In California the republican candidates for United States senator are A. Mr. Bryan is fighting for county option now on exactly the same lines as the anti-saloon league, says the Lincoln Journal. The idea is to support the men at the primaries who agree to vote for a county option bill. After the primaries the anti-saloon people will support the men who are for county option, regardless of party. Mr. Bryan can hardly be expected to go so far. It will be a cold day when he can fairly be called a bolter from the democratic party. Anything but that.

During the past five years over thirtyfive million dollars have been stolen by officials and trusted employes from banks and trust companies. Some of these thefts have been for over a million dollars each. It would seem that the banks losing such large sums are loose in their system of management, else the thieves would have been detected before their pilferings reached so large a sum. So common have these thefts become that the national bankers' association which meets in Los Angeles in October will take steps to establish safe gaurds about banks which will prevent this looting.

More democrats went away from Grand Island on the swearing trains than usual, but the real cursing over the convention is being done by the fellows who stayed at home. They are open and above board in their declaration that the platform is nothing to them and that they will vote for county option candidates regardless of party. There is some republican sourness in wet counties but it is apparently mild when compared with the democratic trouble. The republicans have no personal bitterness to complicate matters while the democrats have more family rows on hand than they can settle in the next six months. -State Journal.

CONGRESSMAN KINKAID

To My Esteemed Constituents: Upon the advice of many voters, I have become a candidate for a renomination for Congress by the primary election to be held August 16. During the present Congress I have Roosevelt, when President, adopted and promoted by President Taft, as svidenced by the excellent measures enacted at the recent session. In re vising the tariff, I strived to have lumber and barbed wire placed upon the free list, and voted on separate schedules for revision downward generally, but after the bill had been In the Senate and in conference, it had to be voted upon as an entirety, with the alternative to pass it or de feat it and leave in operation the old A majority, including democrats with republicans, prevented a greater reduction of the rates.
