute to Omaha. Mr. Wright says the Union Pacific is showing much activity in the way of obtaining right-of-way and there seems to be no doubt but the company will at once build through to Medicine Bow in the near future. He thinks they have a wonderful country, and when the road reaches his town, they will visit North Platte more frequently.

Lost—A white greyhound with yellow ears; about one year old. Will pay a liberal reward for any information leading to his recovery.

A. E. MARLETT, Maxwell, Neb.

"The Fighting Parson" under the management of W. F. Mann, with William Whitbrioff in the title role, will be at the Keith theatre Thursday night. The play is a beautiful story of a young minister's fight for love, honor and truth in which villainy is thwarted and virtue triumphs. The play is positively guaranteed to please or money refunded. High class specialties are introduced through the acts making an evening's entertainment far above the average.

Looking One's Best.

It's a woman's delight to look her best but pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils rob life of joy. Listen! Bucklen's Arnica Salve cures them; makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. Cures Pimples, Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Cracked Lips, Chapped Hands. Try it. Infallible for Piles. 25c at Stone Drug Co.

"Wildfire", Saturday Night.

Forceful, novel and possessing the quality of genuine appeal which is necessary to the success of all plays, "Wildfire", the celebrated racing comedy which will be seen at the Keith theatre on Saturday, New Year's Day, with Pauline Hall and Will Archie, the original Bud, has won the approval of the public strictly on its merits as the best racing play ever staged. The hilarious playgoer will find plenty of laughs, and the sentimental auditor will enjoy many minutes of tense heart interest. In fact "Wildfire" possesses all the elements calculated to please all temperaments. "Her crowning success" is the general tribute to Pauline Hall, the famous beauty, who is appearing in the central role, that of the handsome widow, Mrs. Barrington. One of the features of the production is the remarkable display of magnificent gowns worn by Miss Hall. It is sure to say that Miss Hall is one of the most perfectly proportioned women on the stage, and her first appearance at a performance invariably brings forth a flutter of excited "Isn't she beautiful" remarks from the audience.

Buchanan and Patterson.

Winterhoff as "The Fighting Parson."

In speaking of "The Fighting Parson," which is booked for the Keith Thursday evening, the Des Moines Register of October 8th said:

Mr. Wm. Winterhoff, as the Fighting Parson, is all that could be asked for in the part of a young, earnest, country parson, broad minded beyond his years, gifted by nature with a fine physique, a handsome face, an eye that window of the soul, indicating pure thoughts and a heart full of sympathy for his unfortunate fellow man.

Educated for the ministry, the pulpit has lost one of its shining lights and Mr. W. F. Mann has secured for the public, through the medium of the stage, a better sermon on "Faith, Hope and Charity" than in many instances is delivered from the pulpit. "The Fighting Parson" should be seen by everyone, and the lesson it teaches is sure to make a bad man good, and a good man better."

Alone in Saw Mill at Midnight

unmindful of dampness, drafts, storms or cold, W. J. Atkins worked as Night Watchman, at Banner Springs, Tenn. Such exposure gave him a severe cold that settle on his lungs.
