Funeral of L. O. Farrington.

The funeral of the late Luther O. Farrington was held yesterday afternoon from the Episcopal church in the presence of an audience that more than filled the seating capacity of the building. The casket was banked with very handsome floral designs. The honorary pall bearers were P. J. Nichols of Boulder, J. J. Sullivan of Omaha, L. W. Rollins, John Lambert and Dick Sharp of Grand Island and Thos Reid of Cheyenne.

The pall bearers were P. A. Norton, M. F. Hosler, Frank Doran, Thos. Orton, W. W. Watkins and J. W. Fitzpatrick.

The vested choir preceded the funeral cortege up the aisle singing a funeral hymn, and also rendered a hymn during the service and a recessional. The service conducted by Rev. Chapman included a sermon to the living in which they were urged to be prepared to enter the mansions beyond, and in the delivery of which many railroad terms were used as similes. At the close of the sermon Mrs. Lawrence Wernert, of Kearney sang "Some Sweet Day, By and By" in a very sweet and sympathetic manner.

Members of Div. 88, B. of L. E., and of Bradford Div. 200, G. I. A., attended in a body.

And thus was concluded the earthly career of a man who was extremely popular with his fellow workmen, a good citizen, an indulgent husband; a man who had many good deeds to his credit.

Sparring Exhibition on Fourth.

After considerable negotiation Manager Kubik of the opera house has signed Jimmy Clabby, of Milwaukee, for a fifteen round sparring exhibition with Jack Fitzgerald, of South Omaha, for the night of July 4th. Both men will weigh in at 145 pounds on the night of the contest. Clabby has a ring record as long as a yardstick and is said to be very foxy and shifty with the mitts, but a clean fighter. Fitzgerald has been seen in the local ring on several occasions and is much admired by local people for his clean sparring and his desire to give the spectators the worth of their money.

The Timmerman Banquet.

The banquet at the Hotel Timmerman, under the auspices of the Commercial club, which was postponed on account of hotel not being in readiness will be held next Tuesday evening. While the sale of tickets has not been as large as was anticipated, more than fifty representative business and professional men and their ladies will surround the festive board at the appointed time.

The object of the banquet is in the nature of a testimonial of appreciation to Mr. Timmerman in erecting a hotel, the appointments of which are second to none in the smaller cities of the state—in fact the house throughout is furnished in the most modern manner, inviting and attractive in every detail. The men who are thus attesting their appreciation of Mr. Timmerman's enterprise realize that there had been a cry for greater hotel accommodations, and now that the demand has been supplied by him, they believe that a banquet is a fitting tribute to the man who had sufficient faith in the present and future of the town to invest forty or more thousand dollars in a hotel.

Byron's Troubadours Tonight.

The Byron's Troubadours will appear at the opera house this evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The program, which consists of twenty numbers, includes selections on the piano, harp, saxophone violin, cornet, and cello and vocal solos, the whole forming a splendid evening of music. The Troubadours come very highly recommended by Chautauqua managers, the press and the clergy.
