

VALUES THAT TELL.

There is no value that tells as much as watch values. You can buy a watch at most any old price you want to pay. A cheap watch may be all right for a boy or a youngster, but when it comes to buying a watch for a "grown up" see that value is there. A watch may have a solid gold case set with diamonds and yet not be a good watch. Its the works that count. A well made watch will keep just as good time in a filled case as in any other kind.

We show a full line of watches in all styles or sizes and at all prices. Included in our assortment you will find Ball Watches,
Elgin Watches,
Waltham Watches,
Hamilton Watches, Etc.
Each one will be found to be "utmost" in watch value.

Forecast for North Platte and vicinity. Partly cloudy and cooler tonight. The maximum temperature yesterday was 86; one year ago 96. The minimum temperature today is 67; one year ago 64.

The Platte river is perfectly dry as far as the eye can see. The sand has become dry and it is continually shifting about and in a strong wind blows for a mile or more in a dense cloud.—Kearney Hub.

Dispatcher Anderson of the Union Pacific in making a conservative estimate of the damage done from dry weather made the following statement: From North Platte to Cozad the damage to corn in the valleys up to today is 20 per cent and on the table lands in this district from 50 to 60 per cent. From Cozad to Grand Island the corn crop is damaged in the valleys 15 per cent and in the uplands from 40 to 50 per cent. North of Grand Island the crops are in better shape and the damage is not over 15 per cent and on the Kearney and Callaway branch from 20 to 25 per cent. Pastures are dried up over the entire district. No more than a half a crop of hay is left and this cutting of alfalfa will be short.—Grand Island Independent.

Baptist Meeting.

The best meeting ever held in the North Platte Baptist Association just closed last night. The session begun Tuesday evening with an introductory sermon by Rev. A. M. Horan of Maxwell. Wednesday morning was given up to the business of the Association. Letters and reports were presented from all the churches. Heretofore all have not been represented. There have been but nine churches in this district. One new church in Kimball county was present and was received into membership. The sessions Wednesday afternoon and after were given to addresses, conferences and sermons, coming to a climax Thursday night with a strong sermon by Dr. L. A. Garrison of Grand Island College.

The new officers elected were Rev. Geo. F. Starring, of Farnam, Moderator, Rev. A. M. Horan, vice Moderator, Mrs. J. L. Loudon of this city clerk and treasurer, and R. B. Favoright, member of the Board of the State convention.

Among the thirty delegates and visitors present were such strong men of the State as Rev. Wilson Mills D. D., Dr. L. A. Garrison, Prof. J. A. Baber Ph. D. and Rev. C. B. Stephens of Kearney. Some left last night and the remainder left this morning.

Presbyterian Church.

The pastor will be in his pulpit for both services Sunday. The announcement to the contrary was an error. The morning topic will be: Jesus and the State, and will deal with moral questions vitally at issue in Nebraska at this time. Men interested in the moral progress of our state are urged to be present. The pastor and family will be absent through August.

W. J. Bryan issued a statement yesterday calling on the voters of both parties to nominate for candidates for the legislature only those who are pledged to county option and the initiative and referendum. County option, he said, should not enter into the congressional or senatorial fight, nor cut any figure on the nomination and election of state officers, except the governor. It is the belief of Mr. Bryan, as expressed in his statement, that a governor will be elected who is either for county option or pledged to sign a bill. He does not designate the politics of the candidate he believes will be elected.
