Out at the Scout's Rest Ranch 425 acres of oats is being harvested, which Mr. Garlow says, owing to the dry weather, will yield about half a crop—twenty or twenty-five bushels to acre. This land was put in oats in order to get it in shape for seeding to alfalfa. Mr. Garlow's dream is to have at least 1,000 acres of alfalfa on the ranch—and the dream will come true.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to extend our thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly tendered their great assistance and consoling sympathy in the hours of the death and burial of our beloved son Lawrence, and for the many beautiful floral tributes.

ORDER OF HEARING ON PROBATE OF
FOR THE ESTATE OF WILLIAM
State of Nebraska, Lincoln County, ss.
In the county court, July 14th, 1910.
In the matter of the estate of Thomas J. Davies, deceased.
On reading and filing the petition of E. H. Evans, praying that the instrument filed on the 14th day of July, 1910, and purporting to be an authenticated copy of the last will and testament of the said deceased may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded in the county court, and that the executor of said last will and testament of the said Thomas J. Davies, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be committed and the administration of said estate may be granted to said Thomas J. Davies, deceased, and the executor of said estate, I therefore appoint Tuesday, the 9th day of August, 1910, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, at the county court in said county, as the time and place for hearing all concerned may appear and contest the allowing of the same.
It is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate of the pendency of this petition and the time and place set for the hearing of the same by causing a copy of this order to be published in the North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune, a newspaper printed and published in said county, for six successive issues previous to the day set for hearing.
In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal this 16th day of July, 1910.
W. C. ELDER, County Judge.

ORDER OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL.
State of Nebraska, Lincoln County, ss.
