A petition signed by 1,000 voters was filed with the secretary of the state last evening requesting that the name of Peter Mortensen, of Ord, be placed upon the ballot as the republican candidate for railway commissioner to fill vacancy caused by the death of Commissioner Cowgill.

A Columbus special in today's Bee says: Edgar Howard is amazed at the apparent abandonment of all others on the democratic ticket for the purpose of pulling Gilbert M. Hitchcock out of his Bartley shortage hole. It has been Judge Howard's fond belief that the democratic party in Nebraska was trying to elect its state ticket, but he is now convinced that the state committee has determined to let everything else go by default in a desperate effort to save the candidate for United States senate who has been so irrevocably connected with the looting of the Nebraska state treasury. It is inconceivable, according to the judge, that the interests of all the other candidates should be sidetracked to give right-of-way to the late partner of Joe Bartley, but such now seems to be the case.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. For sale by all dealers.

The Wizard.

"It's a remarkable thing," said old Brightboy at ten time, "but I can push my saucer through the handle of my cup."

The others glanced at the small handle and gave the speaker a withering look.

"I can," persisted Brightboy.

"Do it, then," they challenged. Calmly taking up his spoon, Brightboy pushed it through the handle of the cup and then pushed the saucer with it.
