While the personal tax list for 1909 is pretty well cleaned up, there are still a few delinquents in each precinct and County Treasurer Langford is working his head to devote plans for making the delinquents pony up. Each year it is quite a task to get the stragglers to pay the amount due and sometimes it is necessary to resort to acts that are not pleasant to the treasurer.

Picture frames to order. First class work, reasonable prices. Sorenson, 107 E. Fifth street.

In no other of his plays has Shakespeare introduced so much genuine fun as in "The Taming of the Shrew." The poet appears to have abandoned himself to a work of unrestrained hilarity, in recognition of the maxim, "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the wisest men." "The Taming of the Shrew" has long been a favorite play with Charles B. Hanford, whose eminence as a representative tragedian is so well established that he can condescend to this unreservedly merry mood without loss of dignity. Hanford as Petruchio is one of the stalwart figures of the modern drama. The play is a classic of fun, and he has realized the principal character in a manner which preserves both its humor and its dramatic interest. The character of Katherine is one of the most dazzling of Shakespeare's feminine creations and in it Miss Marie Drofna has won a celebrity which makes her appearance in it an event of great theatrical interest. Mr. Hanford's production of this play, elaborate and complete in every respect will be offered at the Keith theatre on Monday, April 11th.

Insurance.

Fires come, lighting strikes, cyclones and tornadoes mow their swaths, hail storms destroy crops. Are you protected in a company that pays its losses promptly? If not, see Bratt & Goodman and be safe.

Miss Johnson Wins Second Place.

Miss Elsie Johnson, accompanied by Miss Wilson, went to Hastings last Friday and represented the North Platte high school in the debate held by the schools representing the Central Nebraska Association. In this debate ten schools were represented, among them Hastings, Kearney, Grand Island and Fremont. Much to the credit of Miss Johnson she won second place in the debate, an honor in which the local school takes considerable pride.

Bratt & Goodman
resident agents for the large insurance companies that suffered by the late prairie fire, have seen that every loss was satisfactorily adjusted. All have their money and cannot say enough good words for the agents of these companies. Insure with Bratt & Goodman and sleep in safety.

Declamatory Contest.

The annual declamatory contest of the local high school will be held at the auditorium next Friday evening. There will be eleven contestants, and each of the three classes—oratorical, dramatic and humorous—will be represented. The winner in each of these classes will represent the local school in the Western Nebraska contest to be held at Gothenburg on Friday of next week.

To the contest next Friday evening a small admission will be charged. The public is cordially invited.

For Sale.

Two houses on west Second street, one house on west Third street, and home residence in the west end. For terms and prices call at my residence.
MRS. W. F. CODY.

Annual Parish Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Episcopal parish was held at the church last evening. The reports of the church proper and the several societies connected therewith were very gratifying, and for the first time in several years the parish is absolutely without debt.

F. E. Bullard and F. W. Rincker were elected wardens, and Messrs. McNamara, Clinton, Duke, Boyd, Cunningham, Wilcox and Gilman members of the vestry. All those with the exception of Mr. Boyd held the same positions last year.

To the Public.

I desire to announce that during the season I will handle the Lamplugh spring water ice. Those desiring good, pure ice can phone 161 and orders will be promptly filled.
JOSEPH SPIES.

Will Run Excursion.

Arrangements are being made to run an excursion train over North River branch on May 2d, the date of the Engineers' May Party. It is also planned to have amusements other than the May Party for the entertainment of the visitors on May 3d, these latter to consist of ball games, and a sparring exhibition and wrestling match at the opera house. A "feeler" has been sent out to towns on the branch, and the plan is received with favor by the people along the line. It is believed that from 300 to 500 people will visit North Platte on the above dates. The Commercial Club will assist in making the visit an enjoyable one to all who come.

Concert Friday Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt P. McKinnie, of St. Sainte Marie, Mich., are in the city and will give a musical recital at the Keith next Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnie have been making a tour of a number of the western states and in each town in which they appeared they have captivated their audiences and received very favorable mention by the press. They recently appeared in a return engagement at Kearney and the Daily Hub gave them this notice:

Mr. and Mrs. Burt P. McKinnie, who have been visiting Rev. and Mrs. McEwin, gave a concert program at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening as a benefit to the Young People's society of the church. Mr. McKinnie has a deep, resonant baritone voice of good range, and Mrs. McKinnie is a soprano with a voice of sweetness and power and of great operatic possibilities.

In the popular analysis, the best music is the music that pleases best, and the program was certainly very pleasing throughout. In a program so well balanced it is difficult to make distinctions. In "I Am Thine Forever," by Schlesinger, Mrs. McKinnie excelled and her Swedish folk songs were especially pleasing. Mr. McKinnie's "The Brigand," by Spence, was a splendid interpretation of the descriptive ballad, but "The Gypsy Love Song," by Herbert, was very beautiful and deserving of encore that followed. There were numerous encores.

Those who were so fortunate as to be present have reason to thank the Presbyterian young people and the McKinnies for the evening's musical treat.

Worse Than Bubbles.

Bubbles have often caused less suffering to soldiers than the eczema L. W. Harriman, Burlington, Me., got in the arms, and suffered with, forty years.
