Miss Ida Ottenstein entertained the young ladies Bridge Club last evening, and served an enjoyable two course lunch at the close of the games. Twelve members were present.

The Harmony Club held a very pleasant session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clabaugh, several guests in addition to the full membership being present. The first prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Waltemath and G. S. Huffman, the guest prize to Mrs. Sol Pizer, and the consolation emblems to Mrs. Huffman and Prof. Garlich. An enjoyable lunch was served, Mrs. Albert Muldoon assisting the hostess.

The young people of the Lutheran church are arranging for a social next Thursday evening. And this is a personal invitation to every member and friend of this church to be present. Not being there will deprive you of an evening's pleasure and without regrets might be an offense to your solicitous hostesses and bring the guilt upon the offender of violating the principle in the "Golden Rule." Don't forget that the time is Thursday evening.

A bevy of girls of the Catholic church, numbering fourteen and ranging in age from fourteen to seventeen years, met at the home of Hazel Smith and were organized into a society which will be known as the J. J.'s the girls deciding to keep the full significance of their name as the secret part of their society. As there is much talent, musical and otherwise among the girls, they are sure to have a good time. They will meet socially twice a month at the homes of the different members, with Mrs. J. I. Smith acting as chaperone.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Streeter were the host and hostess at a very enjoyable affair Saturday evening when they entertained thirty guests in honor of their fifth wedding anniversary. High five was the entertaining feature of the evening and at this game Mrs. J. A. Jones and Jess Edwards won the first prizes, while the consolations were awarded to Miss Vivian Knox and Fred Fillion. At a late hour the guests were served to a two-course lunch, the Misses Margaret Jones, Vivian Knox, Mabel Walters and Genevieve Woods assisting. Mr. and Mrs. Streeter were the recipients of many gifts and these as well as the prizes were of wood, significant of the fifth anniversary.

Grattan Foley Dies.

A telegram received by The Tribune Saturday announced the death at Hoisington, Kas., of Grattan S. Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Foley, for many years residents of North Platte. Death was due to typhoid fever. The funeral was held from the family residence in Kansas City yesterday afternoon and the remains interred in Mt. Washington cemetery.

The deceased was born in North Platte, and will be remembered as a boy by all the older residents. He leaves a wife and one child, and is also survived by his parents and a sister.

In the death of Grattan the family have the sympathy of many North Platte friends.

Waldo Home Destroyed.

Fire Saturday night completely destroyed the Waldo home on South Vine street with all of its contents.

Mrs. Waldo, who has been out of the city for some time was expected home Saturday night and Mr. Waldo had, early in the evening built a fire in the heating stove and then came up town. The exact origin of the fire is unknown but the supposition is that it was caused by a defective flue. The hose companies responded to the alarm but at the time the fire was discovered it had made such a headway that practically nothing could be done.

All members of the Eastern Star are requested to meet at the Masonic hall at 7:30 on the evening of November 24th. The grand matron will hold a school of instruction.

Miss Jessie Blankenburg will organize classes in china painting. Those interested may call at 102 West 6th St. Also a line of hand painted china and other hand decorated Christmas gifts for sale, and orders taken.

Mrs. Charles Davis, who had been making an extended visit with her father A. R. Adamson and other relatives in town, left this morning for her home at Portland, Ore.

DIXON, THE JEWELER. Weather forecast—Partly cloudy and cooler tonight, Wednesday fair. Maximum temperature yesterday 64; one year ago 31. Minimum temperature this morning 30; one year ago 17.

Folks who have worn Armour Plate Hosiery will not accept any other. They know how to get long wear without paying any more than you pay for the unsatisfactory kind.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in our bereavement and for the beautiful floral offerings.

MR. AND MRS. J. G. ANDERSON. MR. AND MRS. F. W. PLACK.

William the ten year old son of D. A. Goodrich, who lives on the Wallace ranch at Birdwood, died Saturday evening after a short illness. Funeral services were held at the home this forenoon conducted by Rev. Harmon, and the remains interred in North Platte cemetery.

School hosiery without the usual darning troubles. Armour Plate Stockings are "ideal" for the youngsters because they stand the wear. You would materially reduce your hosiery expense if you would let them wear no other kind.

SMALL, The Big Shoeman.
