A trade of land was made this week between Joseph Morsch and the Elks, the former giving the west twenty-two feet of his lot for the twenty-two feet of the Elk lot next the alley. This gives the lots a depth of eighty-eight instead of sixty-six feet. This deal will not, however, change the plans of the Elks' building, but at some future time a one story rear addition may be erected to the building.

Wanted—A girl at 221 east Fourth street.

A game of ball between the U. P. shop team and the Originals was played at the park yesterday afternoon in the presence of two or three hundred people. The result is in dispute, the Originals claiming the game by a score of five to three and the shop team maintaining that it should have been five to five at the end of the ninth inning. This dispute arose as to whether a base runner did or did not "cut" third base. Swope and Mann was the battery for the shop team and Jones and Patti for the Originals.

Christian Church.

All members of the Bible School that can possibly come are requested to be at the church at 6:45 this evening to take part in the parade.

The 10th District Convention of the churches of Christ convenes in this city this evening. The program for the evening is as follows: Parade by the Bible school, leaving the church at 7 p. m. The boys high school band will head the parade, returning to the church at 7:30 for the address of welcome by Mayor Patterson, special music by the High School Girls Glee Club, response by the Dist. Pres. J. H. Darner, and an address "The Message of the Church" by Elder E. M. Johnson of Kearney.

Tomorrow the morning session will be devoted to Christian Endeavor and the afternoon session to Bible School interests, splendid programs have been prepared for these sessions. W. A. Baldwin, State Sec. will deliver the evening address; the childrens chorus will sing. Thursday the morning session will be in charge of The Women's Christian Board of Missions and the afternoon will be the business session of the convention. Evangelist Knowles will give the closing address of the convention Thursday evening. The sessions will all be open to the public and the citizens of North Platte are cordially invited to attend them.

The Woman in Russia.

"Love your wife like your soul and beat her like your carpet." This is a Russian proverb. Another of the same spirit, "Not long hurt the bumps from a loved one's thumps." Wives have undoubtedly been subjected to much ill treatment in Russia, where most husbands have always held to the opinion that "liberty spoils a good wife." Some Russian proverbs are cynical as to the delights of matrimony, and most married men know how to say, "Wed once, wall always."

are now foremost in the public eye.

So are "Miller-Made" Princeton ready to wear clothes. There has been just as much improvement made in the making of these "Princeton" Clothes, as in Automobiles. A few years ago an intelligent man would not have thought of buying an Automobile or a ready to wear suit of clothes. Now he can do both with safety, the latter especially, if he buys "Princeton" clothes. THEY FIT. They wear. They have the style and they cost no more than many inferior garments. If you have never worn a "Princeton" suit, let us show you this spring models from
