Miss Verna Sorenson was hostess Tuesday evening at a reunion of the high school class of '09, of which she was a member. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, followed with the serving of refreshments. A similar function was tendered the class by Miss Maud Owens the following evening, and this, too, proved a very enjoyable affair.

The dozen members of the Mothers' Club spent a delightful afternoon Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. Albert Muldoon. At the dining table, where a delightful lunch was served, the piece de resistance was a Christmas tree upon which each member had hung a present for each of the other members, making a total of 144. These gifts were nearly all articles of needlework, and while not expensive, were nevertheless pretty.

A man answering the description of a murderer wanted for a crime committed in New Mexico, was taken from train No. 15 yesterday morning by Sheriff Miltonberger and Policemen Costas upon advice received from Omaha. The man was accompanied by a woman whom he claimed was his wife and she was allowed to go through to Denver, to which city both were enroute on tickets marked charity. These tickets, it is said, were furnished the couple by the Omaha Elks. The man, though he refuses to do much talking, says his name is Stoner and denies that he is wanted for crime committed. He is over six feet tall and weighs about 250 pounds. He will be held pending further information. A telegram received last night states an officer is enroute from New Mexico to identify the man.

Ben Long, a son of George Long, of the north side, had a hearing before the board of insanity yesterday and adjudged insane. The unfortunate man, who is about twenty-six years of age, has been affected mentally for five years. He lately has had a penchant for burning articles, having burned among other things certificates of deposits which he held on local banks. He lighted every match he could get his hands on, and the family stood in fear that he would some time set fire to the house or stable. On a number of occasions he became vicious, and the family had fears on this account. He will be taken to one of the state asylums.

Owing to boiler trouble, the electric light company could furnish service last evening to only business sections. Five mechanics are employed on the boilers today and it is hoped to have the repairs completed this evening. The company has been handicapped by the non-arrival of the pipe for the steam line for the new boiler, and it has not yet been placed in service. This pipe was ordered in November, but not shipped from Chicago until a few days ago. Upon its arrival the new boiler will be connected and improved service will result.
