

I SEE they are advertising Big Ben in the big magazines and I am glad of it, for he's the best alarm clock that I have ever sold.

Some time ago I took one home for trial, now the folks would not be without him.—If I could not get another I would not part with mine for a five dollar bill, but you can have his twin for just half that price.—I keep him in the window where everyone can see him.

Lee Grimes, returned from Omaha last evening and will leave the latter part of the week for New Mexico where he will begin work on the construction of new road in that state.

W. H. Cowgill, state railway commissioner died at his home in Lincoln Sunday night. He had been suffering from Bright's disease, and a week ago was stricken with paralysis while attending a ball game.

Mrs. M. A. Semer, of Las Vegas, Cal., is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Levi Duke.

Miss Belle Craigie resumed her duties as teacher in the Lincoln school yesterday.

Miss Lena Baskins returned the latter part of last week from an extended visit with relatives in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. James Light, who were among the first to settle in Wallace precinct, left last week for St. Cloud, Florida, where they will reside.

In the case of the State vs. F. R. Owings for allowing gambling at a public house, which was heard in the county court this morning, the defendant entered a plea of guilty. Upon the advice of the county attorney, judgment was suspended for sixty days.

The Ladies of the Maccabees will be given a benefit at the Crystal theatre tomorrow evening. A splendid program of moving pictures and vaudeville acts has been arranged, and attendants will be given more than the admission price, which will be fifteen cents.

The enrollment of the city schools last Friday had reached 1,056. The total enrollment last year was 1,059. As new pupils are entering each week, the total enrollment this year will reach a number considerably higher than last year.

The public library committee held a meeting last evening and further considered the possibility of securing a site for the proposed library. No definite action was, however, taken. The committee will meet with the city council this evening and further discuss the matter.

Negotiations will probably soon be closed for the sale of the Baptist church property on the corner of Fifth and Locust streets to J. W. Payne. The consideration, we understand is to be $12,000, the church to remove the buildings. In the deal the church takes the Payne house on west Fourth street, which will be used as a parsonage.

Foot Ball Friday.

The initial game of foot ball on the local field will be played next Friday when the Sterling high school team will contest for honors with the local high school team. The Sterling team has had the advantage of a salaried coach, and if the reports which reach here are not strongly tinged with hot air, the Colorado boys are very smooth handlers of the ball. The local team, however, is in pink condition, and if they lose it will be through exceptional playing on the part of the visitors. If you are interested at all in foot ball, it will be worth your while to witness this game.

For the Investor.

We have some choice first mortgage loans in sums of $500 to $300 netting 8 per cent semi-annual interest on good income property. See BRATT & GOODMAN.

Dan Cupid.

While it is often thought that work in musical comedy vitiated individuality, such has not been the case with the personnel of "Dan Cupid" for this new musical comedy is one of the most finished productions of its time, the work of each individual stands out prominently in many characteristic delineations required in the libretto, and it seems a very easy vehicle for the catchy songs and musical numbers which are interwoven in delightful quantities.

Like the sparkle in the champagne and the color in the wine is the effervescent laughter stirred by the farcical pranks of daring "Dan Cupid" in the funny musical comedy of that name. At the Keith next Friday evening.

Bratt & Goodman's Bargains Today.

Married Last Evening.

At the home of her sister, Mrs. I. L. Bailor last evening occurred the marriage of Miss Blanche Crane to James Smallwood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Porter, of the Methodist church, in the presence of about twenty-five, those present being only the relatives and more intimate friends of the young couple.

The bride wore a very pretty gown of pale blue messaline, while the groom wore the conventional black. The couple were unattended.

Following the ceremony and the extending of congratulations and best wishes, an enjoyable three course luncheon was served.

The bride is the youngest daughter of E. W. Crane and has grown to young womanhood in this city. She is a popular young lady with a large circle of friends, who extend their best wishes to the young couple. Mr. Smallwood is a steady and industrious young man, employed by the Ballard Bros. as mason.

The young couple left on the midnight train for Lincoln, expecting to be absent a week or ten days. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at the residence in the south part of town, which the groom had previously built.

To the Public.

The best thing on the market is the great fuel saver. It is entirely harmless and easy to manage. No handling of coal, no carrying out ashes. The hot blast distillate oil burners to be used in cook stoves, heaters and furnaces. Use sight-feed the safest on earth. Get your orders in early as the demand is great. Injured in Auto Accident.

Mrs. Walter Hoagland was injured Sunday afternoon by being thrown from an auto, sustaining a broken collar bone and severe bruises on the body and an ugly gash on the head.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoagland and children and Miss Loughridge, of Lincoln, were driving at a fair rate of speed a couple of miles south of Maxwell at the time of the accident. Approaching a bridge, where the sand had been worn away considerably making a deep hole and difficult to go upon the bridge. In order to evade this, Mr. Hoagland steered the car to one side but struck the banister of the bridge and in making a quick turn the car gave a sudden lunge throwing Mrs. Hoagland and her four year old son Robert out of the car. She was picked up unconscious and taken to the Plummer home in Maxwell where a physician was called and after a time she was restored to consciousness. She was brought to town on No. 1 and conveyed to her home and her injuries attended to. Her condition at present is improving and no serious results are anticipated. Robert, who was in his mother's arms, escaped with only slight bruises about the head.

Sues for Divorce.

A suit has been filed in the district court by Fern Vinson for a divorce from her husband Ralph Vinson on the grounds of cruelty. In her petition the plaintiff says they were married April 12th, 1903, and while residents of Scotts Bluff the defendant slapped her, and on October 1st last he picked her up with violence and carried her off tearing the dress which she was wearing. Plaintiff alleges that she had always been a dutiful wife.

There were large audiences present at the Christian Church both morning and evening last Sunday. The revival spirit was still evident as there were two who responded to the invitation to accept Christ. At the close of the meeting the following aim was adopted by the officers of the church: "100 additions to the church in the next year".

Four have already made the good confession since the close of the meetings. In the Sunday morning service all the converts and new members present were seated in the center of the church with the old members all around them to indicate the love and sympathy with which they will be continually surrounded. This evening all members are invited to be present for Bible study and the formation of a class in "Training for Service". Thursday evening there will be held the regular prayer meeting service. Topic, "The Christian Armor".
