TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1910.

A special election will be called in Cheyenne county at an early date to vote on a proposition to issue $75,000 bonds for a new court house. Similar action will be taken in Dawson county, the sum in the latter county to be $100,000. Lincoln county can better afford to erect a new court house than either Dawson or Cheyenne county, and the need for such a new building is perhaps as great, yet an apparently large majority of the Lincoln county tax payers are opposed to a new building.

Democratic papers say that owing to the wise management of state affairs under a democratic administration the state is out of debt and has $100,000 in the treasury. These democratic papers should be honest and give the credit where it belongs. The special levy suggested by Governor Sheldon, a republican, and passed by a republican legislature, wiped out the state debt, and the increased assessment of property in the state created the surplus. The democrats have not cut down expenses; the people have paid more taxes, that's all.

W. J. Bryan has come out flatfooted for county option in Nebraska. He takes a step in advance of this, and declares democracy must divorce itself from the liquor interests, because an alliance with the saloon can generally be regarded as an alliance with vice. The saloon, he says, is constantly used to debauch politics and to prevent the intelligent consideration of public questions. The liquor interests made themselves odious at the last session of the Nebraska legislature by preventing the submission of the initiative and referendum. Mr. Bryan declares the right of the government to regulate the sale of liquor cannot be denied, and the right to make the county the unit of regulation is just as plain. The people have a voice in determining the system to be employed for regulating the sale of liquor.

Yesterday was Valentine day and the youngsters were busy selecting mis-givers for their friends, an occupation that seemed to give considerable pleasure.

The Dominating White Race.

If there is anybody who believes that white people should be dominated by a colored race a visit to "The Clansman" will convince him of the utter absurdity of the idea. This famous play which will be seen in this city at the Keith theatre next Thursday evening, presents a picture of South Carolina after the civil war when the state was under negro rule. In a most intense and vivid manner it describes the shaking off of this terrible yoke by the dashing, chivalrous members of the noted Ku Klux Klan, who rode at night in defense of their homes and the homes and the state. The Japanese menace in Canada and the west is regarded by many as threatening in its characteristics as the negro peril in the south in 1866. "The Clansman" is reported to have conclusively proved the white race should be the only dominating element in the civilized western hemisphere and that its prerogatives must not be usurped by any other race, black or yellow.

G. W. Applegate Dies Suddenly.

George W. Applegate, a well known resident of Sutherland, was found in an unconscious condition in bed early Saturday morning and died shortly thereafter. Death was due to an apoplectic stroke. The deceased came to Lincoln county from Marion county, Iowa, in 1887, and had since resided here continuously. He was well known in this city to which he made frequent visits, and by reason of his active participation in politics in the reign of populism, had also many acquaintances in all parts of the county.

Mr. Applegate was born in Montgomery county, Ind., in 1835, and was married to the wife who survives him in 1857, the couple having celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary January 29th last. When the call for volunteers for the civil war was made, Mr. Applegate enlisted in an Iowa regiment and served for four years.

He leaves a wife and seven children, the latter being J. H. Applegate, living in Old Mexico, U. G. Applegate, of Cheyenne, L. C. and B. S. Applegate and Mrs. Cora Shoup of Sutherland, and Mrs. M. C. Lindsay and Mrs. Christ Paulson of this city.

The funeral was held at Sutherland yesterday.

Manager Howe Expresses Satisfaction

The Grand Island Independent says: E. C. Howe, general manager, and W. K. Winterhalter, consulting agriculturist, of the American Beet Sugar Company, were in town a day or two ago looking over agricultural matters with the local staff of the sugar factory.

Mr. Howe expressed himself as greatly pleased with the prospects for a bigger and better season this year than any had for several years. The new contract offered this year, under which the factory is to pay $5 per ton straight, regardless of sugar test, is proving much more popular than the old contract with scale prices, and there is now contracted more than four times as large an acreage as was contracted at this date last year.

Changes were made in a number of minor points in connection with the company's dealings with the farmers, all of which will go a long way toward removing every possible chance of dissatisfaction. The most important of these were the decision to raise the price from 20c to 50c per ton to be paid for siloing beets; the manner in which the tare is to be taken; and the method of ordering in and receiving beets. Arrangements have also been made early in the season, ahead of the usual demand for laborers, for a much larger and more efficient supply of field laborers, who will contract with the farmers for the hand work.

The prospects are such as to warrant the management in going ahead and making the necessary repairs and improvements to put the factory in good shape to make a long and heavy run next fall.

Won't Need A Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Sossaman, of Cornelia, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema or piles. 25c. at Stone's drug store.

Positions in Census Bureau.

Because of the small number of applications for positions on the additional temporary office force of the Census Bureau at Washington, D. C., it has been found necessary to hold another examination on March 5th, 1910. Applicants who failed to pass the first examination may be examined again in this examination. The state of Nebraska, it is estimated, should have about twenty-three took the examination given on Oct. 23, 1909. This examination relates exclusively to the office force at Washington, D. C., and has nothing to do with the appointment of supervisors, special agents or enumerators, there being no further examinations for positions of that character in contemplation. Application blanks may be obtained by addressing the civil service commission, Washington, D. C., or the Secretary of the Board of Examiners at Saint Paul, Minn. For other information apply at local post-office.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity Is Here Backed By North Platte Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read North Platte endorsement. Read the statement of North Platte citizens.

And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it: Mrs. G. Smith, North Platte, Neb., says: "After recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, our little boy suffered for about a year from pains through his back and a badly disordered condition of his kidneys. He had a constant feeling of weakness and at times was so languid that he could hardly drag himself around. The kidney secretions were too frequent and part of the time he had no control over them. There was a dull, heavy ache through his back and sides that annoyed him terribly and though we consulted doctors about his case, the medicine they prescribed did not bring any permanent benefit. A few months ago we learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at A. F. Streitz's drug store. The prompt relief our son received from the use of this remedy was very gratifying and I am glad to say he was finally restored to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Took All His Money.

Often all a man earns goes to doctors or for medicines, to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice, malaria and debility. 25c. at the Stone drug store.
