

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, JUNE 17, 1910.

NO 42.

SPECIAL SALE NEWS.

Our Sale opened Saturday and is proving a great success. Our customers not finding old, out of style merchandise but goods that are right up to date, most of them of this seasons purchases. In Dress Goods instead of a few pieces of old styles they find their choice of the very newest patterns at the reductions advertised; same with Silk. Men's Furnishings include new merchandise in Underwear, Socks, etc. The Shirts shown are brands that have good material in them but are odd in our stocks as we have changed makes. In Shoes, while there are some old style ones, the greater majority of them are good styles but odd lots, only two or three pairs a like. Our Suits are all of this spring's purchase and practically the same style that will be used this fall. We have just put out more wash dresses, some underskirts, odd lot of lace curtains, embroideries, laces, etc. You will find here, as you have always, reliable merchandise priced for this sale at a saving to you that you should not overlook. Remember this sale lasts until June 26th, and that there will be new things added every day until it closes.

Wilcox Department Store.

SPECIAL SALE

June 15th to 25th.

Extraordinary Bargains on sale for the first time Wednesday.

To make room for my winter stock of ribbons I am offering all my No. 100 and 150 ribbons in Taffeta, Messaline and Moire at one-half price.

No. 100 Taffeta Ribbons in all light shades, worth 25c yd., for 12c.

No. 100 Messaline Ribbon in all light shades, worth 30c yd for 15c a yd.

No. 150 Taffeta and Messaline worth 40c and 45c, for 20 and 22c a yd.

No. 100 Moire Ribbon worth 25c yd for 17c a yd.

MISS WITTAKER, Millinery Dept., Wilcox Dept. Store.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. Thos. Burney has returned from a visit with friends at Wood River.

Judge and Mrs. H. M. Grimes are expected home tomorrow from their visit in Indiana.

A girl baby was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doolittle, who live south of the river.

Rompers in all styles, high or low neck, long or short sleeves, long or knee pants at The Hub Clo. Dept.

An adjourned term of district court will be held next week beginning Monday. It will probably be a two weeks' session.

Miss Arta Kocken, who is teaching school at Sheridan, arrived home Wednesday to spend a four months' vacation. She has been re-engaged as a teacher.

Fred Kubik has arranged for several sporting events on July 4th, both in the boxing and wrestling line. The talent he has secured, he says, will be worthy a packed house.

The alfalfa harvest is now in progress and the weather the past few days has been favorable. The first cutting is light, due to the cold weather during the growing season.

Two nice properties on W. 6th street for sale. Prices $2,000 and $2,250. Let us show them to you.

TEMPLE REAL ESTATE & INS. Agency.

Scarcely a day passes but blind mendicants show up on the streets, usually with musical instruments. Yesterday there were two such, a blind musician, and another who, led by a faithful dog, made a door to door canvas for alms in the business part of town.

The petition of the people in Ogallala for a new depot at that place was heard Wednesday, Dr. Winnet, of the state railway commission, Genl. Supt. Ware, Division Supt. McKenwn and several attorneys representing the Union Pacific being present. The outcome of the hearing has not been learned.

Thirty or more ladies were guests at a card party given Tuesday afternoon by Mesdames Coates and Swope at the home of the former, a function that was complimentary to Mrs. Geo. A. Saint. In the card games Miss Irma Clinton won first prize and Mrs. Bert Napersteck the consolation emblem. Seasonable refreshments were served at the close of this delightful afternoon.

Col. Wm. Beatty, of Brady, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Misses Kate Spies and Mary Stevie left Tuesday for a visit at Sheridan, Wyo.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's Tub Suits at THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

John Lambert, of Grand Island, came up to attend the funeral of L. O. Farrington.

E. R. Schutz, of Boone, Iowa, has been elected principal of the high school. He is a graduate of the Chicago university.

Fred Hanlon has resigned his position at the shops and goes to Lexington next week to accept a position as block signal maintainer.

A telegram received Wednesday announced the birth at Lewiston, Idaho, of a ten pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Austin, formerly of this city.

In some parts of the county small grain is suffering to some extent from lack of moisture; in other sections the grain crop is in a very fine condition.

Monarch Malleable Ranges—best on the market—at Hershey's.

Dick Sharp, of Grand Island, an old time friend of the late L. O. Farrington, and also of John Worthley, was in town yesterday attending the funeral.

Bishop Graves, of the Episcopal church, will make a visit here on June 29th and confirm a class of eleven members to be presented by Rev. C. F. Chapman.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Clark Buchanan and Miss Vera Sitton, which will occur at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, June 28th.

The Nelson-Wolgaast fight pictures were presented at the Keith Wednesday evening to a large audience. The films showed the actions of the fighters in very good shape.

"Pete" Davis, for a number of years employed at the freight house, has been appointed freight inspector for the Wyoming division, a promotion that his faithfulness and efficiency merited.

That warm weather, which was so badly needed for corn growth, has now arrived, and now that it is here we are inclined to complain of "excessive heat." We mortals are hard to satisfy.

Mrs. Jesse Norton and daughter of Douglas, Ariz., will arrive in town next month for a visit with her mother and sister. It has been nine years since Mrs. Norton visited North Platte.

Wanted—A housekeeper about 40 or 45 years of age. No objection to one or two children. John Kostick, Wellfleet.

Mrs. J. E. Weeks and son Robert left Tuesday night for Evanston, Wyo., where they were called by an accident which befell Ed Weeks last week. A heavy bar of iron in some way fell across his back, resulting in serious injury.

L. W. Rollins, of Grand Island, came up yesterday to attend funeral of his old friend, the late L. O. Farrington. Mr. Rollins is one of the oldest engineers in point service in the country, having pulled the throttle for fifty-two consecutive years. He began running on the Union Pacific in 1865, and prior to that was in the employ of the C. & N. W.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor VonGoetz, Jr., left last night for a short visit in Omaha.

Mrs. C. H. Stamp leaves in a few days for a visit with relatives at points in Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Edwards and children have returned from their visit in the east.

For Sale—Rubber tired Stanhope. Inquire of 620 West Fourth street.

Mrs. Chas. A. Dill returned Wednesday evening from a visit with the W. L. Park family in Chicago.

"Jack" Pember, of the Rexall drug store, attended the druggists' convention held at Omaha this week.

W. R. Maloney spent several days in Grand Island this week attending the state convention of funeral directors.

The democratic state convention will meet in Grand Island July 26th. Lincoln county is entitled to nine delegates.

For Modern and up to date Clothes go to The Hub Clo. Dept.

Mr. and Mrs. Genung, of Pomona, Cal., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson this week while enroute to the east.

Miss Anna Worthley, of Pocattello, Idaho, arrived Tuesday and will make an extended visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Worthley.

A letter received the early part of the week by Mrs. W. E. Shuman, Mrs. Danl. Burke states that she arrived safely at Amsterdam, Holland, and is enjoying her visit with relatives.

Judge and Mrs. W. H. Munger returned to Omaha Wednesday morning. The Judge expected to go to Lodge Pole for a day's fishing, but reports from there as to the appetite of black bass proved discouraging.

Joseph Pizer, of Demopolis, Ala., is the guest of his nephew, Julius Pizer. His visit here was unexpected; in fact Mr. Pizer had understood that his uncle had died about a month ago, and his appearance was therefore a great surprise.

See LeMasters for Rambler or Mitchell cars—best on earth.

Jay Neely, who is here representing the Equitable Life Assurance Society, tells us twenty-six applications for policies have been sent in during the past two weeks. This company prior to these applications, had about one hundred policy holders in and near North Platte.

June—the month of roses—the season when nature smiles benignly—the time of wedding bells—beautiful presents for the bride—gifts for the bridesmaid—mementoes for the best man— favors for the entire galaxy of attendants. Exquisite articles in gold and silver, richly mounted gems, superb cut glass—a store full from which to make selections.

CLINTON, Jeweler and Optician.

A party of Wallacites, composed of Capt. J. S. Robbins, Henry Mehman, W. F. Haines, Chas. L. Cooper, Dr. S. Cassady, C. D. White, Henry Ader, I. W. Reece and D. M. Crouse, came over Tuesday night to attend Masonic lodge. They were brought over by Chas. Liston and C. M. Hayden in their autos. Capt. Robbins informs us that a Masonic lodge will be organized in Waltham in the immediate future.

J. J. Sullivan, of Omaha, has been in town for a day or two, coming here to attend the Farrington funeral.

Mrs. Frank Buchanan entertained at a five o'clock dinner Wednesday in favor of Mrs. Mary Carrier, of Birdwood.

Mrs. Valentine Schermann and two grandsons departed Wednesday afternoon for Los Angeles.

Mrs. Wernert, of Columbus, is the guest of her brothers, the Messrs. Rebhausen, having arrived Wednesday afternoon.

A call for a populist state convention, to be held at Grand Island July 26th, has been issued. Lincoln county is entitled to five delegates.

Miss Mary McGovern returned Tuesday from a ten days' visit at the McFadden ranch near Paxton. She reports a delightful visit.

Mrs. Fred Beller, of Freewater, Ore., has sent to this office a sample box of the cherries grown on their fruit farm. This fruit is certainly very fine.

The Grand Island Independent says that Harry Reece is getting along nicely but will be compelled to remain at the hospital for at least four weeks.

Miss Mabel Madden, of Omaha, daughter of Conductor Madden, has been spending this week in town as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Norton.

The Hard Knock (Union Made) Overalls. Garments equal to the best made for $1.00 per pair at The Hub Clothing Dept.

Rolf Halligan graduated from the state university this week with the degree of bachelor of arts. Miss Marie VonGoetz also graduated from the same institution.

The county commissioners met in session Tuesday and then adjourned to meet as a board of equalization. The assessors' books, however, were not completed, and the board adjourned until June 27th.

J. F. Pillion has been awarded the contract for placing the heating plant and plumbing in the J. W. Payne residence. He has also contracted for a water system in the new residence of Gus Meyer on the road leading to the south river bridge.

Davis & Chorpennig of this city have sold thirty-nine automobiles, about one-half of which have been purchased by North Platte people, the remainder by people living in the country tributary to the city. In addition to these, Mr. Davis has sold fourteen cars at Cozad, where he maintains a garage and salesroom.

In the North Platte federal court Wednesday the suit of the Union Pacific Railroad company against Lincoln county, wherein the railroad company sought to enjoin the county from laying out a road along the outer 100 feet of the right-of-way claimed by the railroad, was decided by Judge Munger in favor of Lincoln county. The court holding that the suit was prematurely brought and that the Board of County Commissioners had taken no action.

Hershey Land.

I offer the 200 acre tract of land that adjoins the town of Hershey on the south in 50 acre tracts, at from $45.00 per acre up. Easy terms, write.

D. C. PATTERSON, Omaha, Nebr.

Downs-Heysse Wedding.

Wednesday evening Miss Ruby M. Phelan, (better known as Ruby Heysse) became Mrs. Dan Downs at the home of her mother on east 11th St., Judge Elder officiating in the presence of invited guests. The bridal party entered the rooms to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Villa Bergman, Judge Elder leading, followed by Mr. Downs and his best man, Edward Bergman, the bride's maid Miss Bergman, and the bride on the arm of her father. The bride was prettily gowned and carried bride's roses. The full ring service was used and the ceremony was a very pretty one. Following this a wedding supper was served. The table and house decorations were pink and white carnations, roses and ferns. The presents were many and beautiful, consisting of silverware, hand painted china and many other articles. The bride is a young lady of pleasing disposition and possessing all the qualifications necessary to the making of a happy home.

The groom is a prosperous young ranchman of Huntsville City, Utah, where they will reside in the future.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Minnie Lowe and Villa Bergman.

Best wishes were extended the young couple and at midnight they took the train for a trip to Denver and other southern points.

GUEST.

Hard Knock Overalls for Men and Boys.

THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

A Woman's Great Idea.

It is how to make her self attractive. But with out health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at Stone Drug Company Co.

Notice to the Public.

You are hereby notified that the Board of Equalization will be in session at the County Commissioners' office at North Platte, Neb., from June 27th, 1910, to July 2d, 1910, inclusive, to hear complaints with reference to the equalization of personal property.

F. R. ELLIOTT, County Clerk.

Estrayed.

Estrayed from the Herman Johnson pasture about May 20th a white face three year old heifer, four white feet, branded on left hip with J and lazy J. combined. Send information to Herman Johnson, North Platte, or to Tribune office.

Lee's Insect Powder

is the round package in red and yellow—entirely different in appearance, and equally different in effectiveness from other insect poisons offered in powder form.

It isn't difficult to make a poison for insects. What requires skill and knowledge is in making a preparation that will actually destroy vermin on an animal and with no injury to the animal itself.

Herein is where Lee's product is different. Ours is thoroughly effective as a destroyer of vermin and absolutely harmless to the chick.

Watch for the yellow packages. Prepared in large 1-lb sprinkler-top cans and sells at

25 Cts. Each

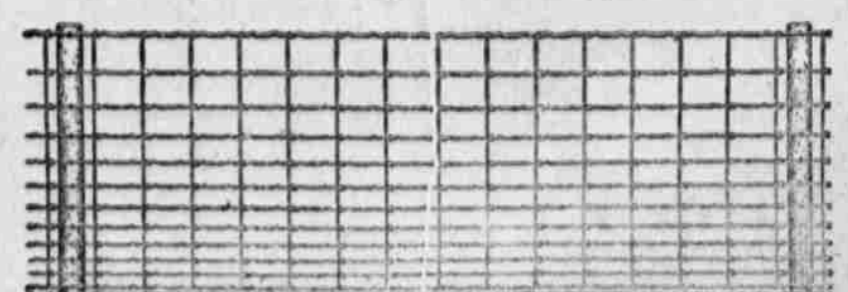

Exclusive Agents.

SCHILLER & CO.,

Family Druggists,
North Platte, Nebraska.

Stands Like a Stone Wall

Turns Cattle, Horses, Hogs—is Practically Indestructible

AMERICAN FENCE

Buy your new fence for years to come. Get the big, heavy wires, the hinge joint, the good galvanizing, the exactly proportioned quality of steel that is not too hard nor too soft.

We can show you this fence in our stock and explain its merits and superiority, not only in the roll but in the field. Come and see us and get our prices.

FOR SALE BY

GINN, WHITE & SCHATZ.