"The Three Twins," which will be presented at the Keith Thursday evening of this week is a musical comedy with a plot and many novel features, the conglomerate nonsense, the riot of color, and the spirited movements make such an agreeable attack on one's senses that it matters not under what name the revelry goes. The music titillates and tantalizes and the witty lines and adept clowning excites one to laughter. Mr. Gaites has so lavishly costumed the beautiful show girls that they are pleasing to the eye. In the second act there are eight of the hand-somest Parisian directoire gowns worn by beautiful and shapely girls. The electrical effects are marvelous, the faceograph being a distinct novelty, the electrical serial swing being an Amazon structure of steel, illuminated with over 2,000 lights, revolving at a rapid rate with six girls in the baskets singing "The Cuddle Song," said to be one of the most beautiful finales ever staged.

"Three Twins" will be the offering at the Keith Thursday evening, Oct. 6th. "Three Twins" contains more musical hits than any other musical comedy. "The Yama Yama Man" has been the most talked of musical novelty in many years and Mr. Ashton Stevens of New York Journal said it was the most titillating piece of stage business ever produced.

Ed. Bixler, formerly of this city, and wife had a rather thrilling experience one day last week while making a trip from New York City to Providence, R. I., in their fifty-foot launch. They encountered a rough sea which carried the boat many miles out of its course, and had it not been for the arrival another vessel they would have gone down. The launch had been in grasp of the storm for nine hours, and to make matters worse the engine of the boat broke down.

Chautauqua Finances.

The annual meeting of the Chautauqua Association was called for last Thursday evening but the attendance of stockholders was so small that transaction of business was not justified.

In a letter to the stockholders Secretary Tout states that the expenses of 1910 Chautauqua were $3,076 and the receipts $2,589, leaving a deficit of $487. This necessitated an assessment of twenty per cent on each $25 share stock. This assessment will, in most instances at least, be cheerfully paid, the stockholders believing that they can make no other donation that is so beneficial to the town and the people.

Langford Will Stump State.

The Lincoln Journal of Saturday contained this item, which will be of interest to North Platte people:

The republican state committee managers announce the securing of R. H. Langford for campaign purposes.

Mr. Langford illustrates his speeches with stereopticon pictures. He was employed in Indiana by the national committee two years ago and is highly regarded as a campaign speaker. He is a native of Nebraska and has lived here most of his life. Mr. Langford will give his services to the committee during the next month. He is a life long republican.

Reception to Teachers.

At the Presbyterian Church parlors Friday evening the ladies of the church tendered a reception to the teachers of the city schools and the members of the board of education. The hours were from 8 to 11 and the evening proved a very pleasant one for those present. The time was spent in social conversation and an enjoyable feature of the evening was an organ recital by Mrs. E. A. Cary. Light refreshment were served by the young ladies of the congregation. The parlors were very prettily decorated in autumn leaves and fall flowers.

CLOTHES are either a Force or a Farce, according to the way they are made. It's up to you whether you will wear garments which will give you a distinctive appearance or those which will make you look ordinary. "MILLER-MADE" CLOTHES are to-day what they always have been, Clothes of Force. They have a crisp, cownpelling style which the most critical man cannot but appreciate. They are so skillfully tailored that the most critical student of clothes cannot but be convinced of their goodness. They assure poise which cannot but generate a spirit of pride in the man who wears them.

They are not confined to a certain price or prices, nor are they styled to interest only one class of men. "MILER-MADE" CLOTHES are for every man who values value, and will pay no more and no less than value demands.
