Ralph Vinson committed suicide at Grand Island Monday night by taking carbolic acid, corrosive sublimate and wood alcohol, and died the following morning at the St. Francis hospital in that city. His wife Fern Vinson was this week granted a divorce by the district court which is now in session in this city and this is given as the reason for his act.

The proposed new depot building to be erected here would provide office rooms for that official.

In the event the consolidation occurs it is probable that the superintendent of the Nebraska division would have his headquarters at North Platte. It is pointed out that the headquarters of Supt. Jeffers, of the Utah division, has been moved from Ogden to Green River, which is about midway between Cheyenne and Ogden, and that if the Nebraska division is extended to Cheyenne, North Platte would be the logical headquarters for the superintendent.
