HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

Costly New York Living Apartments

NEW YORK—In the city of New York, where millionaires seem to thrive like mushrooms in a cellar, there is being constructed an apartment house in which a suite of rooms will rent for $25,000 a year. Probably this rental is the highest that has ever been asked for an apartment, even such as will be found in this house, a series of 18 rooms and so many baths that one would be able to use a different one every day in the week and two on Sunday without doubling on his trail. It is the apotheosis of luxury; the last word, so far as the human mind of today can imagine, in scandalous magnificence. In other words, the builders of this house have set a new pace for spendthrifts in the way of living. A yearly rental of $18,000 is the highest that has ever before been asked for unfurnished housekeeping apartments in New York city.

The new apartment house will have 17 apartments—one on each of the 17 floors—and five duplex apartments in addition. The eleventh and twelfth floors will be devoted to apartments which will occupy all the floor space, and these will rent for $25,000 a year. The apartments which share a floor with half of a duplex apartment will rent for $18,000.

The architects have arranged the suites so that each of these big floors shall have more and larger rooms than

This Murderer 36 Years in One Cell

BOSTON—Bent and marked with prison palsy, Jesse H. Pomeroy, serving a life sentence in Charlestown, Mass., has written his own story of his crime and his efforts to better his conditions shut away from the freedom of the world. He is now 50 years of age and was convicted of a double murder when he was only fourteen years of age. All these years have been spent in solitary confinement and the prisoner declares he has never felt a touch of human sympathy or kindness and no effort has ever been made to better his condition. "I have no friends," he writes. "I cannot get a hearing from the governor. I have been left to my own devices in my cell all these years."

Pomeroy killed two children, a boy and a girl, after treating them with barbaric cruelty. He inveigled other small children into isolated sections, stripped them of their clothing, tied them to trees or upon boards and then

Chicago's Clubs for Working Girls

CHICAGO—In Chicago there are what are called Eleanor clubs, where girls of all sorts and conditions find homes. Among them are office clerks of all descriptions, telephone operators, milliners, bookkeepers, department store and other clerks, music and art students. These latter are encouraged to live, a few at every club, since it helps the clubs and the club girls in general.

At these clubs the weekly board rate pays for two meals, breakfast and dinner. If a girl wishes to take her lunch with her she pays five cents for three sandwiches and either fruit or cake, for which downtown she would pay about fifteen cents. There is the laundry also, which saves money for the girls. For its use, with tubs, hot water, irons, starch and bluing, the girls pay five cents an hour. This does away with washing in the rooms and may save, if the girl is clever with shirtwaists, whatever her laundry bill would amount to, minus the nominal laundry fee to the house.

There is no dormitory system, although in a few large rooms there may be three or even four single beds. Most of the rooms, however, are for two, and there are a number of single rooms in every club. Maids do the chamber work and the general cleaning, for the housework there is no co-operation, some girls must be at their desks or their shops or their counters early. There is also a sewing machine in every club for the free use of the girls.

In these Eleanor clubs the young women have much of the freedom of home, perhaps all that would be possible in so large a family. They have the parlors and verandas for receiving their friends and, so far as possible, the clubs are ruleless. The household bills are posted every month in each club, for, as the girls' own money pay them, it is only fair that they shall see where and how the money goes.

Women Sweep the Streets of Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga.—Atlanta's society leaders and club women put on white aprons one day recently and armed themselves with brooms to lead a militant crusade against dirt in the city's streets and back yards. They raised a prodigious dust, and found the experience no less interesting and no more strenuous than their accustomed bridge parties or dances. Incidentally, they accomplished a real good, for they obtained the assistance of five or six thousand housewives, each of whom agreed in advance to set apart the day for a general cleaning of their respective premises.

For this one day the municipal street

NOT PAGE FROM A ROMANCE

Conversation, However, Reads a Whole Lot More Like a Scene in Real Life.

"And so your father refuses to consent to our union?"
 "He does, Rodolphus."
 The sad youth swallowed a sob.
 "Is there nothing left for us, then, but an elopement?" said he.
 "Nothing."
 "Do you think, Clementine, that you could abandon this luxurious home, forget all the enjoyments of great wealth, banish yourself forever from your devoted parents' hearts, and go west with a poor young man to enter a home of lifelong poverty and self-denial?"
 "I could, Rodolphus."
 The sad youth rose wearily and reached for his hat.
 "Then," said he, "you are far from being the practical girl I have all along taken you to be."
 And with one last look around on the sumptuousness that some day he had hoped to share, he sobbed and said farewell.—Browning's Magazine.

16 YEARS OF SKIN DISEASE

"For sixteen long years I have been suffering with a bad case of skin disease. While a child there broke out a red sore on the legs just in back of my knees. It waxed from bad to worse, and at last I saw I had a bad skin disease. I tried many widely known doctors in different cities, but to no satisfactory result. The plague bothered me more in warm weather than in winter and being on my leg joints it made it impossible for me to walk, and I was forced to stay indoors in the warmest weather. My hopes of recovery were by this time spent. Sleepless nights and restless days made life an unbearable burden. At last I was advised to try the Cuticura Remedies [Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills] and I did not need more than a trial to convince me that I was on the road to success this time. I bought two sets of the Cuticura Remedies and after these were gone I was a different man entirely. I am now the happiest man that there is at least one true cure for skin diseases. Leonard A. Hawtof, 11 Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., July 30 and Aug. 8, '09."

Howard—Did you telephone Mrs. Howard that I would be detained at the office until midnight?
 Office Boy—Yes, sir.
 "And what did she say?"
 "Said she didn't blame you—she had made an engagement to go to the theater tonight herself."—Smart Set.

Incidentally Gives a Hard Jolt to Time-Honored Conception of New England Thanksgiving.

"Oh, yes; the New Englanders make a great time of Thanksgiving," said the insurance man as the subject was under discussion. "Yes, they are great on Thanksgiving."
 "All the relatives gather for a big finner, don't they?" was asked.
 "Yes. My Uncle Ben, up in Vermont, gathered thirty of us at his house last Thanksgiving."
 "What a visit you must have had!"
 "Oh, yes."
 "And the banquet. I can picture it."
 "Can you?"
 "There was turkey, goose, duck, chicken, roast pig and sparerib. There was mince pie, pumpkin pie and cider. There was a big cottage pudding and cranberry sauce. Ah, it must have been a royal feast."
 "Yes, it was," dryly replied the insurance man. "My Uncle Ben killed off four old roosters, his wife made four or five apple pies, and stewed up a peck of prunes, and we sat down to the feast."
 "But—but it was Thanksgiving."
 "Sure, Mike. If it hadn't been we wouldn't have got the prunes."
 "And—and that was all?"
 "All except that after dinner my Uncle Ben took up a collection for the heathen, and we chipped in 50 cents apiece. My Uncle Ben was the heathen, you know. Oh, yes—New England Thanksgiving. I've been there."
 Discouraging.
 "George," said her husband's wife, "I don't believe you have smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday."
 "That's right, my dear," replied his wife's husband. "I'm going to keep them until our Willie wants to learn to smoke."

quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a copper top and cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The 5" cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

Splendid Crops Your Liver's Your Life

In Saskatchewan (Western Canada) 800 Bushels from 20 acres of wheat was the three-year return from a Lloydminster farm in the season of 1910. Many fields in that as well as other districts yielded from 25 to 35 bushels of wheat to the acre. Other grains in proportion.

LARGE PROFITS are thus derived from the FREE HOMESTEAD LANDS of Western Canada.

This excellent showing causes prices to advance. Land values should double in two years' time. Grain growing, mixed farming, cattle raising and dairy are all profitable. Free Homesteads of 160 acres are to be had in the very best districts; 320 acre pre-emptions at $5.00 per acre within certain areas. Schools and churches in every settlement. Climate unequalled; soil the richest; wood, water and building material plentiful.
