Commencing next week the streets running east and west in the Miller and Peniston additions will be graded. These streets have never been graded to any extent, and the proposed work will no doubt be appreciated by the residents of that section of the city.

For Sale—160 acres near North Platte, Nebraska, price $900, terms $300 cash, balance 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 years. The land acquired for debt and must sell. Address, Hargadine McKittrick, D. G. Co., St. Louis, Mo.

J. W. Seeleye has sold his farm south of Maxwell to R. T. Stevens of this city, for a consideration of $3,600. Mr. Seeleye takes as part payment a house and three lots in the South Park addition to this city, and will probably remove thereto.

Geo. W. Hazard, who will be remembered by old-times, was a visitor in town yesterday. Hazard was responsible for the financial trouble of Alex Struthers, a former county treasurer of this county, having hypothecated the proceeds of a big mortgage given by Struthers on a bunch of cattle.

Mrs. Jesup was hostess for the Swastika club Wednesday and a delightfully pleasant afternoon resulted. Card games were the entertaining features, and at the close refreshments were served. Mrs. O. H. Cressler and Mrs. Guy Swope were selected as additional members of the club. Mrs. Frank Armstrong will entertain the club June 29th.

Short Horn Bulls for Sale. Owing to the bad weather on our side we did not dispose of all of our bulls. We still have six head of serviceable age that we are giving very low prices to make room for younger stock coming on. If you are interested, these can be seen at our ranch two miles west of North Platte. Come early and get the good ones.

FREMONT WATTS & SONS.

Mrs. Nona Elder, office deputy to County Assessor Bacon will complete the assessment schedules in a week or ten days. The only precinct, which is footed and verified is Wallace, which shows an increase of seventy-eight thousand dollars in the value of personal property as compared with the 1909 assessment. Whether o'her precincts will show a proportionate increase cannot at this time be stated.

It is impossible to lose North Platte men in state conventions, and in all such gatherings they are recognized. Will R. Maloney, who has been in attendance at the state funeral directors' association at Grand Island this week, was elected a delegate to the National Funeral Directors' Association which meets in Detroit in October. Mr. Maloney is one of North Platte's "live ones," and this recognition shown him is well deserved.

Mayor Pat McCarthy, mayor of San Francisco, is quoted in today's paper as saying: "I am running San Francisco. I am taking no orders from Gillet or his attorney general. You can bet your last dollar that the big fight will be pulled off in my town just as advertised." The latest move in the fight situation is a motion for a permanent injunction against the Jeffries-Johnson fight, and today an application will be filed for a temporary restraining order against the Kaufman-Lanford contest.

Burial Vault.

The Vault without a fault—Conceded Best in the World.

It is waterproof, reinforced with steel throughout, finished with aluminum, and can be obtained from your undertaker at a reasonable price. It is a satisfaction worth more than the cost, to know that the remains of your friends and the casket containing them are preserved from the waters of the earth as they cannot be when buried in any other way.

The G. A. R. flag pole which has been standing in front of the Central school building has been removed to the south side of the postoffice. Mischievous persons insisted on cutting the ropes which was annoying and as the Post now meets in the Odd Fellows' hall it was thought best to remove the pole to its present site.

DR. F. W. MILLER, Dentist. Over Dixon's. Phone 358.

Among the men in town yesterday who the old-time railroad men were glad to greet was P. J. Nichols, of Boulder, for a number of years superintendent of the Nebraska division, which position he resigned in 1888 to take the position of superintendent of terminals at Omaha, and later was superintendent of the union depot at Denver. Mr. Nichols was one of the most popular officials the Union Pacific has ever had, and the employes who worked under him have always a kind word to say of the treatment he accorded them. Mr. Nichols came here to attend the funeral of L. O. Farrington, who was a valued friend in the early days of railroading on the Union Pacific and he was an honorary pall bearer at the funeral.
