TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1910.

Walter Wellman, accompanied by five companions, left New York Saturday morning in a cigar shaped air ship on a trip across the Atlantic ocean. The gas bag is 228 feet long, the passenger car 156 feet, the carry capacity is twelve tons, and 9,000 pounds of gasoline to feed the motors was taken on board.

In the east part of the state the political campaign wages warmly, and considerable interest is evinced. In this part of the state, however, there is a lethargy which it is doubtful if "spellers" were they to visit us, could remove. Perhaps the appearance of Candidates Hitchcock and Taylor in North Platte this evening may tend to awaken things political.

Senator J. P. Dolliver died at his home in Ft. Dodge, Iowa, Friday evening from dilation of the heart, following an acute attack of stomach trouble of about a week's duration. He had been up all day Saturday and was able to walk about the lawn, but in the evening died while the physician was making an examination of his heart with a stethoscope. Senator Dolliver was born in Virginia in 1857 and located in Iowa in 1876. He represented the Tenth Iowa district for six terms in congress. In 1900 he was appointed senator to succeed Senator Gear, was elected in 1902, re-elected in 1907 and his present term would have expired in March, 1913.

Broken Bow, a town about half the size of North Platte, has made arrangements to erect a city hall. Such a building is needed in North Platte, particularly as a storehouse for the new fire apparatus which has been ordered. This new hose wagon will call for a team of horses that will be at all time available, and this means the city must need own the team. This, too, will probably call for the employment of one man regularly. The city has grown wonderfully, and the fire department must keep pace with that growth. Because we have been fortunate in the way of fires is no reason why we should allow the fire department to lapse into inefficiency as the town grows.

Howard and Hitchcock.

Edgar Howard has "made good" in his charge against G. M. Hitchcock, democratic candidate for United States senator. In Saturday's Bee Howard publishes a fac-simile of a letter written by Hitchcock to Bartley in which he asks for an extension of time on five notes aggregating $1,000. This is money Hitchcock borrowed of Bartley as state treasurer and not of Bartley as an individual. When H. L. Gould, of Ogalala, was a candidate for regent of the university, Hitchcock though the World-Herald demanded that he, Gould, withdraw because the bank, of which Gould was the head, had part of the Bartley money, and Gould, for the good of the party withdrew. If Gould was guilty of misconduct then, the same applies to Mr. Hitchcock today.

In a rejoinder to the above charges Mr. Hitchcock, in yesterday's papers, admits that he borrowed $2,000 of Bartley four years before he became a defaulter, and that the $1,000 referred to above was part of that sum. Mr. Hitchcock says all this money was returned dollar for dollar. Notwithstanding Mr. Hitchcock's "explanation", there is room to question the action of a democratic editor borrowing money from a republican state treasurer. It will also be remembered that at the time Governor Savage pardoned Bartley no criticism was made by the World-Herald.

The windy season seems to have arrived, Sunday and yesterday being very disagreeable days. It is probable that cooler weather will follow.

Father Carroll's Farewell Letter.

To the Members of St. Patrick's Church—Kindly pardon a final word to you and my saying it to you through the newspaper. I leave this evening for my new field of work and I know that your best wishes go with me. This is sufficient. Before leaving a parish, the pastor closes his account and makes out financial statements from January 1st of the current year. Also a statement of liabilities (if there is any). One of these is left for the new pastor; one is sent or presented to the right reverend bishop of the diocese. This I am doing.

Now you all know there is a balance of eight hundred dollars ($800) due to Mr. F. Montague on his note. This is the balance due on the original note of four thousand dollars ($4,000) made before I came to you. Changes have been made since the original note was made. On this note payments have been made and renewals for the balance due have been made. Thus it happens that my name as treasurer of St. Patrick's church has been signed to the note. I had hoped that this balance of $800 would have been paid last March (interest time) and the note cancelled. This was not done as you all know. Interest will be due before the end of the present month.

As I told you last Sunday, the sum of $202 is on hand in favor of this note and interest on the same. Last Wednesday evening you, through Dr. McCabe, treated me to a pleasant surprise and presented me with a purse. This I received. From my coming to you I have had your best interests at heart and I will say the best interests of your city. On leaving you and North Platte I ask that you and the other residents of the city work for the real welfare of your city and for the support of good government; in co-operating with the efforts made by those in authority; in the giving of good example to one another; in the care and instruction and proper bringing up of your children and in the making of your homes the homes of people who fear God, who love Him and who observe His law.

In my final parting from you as your pastor I have the pleasure to inform you that the purse you so kindly presented me with last Wednesday evening, has been donated to St. Patrick's church, to be applied for the note due. I request that you make a combined effort and cancel the note. I request finally that you carry out the advice I have given you and I do honestly believe that success will be yours, for you will be doing the work I believe God gave you to do. Your friend and well wisher, STEPHEN F. CARROLL.

Work began yesterday on a $5,000 residence on the late ranch north of Paxton. The house will be provided with a heating plant and water system. The plans were drawn by Architect Shaeffer of this city, and the contractor is Mr. Dutch, of Ogalala.

FAIR EXCHANGE.

A New Back for an Old One—How it is Done in North Platte.

The back aches at times with a dull indescribable feeling, making you weary and restless; piercing pains shoot across the region of the kidneys, and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use to rub or apply a plaster to the back in this condition. You cannot reach the cause. Exchange the bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this North Platte citizen.

Thomas McGovern, 409 E. Tenth St., North Platte, Neb., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a great many years. Whenever I become afflicted with kidney trouble from overexertion, and have severe pains through my back, this remedy is my mainstay. I have been so bad from a stiffness in my back that I could scarcely straighten when arising in the morning. Doan's Kidney Pills procured from McDonald & Graves' Drug store have always given me wonderful relief. There is no other remedy that can be compared with them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no others.
