Those not holding season tickets will be charged an admission of fifty cents to hear the lecture by United States Senator Cummings at the Chautauqua grounds next Wednesday.

J. H. McGinley, of Ogalalla, one time a North Platte resident, has filed as a democratic candidate for state treasurer. "Jim" will probably receive quite a number of votes in this county.

The case against George Stryker, filed in the district court of York county, was dismissed without coming to trial, the prosecution becoming convinced that the evidence would not sustain the charge.

Bradford division No. 200, auxiliary to the Engineers, will hold a 10 cent social Saturday evening from 7 to 9 on W. S. Dolson's lawn, 309 West 6th St. Summer refreshments will be served. Everybody invited.

Up to noon yesterday only about 275 Chautauqua season tickets had been sold, which is less than half the committee had hoped to dispose of, especially when 400 were subscribed for at the close of the Chautauqua last year.

Attention Ladies—All wash suits and street dresses at one-third less than regular price. The Hub Clothing Dept.

J. E. Edwards, formerly of this city has returned to Ridgway, Col., as master mechanic of the Rio Grande Southern. "Jim" left Ridgway a couple of years ago and going to California purchased a walnut grove, but seems to have gotten "cold feet" on that proposition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tramp entertained twenty-four young men and ladies Wednesday evening in favor of the Misses Boeck of Grand Island who were their guests. Progressive high five was the entertaining feature, first prizes being awarded to Miss Emma Boeck and Max VonGoetz and the consolation emblems to Miss Hazel Minshall and Harold Duke. Seasonable refreshments were served.

Children's and Misses tub dresses at one-fourth less than regular price at the Hub Clothing Dept.

Lou J. Beauchamp, who appears Sunday afternoon as the opening number of the Chautauqua course, was stolen by the Indians when but a mere babe in Minnesota. He remained with the tribe for eighteen years, getting his primary education at an Indian school. Later he accepted a position on the Cincinnati Enquirer and later became editor-in-chief. The subject of his lecture—which he has delivered 1500 times—is "The Sunny Side of Life," and is said to be extremely witty as well as pathetic.

TEMPLE REAL ESTATE & INS. AGENCY. C. F. TEMPLE, Mgr.

Mrs. H. C. Brock entertained seven young ladies at an enjoyable four course supper Tuesday, complimentary to her sister, Miss Lulu Groff. The table was profusely decorated in summer flowers and a large plenteau covered with sweet peas formed a centerpiece. On the place cards were verses describing the appearance of each young lady and by these the guests found their places.

Mrs. C. F. Chapman was hostess at a prettily appointed five o'clock tea Wednesday which was given in favor of her sister, Miss Matilda Garlick. Covers were laid for fourteen, the guests finding their places by unique place cards on which were adjectives describing flowers representing the initials of the occupant. The table decorations were carried out in white and green, a large hanging basket filled with bunches of white sweet peas tied with green chiffon suspended by ropes of smilax from the chandelier was used as a centerpiece and numerous candles added to the pretty effect. At the close Miss Garlick presented each guest with a bunch of sweet peas from the basket.

We have a few light weight ladies' woolen suits to close out at just one-half regular price. They are a snap. Act quick before they are picked over. HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

The Grand Island Independent of yesterday gives the particulars of the accident which caused the death of Lawrence Grady and Clarence VanValzer in that city Monday evening. These two boys were assisting in removing goods from the building occupied by the Nebraska Mercantile Co. which burned a couple of weeks ago, and were on the sidewalk removing goods as they were slid down a chute from the second and third floors. A wind and rain storm came up and just as the boys were getting ready to seek shelter the walls toppled over and battered them to the pavement, badly mangling their bodies, so much so that they were scarcely recognizable.

May Re-District County.

Acquiescing to a demand that has been made from all parts of the county for several years, the county commissioners now have under consideration the re-districting of the county into commissioner districts. As at present proposed the plan is to have District No. 1 composed of North Platte city and Osgood, Miller and Hinman precincts; District No. 2 will consist of that territory east of North Platte from the north to the south lines of the county, and District No. 3 will be that portion of the county west of Hinman from the north and south lines. These north and south lines will jog so as to take in the territory south of Osgood and Miller. In this arrangement the dividing lines between the districts will run north and south instead of east and west as at present, and it is believed that the division on these lines will prove more satisfactory.

The Hub

extends a cordial welcome to all Chautauqua visitors and all teachers. Come in and make yourselves at home. The stock of merchandise we carry will command your attention, while at this time we have many lots to close out at greatly reduced prices in dry goods, notions, shoes, millinery, ladies' wool and wash suits, children and misses' wash dresses, carpets, matting, rugs of all sizes and quality, men and boys' clothing and furnishings, trunks and valises. Remember this, that we do not mark up goods and then come down one-fourth or one-third, but we give you all reduction from regular prices. Yours for Business,

THE HUB.

Run Down by Automobile.

The first automobile accident in North Platte occurred last evening about 9:00 when Roland Ginn, riding a bicycle, and a car driven by W. H. McDonald collided. Roland suffered a fracture of a wrist, a badly bruised hip, and other contusions of the body. The accident happened near the corner of Fourth and Willow and the injured boy was carried into Mrs. Church's residence, Dr. Dent summoned and later he was conveyed home. Mrs. Ginn is out of town, having left for Missouri yesterday afternoon.

Apparently no censure is due Mr. McDonald. He was running his car slowly and Roland attempted to pass in front of him and failed to clear, the fender of the far side striking his wheel and throwing him away from the car.

Bratt & Goodman have harvested twenty-two acres of wheat on their land north of the river which they think will yield about 25 bushels per acre.

Weather forecast: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Maximum temperature yesterday was 97; one year ago 80. The minimum temperature yesterday 57; one year ago 52.

Mrs. H. J. Roth and two children, Miss Helen and Harry returned to Cheyenne Wednesday night after several days visit with relatives in the city. They will leave the first of the week for Grand Junction where they will remain the rest of the summer.

Patton-Zauler Wedding.

About fifty relatives and friends gathered at the Alvin Zauler home seventeen miles southwest of town Wednesday to attend the wedding of Thos. W. Patton and Miss Nellie Zauler. At the hour of six o'clock to a wedding march played by Miss Edith Wendeborn the couple, attended by Alfred Leth and Miss Jennie Zauler, appeared in the parlor and Rev. C. B. Harman, in the simple but impressive ring service of the Lutheran church, pronounced them man and wife. The bride was gowned in white china silk and wore a veil. After the ceremony a splendid supper was served, and the evening was spent in the usual merriments.

Mr. and Mrs. Patton expect to spend a few days here and then leave for their new home near Alliance. The bride is well and favorably known in and about North Platte, having with her parents spent a number of years in the home in which the wedding took place. The groom is an upright young man with a promising future. Best wishes of friends and neighbors follow them.
