Tells of Hostetter.

A. E. Yates, of Sutherland, was in town yesterday and left at this office a letter from Eli Miller, of Tremont, Ill., brother-in-law of Abe Hostetter, who was recently killed by a train at Sutherland. Mr. Miller expresses his gratitude to Mr. Yates and Undertaker Ginn for the interest and kindness shown, and says: "Hostetter and my brother left for Oregon. Hostetter was alright when leaving, but when they reached the high altitude Hostetter's mind became deranged to some extent, and he imagined that a mob was after him. After reaching Oregon he seemed to improve, but expressed a desire to return home. My brother gave him money to buy a ticket. Evidently in crossing the high altitude of the mountains his mind became affected. Hostetter was a man of excellent habits and a good carpenter."
