

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, JANUARY 13, 1910.

NO 103.

ATTENTION, FARMERS!

We wish to call the attention of the Farmers and Grain Growers to the fact that we are at all times in the market for Wheat, Rye, Corn, Oats and Barley at the highest market price. Our facilities for handling grain are unsurpassed. We have two dumps and the most accurate, type registering beam Fairbanks scale made. This scale is under roof and thus not exposed to snow and ice to hinder its free working. Before selling your grain come and see us and get our prices. You need not stand in the cold to find a buyer and then sell for less than we pay and have to scoop it and carry it into a bin. Remember us when you have any grain to sell.

Respectfully,

NORTH PLATTE MILL & GRAIN COMPANY.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. John B. Murphy will be "at home" to the members of the Catholic altar society Wednesday afternoon.

Fireman Jas. Hutchins, while stepping off his engine Friday night, slipped and landed in the cinder pit, sustaining a badly bruised leg.

Sixteen hundred bushels of grain were delivered at the roller mills last Friday and Saturday by Lincoln and Logan county farmers.

Chas. Sandall, Maurice Guillaume and the other four elected delegates left last night for Fremont to attend the convention of volunteer firemen.

The Tribune inadvertently omitted to mention the arrival last week of a ten pound girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Placek. Grandpa Anderson is as happy as the parents.

Otto Weil will place an entire new front in his restaurant building this spring. As now planned the lower portion will be white enameled brick and the upper part a grey pressed brick.

McKibbin Hats, every hat new and up to date, at 20 per cent off at The Hub's Big Sale.

The "Little Johnny Jones" company appeared before a large audience at the Keith Friday evening. Though many who were present witnessed the play a year ago, it was nevertheless interesting and entertaining.

During the recent siege of cold weather about thirty men were regularly employed in the railroad yard keeping the switches clear of snow and ice, and for seven weeks did little else. This is just one of the many little items of expense which go to make up the enormous total cost of operating a railroad.

Mrs. Donelson, mother of Fred Donelson, the contractor and builder, died at her home in the south part of the county Friday and was buried Sunday. The deceased was well advanced in years. The husband, who has also been sick, has been brought to his son's home in this city.

Mrs. T. Casey and John Dick pleasantly entertained twenty-five ladies at the home of Mrs. Dick the latter part of the week. A delightful time resulted and a delicious two course luncheon was greatly enjoyed by the guests, who speak in glowing terms of the entertainment received from those ladies.

Andy Traynor, general baggage agent for the Union Pacific, was in town Friday and settled with members of the "Little Johnny Jones" company for damage to baggage resulting from the bursting of a steam pipe in the baggage car. The individual losses ranged from one dollar to several hundred and the total amount paid was about one thousand.

Judge Wm. Gaslin, at one time judge of this judicial district, died at Alma, Neb., last Friday. To our older residents, Judge Gaslin will be remembered as quite a character, a typical judge of the border days, and one who had no mercy for criminals and especially for horse and cattle thieves. Judge Gaslin was eighty-two years of age.

Do you want to make from 10 to 50 per cent on your money. That is what you can do at THE HUB'S BIG SALE.

Friday afternoon Mesdames Cox and Hooser were hostesses at a kensington given at the home of the former for the members of Pride of 28 L. S. B. of L. F. & E., the honor guest being Mrs. Anna Polack, a member from La Grande, Oregon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in conversation and closed with a delicious four course lunch served by the hostesses.

Manager Kubik announces a sparring match between two out-of-town men at the opera house Saturday evening. The preliminary will be a wrestling match between McCormick and Marcott, two local firemen, and to this event much interest attaches, as both men are handy on the mat and each has a large number of boosting friends. They will wrestle for a bet of $25 a side, with $15 thrown in as a purse by Manager Kubik.

The Wednesday Musicals will meet this week with Miss Mary Strahorn.

Lawrence Carpenter returned Saturday from a visit with his brother in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. White, of Hershey, were in town Sunday enroute home from a visit in Denver.

J. W. Payne will sell or remove the house in which he lives on west Fifth and erect a two-story modern residence.

Conductor L. C. Hansen, who has been running the motor car on the Callaway branch, has been assigned a run on the main line.

Wm. Howarter, of Maxwell, and Miss Bertha Winterbottom, of Brady, were united in marriage by Judge Elder Friday.

Judge Elder issued a legal permit Saturday to R. E. Newman and Miss Ina Davidson, and later they were married by a local minister.

The young men's class of the Methodist Sunday school will entertain the young ladies of the church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Plummer Thursday evening.

The third case of scarlet fever developed yesterday in the family of Arthur Connor, who lives south of town. The house has been quarantined for over a month.

The local christian scientists are making arrangements to have a practitioner locate in North Platte. The society here is gaining numerically and promises to be a strong organization.

We notice by the Kansas City Star that T. J. Foley is investing heavily in Kansas City real estate, having recently purchased one business property for $60,000 and a half interest in another for $27,500.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Mrs. C. O. Weingand, 821 W. 4th street.

Considerable progress has been made on the Timmerman building notwithstanding the cold weather. Twenty-two men were at work there Sunday. The roof is on and the cement block trimmings are being placed on the top of the front today.

C. O. Weingand, for seven years senior member of the firm of Weingand & McDonald, of the Model Clothing house, will retire from the firm on February 1st, having sold his interest to his partner J. B. McDonald, who will continue the business. Mr. Weingand retires from the firm after a very successful career as a clothier, for each year since purchasing the establishment the sales increased in volume, and the volume now transacted is second to no similar establishment in the west half of the state. Mr. Weingand's retirement from the firm does not mean that he will leave North Platte; on the other hand he will re-engage in business of an entirely different nature within a few months, and will continue to boost for North Platte as he has done since coming to the city twenty years ago. The business which Mr. Weingand proposes to establish is one new to North Platte, and particulars of it will be given in the near future.

R. B. Reid has just returned from Iowa, where he had been to interview Mr. Taylor in regard to the Taylor addition of this city. Mr. Taylor offered him a large bonus to discontinue the further sale of the addition. Being a well posted man, Mr. Taylor sees the great future of North Platte and naturally wanted to keep all the real estate he has left here. Mr. Reid refused to change his contract with Mr. Taylor and will continue to sell the balance of the Taylor addition to the people of North Platte who wish to make their own homes.

You who are tired of paying rent and freezing in a house the owner will not repair, had better see Manager Reid as soon as possible. Get his proposition. It is by far the best in the city. He can prove it. If you are an investor, buy property right at home, where you know the value. Start the year right, save money and put it in the Taylor addition. It will advance the quickest and most. See R. B. REID, Rooms 7 and 8, Keith Theatre Bldg. Phone 578.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Weingand & McDonald will please call and settle on or before February 1st, 1910 or further credit will be refused. J. B. McDONALD.
