County Treasurer Langford reports collections of forty thousand dollars for the month of April, this representing the payment of real estate taxes for 1909. This sum is six thousand dollars greater than the collections for April, 1908. That is a pretty good showing, don't you think?

Hyde was found guilty at 10:23 o'clock yesterday morning of the murder of Col. Thomas Swope at Kansas City. The punishment is life imprisonment. The jury had been out since Friday night and one juror was quoted as declaring that he would vote for acquittal "until he died of old age," consequently the verdict came as a surprise, all the attorneys having given up hope of agreement. Attorney Walsh, counsel for the defense, declared he would appeal the case.
