Because Pigs is Pigs

It does not follow that CLOTHES IS CLOTHES.

The first requisite in a suit is FIT. No matter how much you pay for a suit if it does not FIT you are dissatisfied with it. The quality of goods, trimmings, etc., are adjuncts which can be bought anywhere with mere money. But FIT is an art, which cannot be faked. There is nothing "just as good" as FIT. Our Miller-Made Princeton Suits FIT and the FIT costs you nothing. No matter what price you pay for a "Princeton" Suit it FITS. Then why not get your spring suit from us, and get FIT. You can then pay as much for the goods, trimmings, etc., as you deem right for your purpose. We have the Miller-Made Princeton Suits, that FIT in quality ranging from $15.00 to $35.00. Let us show you these.

Cadet Play.

The high school cadets, every year before they go to camp give an entertainment to help defray expenses. This year they have prepared a military play entitled, "In Lookout Valley." As shown by the name this is a civil war play and the setting is based on history.

Miss Welsh, who is an experienced elocutionist, has drilled the players and it is safe to say that they will do unusually well. They have worked hard for the past three or four weeks, both on the play and on the quartet singing, which will be one of the very enjoyable features of the entertainment. There will also be a Dutch Drill between acts by eight high school girls.

Come out and help the boys, and at the same time enjoy an evening full of entertainment. Admission 25, 35, and 50 cents.

Cadets play tomorrow night at the Keith.

Do You Beat Your Wife?

No? WHY?

Because it hurts: Well, my dear sir, it hurts your carpets and rugs to beat them; wears 'em out; makes you spend your hard earned money for new ones; ever stop to think of that?

Love your wife and she won't need beating; treat your carpets RIGHT and THEY won't need beating. Clean 'em with a

So E-Z Vacuum Cleaner

(cost $10.00 and lasts a life time) and save 'em to walk on—that's what carpets and rugs are intended for—not to be knocked to pieces with a club.

Come and see our demonstration of this wonderful machine.

Ginn, White & Schatz.

Killed by Fear. Frederick I. of Prussia was killed by fear. His wife was insane, and one day she escaped from her keeper and, dabbing her clothes with blood, rushed upon her husband while he was dozing in his chair. King Frederick imagined her to be the "white lady" whose ghost was believed to invariably appear whenever the death of a member of the royal family was to occur, and he was thrown into a fever and died in six weeks.

Hedgehogs and Eggs. Some years ago, not being able to account for the disappearance of eggs, a wire cage trap was set in a fowl run. After a little time this was occupied—not by a rat, but a fine hedgehog filled to its utmost capacity the trap. It was reset, to be filled in a few days by Mrs. Hedgehog. No more eggs were missed.—London Times.

Not Funny For the Nephew. "A little change of heir," remarked the old man as he altered his will, cutting off his nephew in favor of a distant relative.

Enthusiasm gives life to what is invisible and interest to what has no immediate action on our comfort in this world.—Mme. de Staël.
