J. P. Norton has been visiting relatives at Iowa for a week past. He will return about August 1st accompanied by his wife and child, who had preceded him to Davenport.

Mrs. Mark Atchinson will entertain the Pan Hell Club tomorrow afternoon with the Misses Brown as guests of honor. This club is composed of the members of several Greek letter sororities and numbers about twelve.

Julius Pizer, whose health is anything but good, left Saturday night for Colfax Springs, Iowa, where he will take treatment for rheumatism. His stay there will be indefinite. He was accompanied as far as Omaha by his nephew.

It is said that Maxwell is to have a newspaper, the business men having made a guarantee of 400 subscribers and a liberal amount of advertising. Maxwell is a hustling village and a newspaper will tend to give it greater prominence.

"Wanted a crew of men who will contract to cut, bale from the winrow and haul to the car, one half the hay produced on the Lamplugh Ranch, estimated at 125 tons. Will pay a good price for labor performed, providing parties can commence immediately. M. C. Harrington, 1620 19th St. Denver, Colorado."

In honor of her sixth birthday, Miss Harriet Fowler entertained thirty-five of her little friends in a very enjoyable manner Friday afternoon. The little tots spent several hours playing games and at five o'clock partook of a dainty lunch. The young hostess was presented with numerous useful and pretty gifts by her friends who departed wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Lost, Sunday on road between Wyman's and town, a man's coat, gray mixture, with spectacle case in left hand pocket and some letters. Return to this office and receive reasonable reward.

In some parts of the county—especially where the soil is light—corn is standing the dry weather wonderfully well and is not as yet injured, while in other sections considerable damage has already resulted and rain must fall in a few days in order to make a partial crop. Another serious proposition with a good many farmers and stockmen is that of hay, which is extremely short outside the valley.

Monarch Malleable Ranges—best on the market—at Hershey's.

The two months old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Abernathy of the Third Ward died Friday morning after an illness of several weeks. Death was due to scarlet fever which assumed an aggravated form and the best of care and medical skill proved of no avail in sustaining life in the frail young body. The parents have the sympathy of their many friends in the loss of their little one. Funeral services were held from the residences Saturday afternoon and the remains interred in the North Platte cemetery.

Deficit Decreased.

Just at this time the exact financial condition of the recent Chautauqua assembly is not known, but it is believed that there will be a small deficit—somewhere between two and five hundred dollars. This will necessitate a small assessment on the owners of the 120 shares of stock. Last year there was a deficit of about eleven hundred dollars, which the shareholders promptly and cheerfully paid. It was hoped that this year the receipts would meet the expenditures, but while this has not proven true, the deficit as compared with last year has been more than cut in two, and with the growing interest manifested in the Chautauqua there is every reason to believe that next year the financial showing will be as much better compared with the 1910 showing as 1910 was with 1909.

That the people of North Platte desire a Chautauqua next year was shown by the expression given at the tent Sunday night when the larger number of men present and many of the ladies stood when asked if the Chautauqua should be held next year. The general feeling is that the Chautauqua has proven of great benefit to the people of North Platte in the way of education and entertainment and that it should be made permanent.

The Chautauqua Closes.

The second assembly of the North Platte Chautauqua association closed Sunday evening with a concert by the Dunbars, one of the best musical organizations that North Platte people have had the pleasure of hearing. Not only were the selections by the male quartette splendid, but the bell ringing was fine and the selections by the celloist, pianist and flutist and the readings by Mrs. Dunbar were much appreciated.

Two of the best lectures on the program were delivered Friday. In the afternoon President Merica, of the Wyoming university, spoke on the "Boy Who Goes Wrong," in which he suggested a number of reasons why boys travel a different path from which they should, and in closing made a strong plea for the boy who in many ways suffers from parental neglect. In the evening Prof. McMurray gave a lecture on Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, in which he brought out living examples of Stevenson's imaginary story. The lecture was a most interesting one.

Saturday afternoon Thos. B. Fletcher delivered a lecture on "The Myrtardom of Fools," and in the evening Bill Bone recited a number of his poems, interspersing them with considerable witticism. Sunday afternoon Mr. Fletcher delivered his lecture on "Judas Iscariot," applying the name to those today who betray their trust. This lecture was a most forceful one, perhaps a little too radical, and served to awaken the people to their duty along certain reformations.

Miss Fenna Beeler was hostess Saturday afternoon at a reception which was given to meet the Misses Lucile and June Brown of Kearney. The hours were from three to five and during that time about sixty young ladies called. In the receiving line were the Medames Beeler, Scott and Temple and Misses Beeler and Brown. These ladies received the guests in the entrance hall while Miss Alice Wilcox met them in the large parlors. In the dining room where a buffet luncheon was served, Miss Nell Bratt and Mrs. Mark Atchinson presided at the tables and they were assisted by the Misses Virginia Bullard, Fern Hamilton and Myrtle Beeler. Miss Esther Antonides rendered several vocal selections in a very creditable manner. The house was profusely decorated in summer flowers and the affair proved very pleasant throughout.

Did you get one of our hand bags last week at half price? If you did not we are sorry, but this week we are offering you an equally good proposition on Fountain Pens. See them in our show windows.

Automobile Struck by Train.

Struck by a speeding passenger train was the experience of E. Van Natta while starting to cross the Locust street crossing in his automobile Saturday evening. He was coming from Dickey's with a five gallon can of ice cream on the fender of the car and was running at low rate of speed. Not hearing a sound of a whistle or bell ringing and worst of all, not a flagman in sight, Mr. VanNatta started across thinking his way was clear but too late to stop his car when No. 4 east bound struck him tearing away the back part of the car and cutting off the back seat as slick as a whistle. If the flagman had been at his post this accident would not have happened. It is a miracle that Mr. VanNatta escaped with his life. Mr. Eves' son was in the front seat with VanNatta and they were both frightened almost speechless. The automobile is a total wreck.

Car Turns Turtle.

While making a quick turn on the road west of town Friday night the car driven by Minor Hinman, with whom J. B. McDonald and Dave Day were riding, a front wheel was twisted off and the car turned turtle. Hinman and McDonald who were riding in the front seat were thrown under the car, while Day took an aerial flight of twenty feet and landed in the sand. The latter was considerably jarred, but not so much so as to render him unable to extricate his companions from underneath the car. Hinman sustained severe bruises and gashes, and McDonald suffered a badly sprained ankle and numerous bruises and cuts on the face and body. He will probably be confined to the house for a couple of weeks.

The car was being driven at a rather rapid pace, and the boys may consider themselves lucky that their injuries were not even more serious. Other than the twisting off of the wheel and a breakage of the steering gear, the car was not damaged.

Young Girl Dies.

Lucy, the twenty year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Boldeck, died about 8:30 Saturday morning after an illness extending over but a few days.

Death was due to weakening of the blood and though she has been failing for several months, her condition was not considered serious. Friday afternoon she was taken much worse and medical assistance was called but the case was of too long standing and after a night of intense suffering the spirit took flight the next morning.

Miss Boldeck has made her home in this city for only a short time, coming here from Stanberg Missouri about a year or more ago, and for the past two seasons had been employed in the Huffman millinery store. Of a quiet and retiring disposition she was practically unknown save by those with whom she came in daily contact. She was a young lady of strong character, true to her friends and a loving sister and daughter in the home where she will be sadly missed.

Besides the parents, there are left two sisters and two brothers to mourn the departure of one who was called at the time when life seems sweetest. Funeral services were held from the Christian church yesterday afternoon at two o'clock and interment made in the North Platte cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mudd, of Hershey, were visitors in town Saturday.

H. M. WELLS.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election for representative of the 54th district subject to the approval of the republicans at the August 16th primaries.

I have no extended platform, but agree if elected to work for the passage of good progressive legislation and for the best interests of the district and state. As this is census year the next session will be the proper time to redistrict the state and I consider it very important that this be done and that the west gets proper representation. Respectfully submitted, B. K. BUSHEE.

There are in force July 1, 1910, 61,008 shares of stock, which when matured will have a total value of $6,100,800.00.

The first half of the year 1910 has passed and it shows the largest growth in the volume of business and assets that the Association has ever enjoyed for a corresponding period of time.

The Nebraska Central affords an unusual opportunity for investment, both of large amounts upon which the dividends are paid in cash January and July of each year, thus providing an income, regular, safe and substantial; and for small amounts paid at stated periods, thus cultivating the habit of systematic savings.

It also affords a splendid opportunity to acquire a home, by making regular payments thereon on the installment, monthly plan until the home is paid for.

This is a matter in which every member of the family is interested, and greatly encourages home owning.
