TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, DECEMBER 20, 1910

NO 95

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

George Garmen and Alvin Zaulers, who live southeast of town, made final proof on their homesteads Friday.

Paul Woolheather and Miss Rosa E. George, both of Ogalala, were united in marriage by Judge Elder Friday.

The county commissioners convened in session today, and will transact such business as demands their attention.

Judge Grimes returned Saturday from the west part of his district, where he had been holding court for two weeks.

Our display of plain and fancy china is the best shown in the city. Tramp Grocery.

The enrollment in the city schools is now slightly in excess of eleven hundred, or about seventy greater than the highest enrollment last year.

W. B. Beam, cashier of the Bank of Brule, has resigned and is succeeded by Earl Johnson, a graduate of Doane college.

The state irrigation engineer spent Sunday in town while enroute to Scotts Bluffs county, where he was called on business connected with his official position.

Tramp handles the Kamo brand of canned goods, coffees and other goods. There are none better.

Yesterday was pay-day for Wyoming division employes, and trade among the merchants brightened up immediately. This ought to prove a very busy week for stores making a specialty of holiday goods.

Wanted to sell—Eight brood mares. Weight 1050 to 1500 pounds. L. E. Ebricht, two miles west of Experimental farm.

The concert by the Wesleyan University Glee Club at the Wendie music hall Friday evening was attended by an audience that filled the hall. The numbers by the Glee Club were well rendered as also the cornet solo by Mr. Greenslit, the readings by Mr. McCord and the whistling solo by Mr. Tuttle. The club was frequently encored.

A son of B. G. Sowle, living south of Maxwell, had a leg broken last week by a horse falling with him.

Sheriff Miltonberger attended the semi-annual convention of state sheriffs at Columbus the latter part of last week.

The Lady Hustlers will give a dancing party at Masonic hall on Wednesday evening of next week, December 28th.

For Sale—Same choice Poland China Boars, also some Red Polled Bulls. Payne's Dairy Farm, one half mile south of North Platte.

J. H. Adams, now of Portland but formerly of Maxwell, is in this section this week buying heavy draft horses to ship to Portland.

Supt. Snyder, of the state farm, went to Maxwell yesterday to attend the farmers' institute, before which he will make an address.

Choice Cigars in Xmas boxes at Chiller & Co's.

At the state meeting of the association county commissioners and county clerks held in Omaha last week, F. R. Elliott of this city was re-elected secretary treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Miller and daughter of Hershey, were in town yesterday shopping. Mr. Miller has been somewhat "under the weather" for several weeks past.

We have an entire new shipment of china cups and saucers, plates, etc., for Christmas trade.

BUCHANAN CO.

John Robinson, an old-time cattle man of the North Platte valley, is in town today enroute to California, where he expects to make his future home. He has amassed sufficient wealth to take life easy.

Wanted to sell—One three year old black Percheron Stallion. Registered No. 62422. L. E. Ebricht, two miles west of Experimental farm.

Chief of Police Lowell went to Kearney Friday for the purpose of investigating a crew of the whereabouts of Bill Hall, who is wanted here on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He failed to locate Hall.

Mrs. Edmisten Suffers Stroke.
News reached the city Saturday that Mrs. Rhoda Foster Edmisten, formerly of this city, had suffered a paralytic stroke the preceding Thursday at her home at Meridan, Wyo. Her entire left side is paralyzed, and she is said to be in a serious condition. She has since been moved to Cheyenne for treatment. Her son, Ed Wright, of Myrtle, has gone to be with her.

Strong Attractions at the Keith.
Three unusually strong attractions are booked at the Keith during the next two weeks. They are "The Fortune Hunter" on December 31st, "The Isle of Spice," on January 2d, and Lillian Russell starring "In Search of a Sinner" on January 9th. These are top notches on the theatrical stage, and each will be presented with the same cast as used in the large cities. Theatre goers may therefore expect something good and will not be disappointed.

Bishop Beecher Was Not Robbed.
Rector Philip G. Snow, of St. Luke's church of Kearney, has received a communication from Bishop Beecher, of Omaha, which incidentally states that the sensationally handled story concerning the robbery of his home and the theft of several highly treasured valuables, was a fairy tale. The house was not entered by burglars, neither was anything stolen from the home. The story was a false scare and was without any foundation or fact.—Kearney Hub.

Mrs. Church Property Sold.
The Mrs. Church property on the corner of Fourth and Willow streets was sold under foreclosure Saturday to Mrs. Edith Gantt for $5,000. The purchaser will move to this city from Lincoln and occupy the property at the end of the school year. There was but one other bid, and that was made simply to cover the mortgage held by the building and loan association.

Following the sale J. E. Evans, representing Mrs. Church, announced that he would redeem the property rather than allow it to go for less than $5,000. It is probable that Mrs. Gantt will take the property at the latter price.

Beet Acreage will be Increased.
Contracting Agent Bryan, of the American Beet Sugar Co., says that the beet acreage in Lincoln county and at points along the North River branch will be considerably larger than last year. The acreage around Sarben, on the branch, is sufficiently large to justify the erection of a dump, and it is believed that a dump will also be built at Birdwood, the farmers living adjacent to the latter sidetrack having shown a disposition to largely increase last year's acreage.

About one-fourth the needed acreage has already been secured. The conditions of the contract with the growers this year are more favorable to the growers than a few years ago.

Col. Cody is Home.
Colonel W. F. Cody arrived home Sunday morning and will remain until Monday of next week. The Colonel is receiving a hearty welcome from his old time friends, all of whom are mighty glad to have him with us. In speaking of the show season, the Colonel says this year has been one of the most successful the Wild West has ever had. From the opening day at New York to the close of the season at Little Rock, Ark., the show did not lose a single performance, and at each the attendance taxed the seating capacity. Since the show closed, the Colonel has spent the time in Arizona looking after his valuable gold and copper mines, reference to which was made in these columns a couple of weeks ago.

Col. Cody looks hale and hearty and says he feels as good as he looks.

Brakeman Chapman Loses Leg.
Ed Chapman, brakeman for Conductor Huddart, had his right leg between the ankle and knee so badly crushed at Chappell Friday night that amputation was necessary. The train on which he was braking had sidetracked at Chappell for No. 17, and as the latter train pulled out of the station Chapman got on the steps to ride west to the caboose of the freight train. In attempting to get off at the water tank he stepped on a cake of ice which threw his right leg under the wheels of the moving train. Dragging his leg from off the rail, he hobbled some distance and then sat down, where he was found by the train crew, taken to a hotel and two physicians summoned, who amputated the leg. He was then placed on train No. 10 and taken through to a hospital at Omaha. He received no injuries other than the crushed leg.

Chapman is a popular railroad man, and his misfortune is regretted by all acquaintances.

Just received! a line of white china—for china painters.
