Some Wants of a Big Hotel's Guests

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Advocating a federal law which would compel hotels to furnish nothing less than ninefoot blankets, a son of Anak at the Statler hotel told his troubles to the management in a letter from which this is an extract:

"I stand six feet, four inches in my stocking feet and I am 5 feet, 61/2 uches from my chin to the floor. Now I have failed to find in this hotel a blanket which is over six feet, six, inches long. Unless I have the blanket tucked in around my neck I catch cold; and if I do tuck these short blankets around my neck, why, then shower?" This suggestion probably I have to pull them up from the bottom and my feet get cold.

"Shoots Up" New York in Western Way

NEW YORK.-New York was "shot up" recently by a bad man from the wild and woolly west. Other folks from the west have tried to "shoot up" New York in the past, but without exception they have failed sadly and miserably. This one didn't. He got away with it and the police are still looking for him.
