The democrats are centering their work on Dahlman, and with the aid of a certain class of republicans, hope to pull him through. The Tribune does not believe that Dahlman will be elected or that he should be elected.

Auditor of State Silas R. Barton has been renominated for a second term on the republican state ticket. Mr. Barton's administration of his office for the last two years entitles him to renomination.

We trust railroad men of North Platte will not overlook the fact that C. H. Aldrich, the republican candidate for governor, gave his aid in the passage of laws that are of value to them.

The election of W. V. Hoagland as state senator is of particular interest to the people of Lincoln and adjoining counties. We have a sub station of the experimental farm that must be maintained by appropriations from the state and also a Junior Normal school.

Why Bryan Can't Support Dahlman. From W. J. Bryan's Speech at Lincoln on Monday evening: "I owe it to the democrats of the state to define my own attitude and to set forth the reasons for withholding my support from Dahlman."

Blanche Walsh and company presented "The Other Woman" Wednesday night to an almost capacity audience. In this emotional play Miss Walsh is seen at her best, and her work was certainly appreciated by her auditors.

The mean temperature last month was five degrees warmer than the average for October, the normal being fifty degrees, while the mean for last month was fifty-five. The highest was 93 on the 10th and the lowest 12 on 28th.

Strayed or Stolen—A white bull dog about ten months old brindle spots around the eyes. Anyone knowing of its whereabouts notify or phone S. W. Kelly 208 South Maple. Liberal reward will be paid.

Nebraska farms have yielded $220,000,000 in crops this year, according to the state labor bureau's figures, which, at least on corn, are much less than those of other statisticians.

Another large shipment of diamonds just received and our low prices and fine quality have won for us many patrons in the past. Let us show you how beautiful a diamond you may be the possessor of at a medium price.

Democrats. You are reminded that you have no candidate for state senator, Markwood Holmes, Peoples Independent party candidate, having failed to get on the democratic ticket.

(Advertisement) To the Voters of Lincoln County and Adjacent Counties.

The Democrats having no newspaper of their own, take this means of reaching the voters.

There has been circulated a story to the effect that if Jas. C. Dahlman is elected governor he will not enforce the laws and especially the EIGHT O'CLOCK CLOSING LAW.

The following letter written by him and over his own signature and to a man whom practically every man in Lincoln county is acquainted with or has heard of, ought to set at rest any doubt as to where his attitude will be in regard to law enforcement.

Omaha, Neb., October 6th, 1910. Mr. Jas. White, Hershey, Neb.

Dear Sir: There seems to be some question as to my enforcing the laws that are now on the Statutes of our state. In case I am elected governor I WILL ENFORCE EVERY LAW FROM LIQUOR DOWN TO IRRIGATION AND ANY OTHER LAW UNTIL REPEALED if I am elected.

Jas. C. Dahlman. Printing Proposals. Sealed bids will be received at my office up to Tuesday, Nov. 15th, 1910, Twelve o'clock Noon, for the printing of the new revised ordinances of the city of North Platte in book form as follows:

Books to be set in ten part type, leaded with black subheads. Width of pages 26 ems and seven inches long. To be printed upon 24 x 36 fifty pound English Royal book. Fifty books to be bound like sample on file in my office and fifty to be bound with Royal Melton cover.

Printed matter will cover about 150 pages to 200 pages, and there must be added fifty blank pages at back of book with following printed head to-wit: "New and Amended Ordinances."

Bids must be submitted for price per page of printed ordinance and price per page for blank pages aforesaid, to include binding aforesaid. Bidder to specify time for completion of work.
