

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, AUGUST 9, 1910.

NO 57

COMING TO NORTH PLATTE!

THE NATIONAL AMUSEMENT CO.,

The Cleanest Show on Earth.

AUGUST 15th to 20th INCLUSIVE,

Presenting the Mighty Monarch of Famous Midway Shows, giving a Direct Reproduction of the Chicago World's Fair Midway. The one Great Show for Ladies and Children.

THE AERIAL WRIGHTS
In a Clever Trapesse Performance
Free Twice Daily.

BRISTOL'S BIG ANIMAL SHOW
Over One Hundred Animals and Birds.

THE FLYING JORDANS
Roman Ring Artists
Free Twice Daily.

All Shows are Clean and Worthy of Patronage.

THE MALAY PRINCE
A Show from the Old World but Truly the Wonder of the 20th Century.

Wilson's Reptile Show.
Reptiles from All Around the World.

PRINCESS DIXIE,
The Smallest Horse in the World.

FREE BAND CONCERTS ON THE MIDWAY
Afternoon and Night.

These Concerts are certain to Prove Enjoyable to All.

BIG BANJO
The Largest Bovine in All the World.
Comes from Boston. The Largest you ever saw

Big Merry Go Round

Big Ferris Wheel

Herd of Shetland Ponies

An up-to-date, something-doing-every-minute show, attractions that are worth your time and money and worth seeing.

Will Positively Exhibit Here August 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20.

Show Grounds South End of Dewey Street.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

The Indian Card Club will be entertained by Mrs. Jos. Stone Wednesday afternoon.

The Ladies Guild will hold a Gypsy Encampment on the rectory lawn Friday evening, August 12th. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Felix Simons has returned from St. Paul and points in Wisconsin where she had been visiting relatives for the past two months.

E. R. Neel spent Sunday at the home of J. N. Bonner, returning to Hershey yesterday morning at which place he is making repairs on the elevator.

For rent at once seven room house, modern, furnished or unfurnished, 1001 West 5th street or phone 297.

Mark Leonard, of Keystone, spent last evening in town with his brother Jas. N. Leonard and family while enroute to Omaha with a car of cattle.

Chas. Grindel, who played ball on the local team several years ago, visited friends in town yesterday. Mr. Grindel is now located at Davenport, Iowa.

A son was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McEvoy, former residents of this city, but now living at Ogalalla where Mr. McEvoy is working at the carpenter trade.

Arthur Boyd, clerk in the Wilcox store, has been off duty for several days as a result of being struck in the ribs by a ball during a game at the Masonic picnic last Wednesday.

For the next ten days we will sell a few choice hammocks we have in stock at a discount of ten per cent.

RINCKER'S BOOK STORE.

Miss Marie Hoagland entertained about twenty-five of her young friends at a birthday party Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games and a dainty lunch was served at five o'clock. The afternoon proved a very enjoyable one for the little folks.

Hermam Johnson, living north of the river, left Sunday for a ten day's visit at Littleton, and other points in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Buchanan returned Saturday from their wedding trip to Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake and other western points. They are at home to their friends at 523 West Sixth street.

F. L. Mooney has let the contract to the Picard Bros. for the erection of a residence on the lot he recently purchased on west Fourth street. Including the heating plant the house will cost upwards of $4,000.

E. T. Casey and son Ernest will leave today for Portland to join Mrs. Casey and daughter Grace who have been visiting relatives there for a month. They will visit Los Angeles and other points in California with the view of making their home in that state.

Inclement weather Friday evening necessitated holding the social of the Cross Country Club at the Y. M. C. A. rooms instead of on the Langford lawn. The attendance was large, the receipts amounting to about twenty dollars. The evening was enlivened with piano selections by Miss Josie O'Hare.

For Sale—A baby buggy in excellent condition. Will sell cheap. Inquire at 393 West Fourth street.

The light rains which have fallen the past week have greatly freshened vegetation. Pastures have started anew, the hay crop has been increased to some extent and growing corn, especially the late corn, has been greatly benefited. With continued rains throughout the growing season the crop result in Lincoln county will not be nearly so bad as expected ten days ago.

Dick Rivets, former general car inspector on the Union Pacific system, was in town yesterday morning enroute east to accept a similar position with the Illinois Central. Since severing his connection with the Union Pacific six or eight months ago Mr. Rivets has been spending his time on his fruit farm in California.

C. W. Baskin returned Saturday from a six weeks' visit at Lewisburg and other points in Pennsylvania. Mr. Baskin says business conditions in that section of the country are good and seem to be improving all the time. Mrs. Baskin and children will continue their visit in that state for some time.

County Commissioner Springer and County Assessor Bacon were called to Lincoln Sunday night by the state board of equalization to discuss the matter of the assessment of bank stock in Lincoln county. The state board is of the opinion that the assessment of this class of securities is too low.

W. D. Lee, of Broadwater, spent yesterday in town, coming here to meet his old friend J. C. Dahman. Mr. Lee "punched" cattle with Colonel Jim in the early 80's and both men worked together in driving cattle from Texas to Nebraska and Dakota in the days when cowboys were considered "bad men."

Dr. Allman, representing the National Amusement Co., spent the latter part of last week in town making preliminary arrangements for the carnival which his company will put on here for a week beginning next Monday and which will be located at the south end of Dewey street. This company is a Nebraska organization and has been playing towns in the east part of the state for eight years.

The month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Wilson died early Sunday morning from an inward hemorrhage. The child was apparently in good health Saturday night but was found dead by the parents Sunday morning. A doctor was summoned but life had been extinct for several hours. Funeral services were held from the family residence yesterday morning and interment held in the North Platte cemetery.

On July fourth twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and in that time the little ones, seemingly very healthy, became doubly dear to the parents, who have the sympathy of all in the loss of their loved one.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Edith Murphy, of Kearney, is spending this week with friends in town.

Mrs. Warren Kelley returned Saturday from a visit with her parents in Sutherland.

Miss Eileen Flynn returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends in Denver and Cheyenne.

Miss Maud Owens will leave for Ogden Wednesday night where she will visit relatives for ten days.

Mrs. F. H. Thompson and son Hilmer went to Denver Friday for a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Pearl Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Hughes, of the Third Ward is seriously ill.

Misses Francis and Hazel Nichols and Anna Steinhausen spent Sunday at the Burkland home in Sutherland.

Miss Julia McGovern returned to her home in Denver today after two weeks' visit with friends in town.

Mrs. Dave Brown went to Northport where she will visit for a week or ten days with O. W. Brown and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Handley left Saturday night for a visit with relatives at Portland, Vancouver and other coast points.

Frank Distil and sister Miss Mary Distil went to Sidney Saturday for a visit with their sister, Mrs. Vaughn Hinman.

Mr. Depew, of Washington, is spending this week in town as the guest of his brother-in-law, D. J. Antonides and family.

Mrs. Westfall returned Friday afternoon to her home at Carroll, Iowa, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Walter F. Crook.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winn and daughter Adelaide returned to their home in Kearney today after a week's visit with friends in town.

Mrs. Ed Sluder and daughter Cora left Friday night for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Denver and Kansas City.

"Bob" Waldo, time-keeper at the shops, will leave in about ten days for Vermont.

Miss Doras O'Brien returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' visit in Omaha and Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boxal, of Denver, arrived Saturday morning for a month's visit with relatives in town.

Mrs. W. F. Cody and grandson Cody Boal who have been the guest of Col. Cody for the past two months, are expected home Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Newman, of Hanover, Kan., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Mooney, having arrived the latter part of last week.

Miss Loretta Murphy, who has been visiting in Chicago, will go to Creston, Iowa, this week, where she will be the guest of friends for five weeks.

W. M. Voss, of Council Bluffs, has accepted a position as night clerk at the Pacific hotel and assumed his new duties the latter part of last week.

E. W. Ziebert, the Sidney restaurateur, spent Saturday in town visiting old-time friends, of whom he has many in this city. "Joe" says he is doing a nice business in Sidney.

E. T. Tramp and son Herbert returned Saturday from a week's visit in Denver. Mrs. Tramp and son Arthur who accompanied them have gone to Great Falls, Mont., to spend a month with relatives.

Miss Nellie Workman who had been attending the summer session of the state normal at Kearney and after its close spent a week with her sister Jessie in Hastings, was in town Saturday evening enroute to her home in Julesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Atchison left Friday for a months visit at Cherokee Park, Colorado. During their absence Mr. Atchison's place as traveling salesman for Paxton & Callagher will be filled by his father, Dan Atchison of California who is spending some time here.

Dr. Kerr, is spending this week in at points in Iowa.

Chas. Poole, of Omaha, is visiting old time friends in town this week.

L. W. Walker has been transacting business in Omaha for a day or two past.

Master Sidney McFarland left yesterday for a week's visit with friends at Northport.

W. C. May, of Gothenburg, spent yesterday in town renewing acquaintance with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden leave tonight for Lincoln to attend the wedding of their son, which occurs tomorrow.

Carl Shaeffer returned Sunday from a week's visit in Omaha. While there he participated in the tennis tournament.

Mrs. L. L. Brown and two sons arrived from Ogden yesterday morning and will spend some time in town visiting friends.

Miss Jessie Cushing, of Omaha, left Sunday evening for Sidney after a week's visit with relatives and friends in town.

M. E. Scott, of Cuba, Ill., arrived Saturday evening for a visit with his wife and children, who have been guests at the Beeler residence for several weeks.

Robt. Cary returned from Chicago Saturday and will leave this week for Missoula to take up his work of physical director and coach at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Geo. B. Dent leaves Thursday for Michigan where she will be a member of a house party at one of the lake resorts in that state. She will be absent several weeks.

I. K. Neely, of LaSalle, Ill., spent the latter part of last week transacting business and visiting old time friends. Mr. Neely was a resident of North Platte for a number of years prior to 1889, for a time filling the position of timekeeper at the U. P. shops.