WHEREVER you happen to see a group of young fellows you are most certain to find them wearing clothes of rare style and individuality. We don't claim that these clothes are always of an exceptional quality but we do claim that young men affect certain features which older people don't. In "College Chap Clothes" we have been fortunate enough to find a quality which is not by any means expensive, and features which are strikingly young though not too young, for men who wish to retain their youthful appearance. The Normandie, The Norfolk, the College Chap and the College Chap Jr., are four styles of young men's garments. They are classed under the name of "College Chap Clothes." They are a branch of "Modern Clothes", made by Brandegee, Kincaid & Co., tailor shop at Utica.

Prices very reasonable for such high grade Clothing, $15, $18, $20.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. Geo. Schatz is spending this week with friends in Omaha, having left for that city Sunday night.

Following his sale of personal property on October 18th, John Gundrum will go to Omaha to receive medical treatment.

A girl baby was born Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rasmussen. Mother and daughter are reported to be doing nicely.

E. R. Smith and wife of Gandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Trotter of Brady, were in town Sunday, the respective parties making the trip in automobiles.

In a prairie fire at Maxwell Friday C. W. Horne lost his hay barn, a large tonnage of hay and a baler. The fire originated from a spark from a locomotive.

Mrs. J. Clabough pleasantly entertained twenty ladies at a Kensington Friday afternoon in favor of her mother, Mrs. Perdue. At five o'clock an enjoyable two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Martin Jung, of Palmer, Neb., visited relatives in town the latter part of last week and left Saturday morning for Hershey, expecting to spend a week or ten days with her mother who lives south of that place.

Down at Brady the other day a freight conductor was arrested and assessed a nominal fine for blocking a crossing with his train. In North Platte we experience similar inconveniences but no arrests are made.

J. W. Stone who recently came to this county from Pittsfield, Ill., locating at Sutherland and later purchased the Commercial Hotel in this city, has sold his farm in Illinois for $12,000. Three years ago he purchased the farm for $8,100. Mr. Stone and his family have decided to locate permanently in the west.

Mrs. S. Derryberry entertained at a Kensington Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. George Walker, who will leave for Denver this week where she will make her future home. Twenty-two ladies were her guests and the afternoon was devoted to needlework, at the close of which seasonable refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. C. Elder went to Omaha Sunday where she will consult Dr. Gifford in regard to her eyes. A nervous shock recently affected the optical nerves partially destroying her sight and she was advised by local physicians to go to Omaha for treatment. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Lillian Gleason.

What might have proved a most serious accident occurred Friday afternoon when the fourteen-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Silbeth, who live on West Second street, got hold of a bottle of gasoline and before the child was noticed had drank a large quantity of the liquid. Dr. Quigley was immediately called and the child at present is out of danger.

The number of freight crews running west out of this terminal is said to be larger this fall than during any previous period in the history of the road. District Foreman Beery has a strenuous time furnishing sufficient motive power but so far he has met the requirements.

On Saturday and Sunday afternoon the fire department were called out but when arriving on the scene the blaze proved to be but a trifling. Saturday afternoon the prairie north of the ice houses caught fire from a passenger engine, and Sunday a pile of rubbish was discovered burning in the rear of the electric light plant. Both were quickly extinguished and no damage resulted.

The football game played on the home field last Friday afternoon between the high school and a local team of pick-ups, resulted in a score of 5 to 0 in favor of the high school. The new rules somewhat handicapped the players and errors were numerous. The touchdown was made by Will Votaw in the first half and though the All Stars were within five yards of the high school goal they lost the ball on downs and were unable to regain before time was called. The playing throughout was very good on the part of both sides and the work equally good. The next game will be played on Friday afternoon of this week between the local high school and the K. A. M. at Kearney.

On Friday evening of last week a mass meeting of the taxpayers of the Third Ward was held for the purpose of seeking relief from the condition in which the Locust street crossing is kept. At various times the crossing is kept blocked for a considerable space of time. Engines crossing the footpaths without rear end lights and often no warning given are common occurrences. Carelessness on the part of employees often leave the path entirely obstructed by cars or an engine. These matters have been reported and always responded to by promises which were not kept. A committee composed of W. E. Shuman, Wm. Yost and E. A. Cary with E. A. Cary as chairman, was appointed to confer with the company in regard to this matter. If no satisfactory arrangement can or will be made immediately, the subject will be brought before the state commissioners.

Chancellor A. M. Colaneri, of the diocese of Omaha in a statement to the Omaha Bee announced the transfer of Rev. Carroll, of St. Patrick's parish of this city, to the St. James Orphanage, at Benson, Neb., a suburb of Omaha. Father Carroll was stationed at the orphanage previous to his coming to this city about eight years ago. Rev. Patrick M'Daid the assistant at Grand Island will be stationed at North Platte temporarily. During his stay in this city Father Carroll has made remarkable changes both in the financial and spiritual condition of his parish and in regard to his untiring efforts that the parochial school, which had been disbanded, was reestablished. His removal from this city is regretted but in leaving he carries with him the best wishes of all for success in his new field of labor.

Investigate Typhoid Conditions.

Dr. W. H. Wilson, state health inspector, spent Friday in town and with City Physician Quigley made an investigation of the typhoid conditions in town. They rendered the following report:

An investigation of the typhoid condition in North Platte shows that six cases have developed here and they have all been in places where water from surface wells was used and where open closets were found on the premises. No cases of typhoid were found developing in homes that had closets connected with the sewer and where city water was used. There is no epidemic of typhoid in North Platte. There are not as many cases as there was at this time last year but according to the number of deaths reported from this disease it has assumed a very much more virulent form. This may be due in part to cultivation of the germs in the surface soil. The investigation showed that the discharges from the kidneys and bowels of persons suffering from typhoid have in a great many instances been buried in the surface soil, sometimes near wells, and in gardens where people were taking vegetables for food. This manner of depositing of sewage is unsanitary as it perpetuates the disease in the soil and it is washed by rains into wells and blown by the wind with the dust into homes. In these cases mentioned carbolic acid was being mixed with the sewerage but in such small quantities as to be useless for the purpose intended.

The cause of typhoid in North Platte may be summed up in three words; filth, flies, and wells. The first includes open closets and manure piles. This source of danger may be eliminated by the city forcing sewer connections whenever possible and allowing no open manure piles. The second factor, the flies, carry the germs from the filth to the food. Getting rid of the filth will eliminate them. The third mentioned source of danger, the wells, should never be considered safe at any time as the surface water without doubt always carries disease. If a person must use surface water the water should be boiled, but it is recommended that no water be used from any well less than 200 feet.

Discharges from patients sick with typhoid should be mixed with one-part carbolic acid and emptied in sewer. If no sewer connection exists then they should be mixed as above and buried at least six feet deep covering each deposit with chloride of lime and keeping the hole covered, filling up when the patient has ceased to have the disease. Inspection made by

DR. W. H. WILSON, State Health Inspector,
DR. D. T. QUIGLEY, City Physician, North Platte.

Work Continues With Success.

The meetings now in progress at the Baptist Church are of the very best type of christian work. The stamp and impress of the work will continue with the church for years. In fact the whole future of the church will feel the influence.

Last Sunday the crowds gathered and the conviction deepened above anything thus far in the meetings. Chaplain White was at his best. In the morning he lifted the christian people near the throne and encouraged all by his convincing way of presenting "The Mother Love of God."

At night the house full of people was moved mightily by the message of the hour. While that may not have been the supreme effort of the Doctor, yet it surpassed any thing yet given by him in North Platte, even among all the notable sermons and addresses. The effort was not in vain though there were very few non-christians present. One woman came forward acknowledging her Lord and Master. Two other women united with the church. Thus the number of additions, say nothing of the many who move on various propositions, is increasing steadily as the meetings progress.

Day meetings at 10 a. m. and night services at 7:45 may be expected until further notice. The next meeting in which the Chaplain is to engage at Cherokee, Iowa, begins tomorrow night, but the Chaplain is willing to stay awhile if necessary.

Theatrical attractions at the Keith are rather "slow" for this month. "The Ranchman" was booked for next Monday evening but at this time it is not certain that the show will reach here. Yesterday Manager Stamp was asked for a date for the Jeffers-Johnson prize fight pictures, and they will be presented soon. Other than the above nothing is booked until the 21st when "Dan Cupid" will be the attraction. Blanche Walsh will be here November 2nd. The name of the play in which she is to appear is not yet known.
