The report is current, and it seems to be well founded, that a local train will soon be put on between North Platte and Sidney. This train, it is said, will leave in the morning and arrive in the evening, which would not be much of an advantage, if any, to people coming to North Platte. A local train arriving from the west in the early forenoon and leaving during the latter part of the afternoon or the early part of the evening would on the other hand prove a great accommodation to those coming here, as it would give them time to transact business and get home early. At present people from the west reach here at 8 a. m., and cannot return until 1:55 at night.

June—the month of roses—the season when nature smiles benignly—the time of wedding bells—beautiful presents for the bride—gifts for the bridesmaid—mementoes for the best man— favors for the entire galaxy of attendants. Exquisite articles in gold and silver, richly mounted gems, superb cut glass—a store full from which to make selections.

THE Gossard CORSETS
They Lace In Front!

They lace in front—as a result the abdomen is relieved of all pressure. Support is given to the organs and deep breathing is encouraged. They emphasize the long graceful line of the back, which artists agree is the most beautiful line in art. They gently but surely compel a correct standing position and a graceful carriage. We invite you to investigate these wonderful corsets.

"Daisy" Dean Drops Dead.

The deceased was a brother of engineer Lew Dean, of this city, and the latter left Friday night for St. Joe to attend the funeral.

Banquet and Reception to Seniors.
The class of 1910 were guests of honor at two functions given last week, a banquet by the Junior Class Thursday evening and a reception by the Alumni association Saturday evening.

At the Junior banquet, which was given in the lower room of the Presbyterian church, seventeen of each class was present. The room was decorated with the school colors and with flowers. A splendid four course lunch was served by the Presbyterian ladies, with white and red carnations as the table decorations. The guests of the evening were welcomed by Corbin Jones, president of the class of 1911, and the response made by Francis Flynn president of the 1910 class. Other toasts were "School Days" by Pearl Lawrence, "Athletics" by Millege Bullard, "Being a Junior" by Clark LeDiott, "Girls of North Platte High School" by Lorenzo Guffy and "The Boys of the North Platte High School" by Bessie Smith. Misses Irma Huffman, Marie McCabe, Helen Waltemath, Margaret Jones, Elizabeth Hinman and Florence Iddings assisted in serving.

Ninety were present at the reception tendered the class by the Alumni association at the Gilman residence Saturday evening, the largest number that had ever attended a similar function. The early part of the evening was devoted to the recounting of school day incidents, and to music rendered by the Stamp orchestra. At ten o'clock the party repaired to the basement of the Presbyterian church where the banquet was held. An excellent four-course supper was served by the ladies of the church. School penants and cut flowers were the table decorations. Miss Edna Sullivan presided as toastmistress and delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Francis Flynn, president of the class of '10. Other toasts were responded to by Everett Evans, Miss Nell Hartman, Miss Anna Kramph and Supt. Tout. The function proved a most enjoyable one throughout.

Commencement Exercises.
At the Keith theatre Friday evening in the presence of a fair sized audience, thirteen young ladies and four young men, members of the 1910 class of the high school, were given diplomas. As the curtain rose disclosing the class seated on the stage there was liberal applause, each auditor feeling an interest and pride in these young people, who by faithful work, had successfully completed the high school course.

The program opened with a well executed solo by Miss Irene Richard, followed by an invocation by Rev. M. C. Johnson. Francis Flynn, president of the class, gave the class history, and in his address stated that when the present class entered the high school it numbered fifty-one by one they had dropped out. The trials of the class were outlined; the goal had not been reached without hard work.

"Italia, Beloved," from Lucrezia Borgia, was rendered by a chorus of thirty voices under the direction of E. C. Ringer. This selection, as well as others rendered by the chorus, was fine; in fact in the opinion of this writer it was the best chorus singing yet rendered by the local talent, and it is an organization that should be maintained and made permanent.

Miss Anna Kramph, as a representative of the alumni association, gave an address, in which she cited a number of instances in which graduates of the North Platte high school had "made good" in their chosen work. Miss Kramph made a number of good points along the theme that as we increase in knowledge and prosperity we should create the spirit of greater happiness in self and in one another.

"The Ideal American" was the subject of an oration by Miss Majorie Cross, in which the late President McKinley was held up as the ideal of American citizenship. The address was very good.

The chorus rendered Pinault's "Spring Song," which was followed by an oration by Miss Pearl Tagader on "Importance of Modern Inventions and Discoveries." The speaker referred to the many inventions which have proven of inestimable value to the people—bringing convenience, wealth and happiness.

As valedictorian, Miss Elsie Johnson named her subject "An Appreciation," a resume of the early life-start of our present chief executive, President Wm. H. Taft and its effect upon his course in life. She closed by reading a letter from President Taft in reply to an interrogation she had asked him relative to an incident in his formal acceptance of the presidential nomination.

Mrs. M. L. Dunlap sang "The Leaf and the Sun," in a very creditable manner, and then President Bullard, of the board of education, presented the diplomas, prefacing this action by appropriate remarks.

The "Bridal Chorus" from the Rose Maiden was rendered by the chorus and the exercises were closed by an invocation by Rev. Porter.

United States Detective Miller, of Omaha, and Deputy United States Sammons, of Kearney, arrived in town Saturday and filed a complaint against Earl York and Ira LaRue, charging them with passing counterfeit money. They were taken before U. S. Commissioner Eider and plead not guilty. They were placed under $1,000 bonds for their appearance in the federal court. York's mother came up from Lexington and gave bond for her son's appearance, and in order to do so mortgaged her home in Lexington. He was then released from custody. LaRue has not yet been able to obtain a bond, and languishes in jail.
