Bring Your Old Umbrella to Us to be Changed FREE into a HULL UMBRELLA With Detachable and Interchangeable Handle.

HULL BROS. UMBRELLA COMPANY, of Toledo, Ohio, makers of the Hull Detachable and Interchangeable Umbrella, are advertising in the Saturday Evening Post and Woman's Home Companion, that they will change any umbrella handle into a Hull Detachable Umbrella Handle FREE.

Select from the umbrellas in your home the one with the favorite handle which requires re-covering, bring the old umbrella with coupon to our store.

We will send the handle to the factory to be changed free and show you the advantage of the Hull detachable and interchangeable feature.

When your handle comes back equipped with this device, we will supply you with an new Hull (base rod, ribs and cover) of your own selection—at the mere price of recovering your old frame.

When you have exchanged your old umbrella for this new style, the Hull Umbrella you will begin to enjoy uses and advantages which no umbrella has ever given you before.

Suppose the cover of your Hull Umbrella wears out.

You bring it to us and we will snap onto the handle an entirely new frame and cover—all at the same or less expense than the cost of the mere re-covering.

When the cover of your old style umbrella wore out, you were forced to wait a day or two while an inefficient workman recovered the old frame.

And even then you can run the risk of having the rusted ribs of this old frame break and ruin this new cover.

Do not delay. Bring your old umbrella to us and inside of two or three days we will hand you a new Hull Umbrella with detachable and interchangeable handle.

HULL BROTHERS UMBRELLA COMPANY

COUPON

If you have an umbrella of the ordinary kind which requires re-covering, bring it to our store with this coupon. This coupon will entitle you to have your old style umbrella transformed into a new style HULL UMBRELLA with detachable and interchangeable handle. This service will be rendered WITHOUT COST TO YOU—the new frame and cover embodying the detachable and interchangeable feature being furnished to you at the mere cost of re-covering. Preserve this coupon and bring it with your old umbrella the next time you come to our store.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

The H. N. Smith house on east Sixth street has been removed to the inside lot to make room for a new residence Mr. Smith will erect.

Leo Lucey, a member of the Lucey Bros. real estate agency at Sutherland, transacted business in town a couple of days the early part of the week.

Bert Culton, who went to Grand Island to try out with the state league ball team of that city, was released Tuesday and has returned to town.

Sol Hodes will assist at The Leader during the absence of Mr. Pizer, who will go to Excelsior Springs to recuperate for a couple of weeks.

E. C. Ringer, principal of the city schools for the past two years, has been tendered and has accepted the superintendency of the schools at Sidney.

Mrs. Callie Davidson and daughter Ruth spent several days in Omaha this week, the former attending the state chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

L. H. Daingerfield, a former weather observer of this city, writes to have his paper changed from Pueblo to Washington, D. C., from which we infer he has been transferred to the latter city.

Fred Tobias won first prize in guessing the number of collars displayed in the Star clothing house window. The number was 1,107, and Mr. Tobias made a guess of 1,101.

J. W. Nugent, who was receiving treatment at the Physicians and Surgeons hospital following his accident at the Union Pacific depot, has returned to his home near Maxwell.

Julius Pizer and W. T. Wilcox leave tomorrow night for Excelsior Springs where they will spend several weeks. Both have become somewhat overworked and need a rest from the strenuous activity of their respective callings.

J. W. Ridgway, a North Platte business man a quarter of a century ago, passed through yesterday enroute to Washington to attend the world's Sunday school convention. He has been spending the past year at Seattle.

This writer visits the Banks addition section of the city about once in two weeks, and each time notices a new residence. What was an expanse of raw prairie a few years ago has now become a well settled and thrifty populated section.

This is Friday, the 13th. If you have had bad luck today, you'll know the reason why.

A deed has been filed conveying from the Union Realty & Trust Co. to D. M. Leyboldt and others, section 31-14-32 for a consideration of $13,500.

W. V. Hoagland went to Sidney last night, where he appears as attorney for Cheyenne County in an action brought by a bridge company to recover nine thousand dollars.

The council Wednesday evening granted a druggist's permit to M. L. McCarty, the north side druggist and he is allowed to sell liquor for medicinal and mechanical purposes.

Will Waltemath arrived home last evening from Philadelphia. On account of illness, which was of a protracted nature, he was compelled to relinquish his studies for the remainder of the school year.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schatz died Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of several days, and the funeral was held Wednesday. The sympathy of many friends is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Schatz in the death of their little one.

A Maxwell resident sends the following: The musical recital given at the Kuhns home at Maxwell by Miss Bonner and her pupils on May 7th proved very entertaining. The program consisted of eighteen number and much credit is due Miss Bonner as a music instructor.

Twenty couples of young people of the city drove out to the Trovillo farm west of the city Tuesday evening and were hospitably and pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Trovillo. Dancing was the chief entertaining feature, and very enjoyable were the refreshments served by the hostess. The festivities continued until after one o'clock. Enroute home several of the parties, through lack of knowledge of the roads met with starting, though not serious experiences.

Sixteen ladies were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Luke Healey, at which Mrs. John McCabe, of Cheyenne, was the guest of honor. Mrs. McCabe, was a former resident of North Platte, but left the city eighteen years ago and to renew her acquaintance was certainly a pleasure to those present. The entertaining feature of the afternoon was high five, Mrs. Bare winning the prize and Mrs. Halligan the consolation. The refreshments served were elaborate and much enjoyed.

Somewhat Sensational.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Knight, of Gothenburg, were visitors in town yesterday. They were here spending their honeymoon, having been married the early part of last week. In connection with this marriage there are facts that are somewhat sensational. Mrs. Knight was formerly Josephine Vera Morant, daughter of the late Saml. Morant, by a former marriage. When Mr. Morant died he left an estate of $70,000, to one third of which this daughter fell heir. Being a minor, John E. Evans, of this city was appointed her guardian. Before she became of age her mother, now Mrs. Rose, living at Gothenburg, planned a fictitious marriage in order that her daughter as a married woman, might receive the money in the hands of the guardian, and in July of last year she, the daughter, was married to a man who gave his name as J. H. Moore, but whose real name was Clarence Owings. This ceremony was performed by Judge Elder without knowledge of the true facts in the presence of Mrs. Rose and the guardian Mr. Evans. Shortly thereafter the money in the hands of the guardian, amounting to about $25,000, was turned over to Mrs. Moore. The couple, however, did not live together, and neither regarded the ceremony as binding. Several months ago Knight began paying attention to the girl, not knowing of the marriage, and in due time became deeply enamored. It was then that he was informed of the marriage, and the conditions under which it was brought about. Steps were then taken to have the marriage annulled, and such an action was brought, heard and granted in the district court at Lexington on Monday of last week. Owings consulting to the annulment by the payment of $500. On the day following the couple were married, and judging by their actions in this city their honeymoon is a pleasant one.

Mr. Knight is a brother of Mrs. Jessie Bacon, and is at present manager of the latter's ranch south of Gothenburg.

Lake Ice.

I am prepared to furnish pure lake ice at 40 cents per hundred pounds. Orders may be left in Bellevue, Neb. LEVI ELLIS.

Levy Tax in Sewer District.

The city council held a meeting Wednesday evening and levied a tax against the property in four sewer districts to pay for the construction of the laterals recently completed. The tax for each sixty-six foot frontage in District R. will be $30.17, in District Q $30.32, in District E $31.78 and in District G-1 $31.73.

Ed. Ewell Runs Special.

A special train in charge of Ed. Ewell, of the Grand Island sugar factory, arrived Wednesday forenoon with twenty-six families of foreigners who will weed, thin and harvest sugar beets during the summer. These families will be distributed at points between this city and Keystone on the north river branch. There were about 150 persons in the party. The special left Lincoln Tuesday with 450 on board, 300 of whom were distributed at different points enroute to this city.

Wrestling Match Tuesday.

Manager Kubik, of the opera house, has perfected arrangements for a wrestling match next Tuesday evening between Arthur McGril of Denver and T. J. Gatley of Stromsburg. McGril is said to be a fast one, and Gatley is the wrestler who took two straight falls out of "Cyclone" Freeman in this city a couple of weeks ago. This wrestling match will be on a bet of $100 in addition to the purse hung up by Manager Kubik. It will, therefore, be a contest worthy the name.

Enlarges Business.

The Hartman cigar factory has been moved to the McDonald brick building on Locust street, where it is using both floors, the lower for stock, the upper for manufacturing the goods. At present five cigar makers are employed, and this number will be increased to seven, Mr. Hartman going to Grand Island tomorrow to secure the services of two additional men.

Mr. Hartman says he finds no trouble in securing a market for his goods, in fact orders are coming in faster at present than they can be filled.

Making Settlement With Fire Sufferers.

Moses P. O'Brien, of Sterling, and C. E. Cooper, of Sheridan, Wyo., claim agents for the Burlington road, arrived in town Tuesday and are now making settlement with those farmers who lost property in the late prairie fire. Mr. Cooper is working from this end of the burned district, while Mr. O'Brien will work north from Dickens. It will require a couple of weeks to make the settlements. In presenting their claims, the great majority of those so far approached have not shown any inclination to be unreasonable in their demands.

For Quick Sale.

The H. E. Votaw residence in west end at a bargain. This is a chance to get as fine a home as there is in the city at a bargain. D. E. MORRILL.

Building Operations in East End.

Building operations are active in the east end additions. In the Trustee's addition Wm. Maloney is having two houses erected, Mr. Hultman has just completed one house and is building a second, Mr. Basta has his bungalow well under way, and the foundations for the Picard and Duke residences have been laid and the carpenter work begun. Cellar excavations are being made for two other houses, the owners of which we have not learned.

In the Plattview sub-division in the same section houses are being erected by Dick Wood, Mr. Moody and Mr. Brown.
